

Nominations Open For WSGA, WRA

Application blanks for women students who wish to run for Women's Student Government Association and Women's Recreation Association offices are available today through Wednesday in the Dean of Women's office, 105 Old Main. Each candidate must nominate herself.

Nominations are open for two WSGA freshman senators, two WRA freshman representatives, and one WRA sophomore representative. Primary elections will be held Oct. 28 and final elections, Oct. 30.

Candidates will be interviewed by application boards Thursday. The boards will explain duties of each office and review qualifications of applicants. Qualified applicants will be introduced to students at house meetings Oct. 26.

WRA Representative

The offices of WSGA freshman senator and WRA freshman representative are open to any freshman woman. Officers must have a 1.5 All-College average at the end of the fall semester.

Candidates for WRA sophomore representative must be sophomore women with 1.5 All-College averages and no major Judicial record.

The duties of each office may be found in the constitutions of the organizations.

Duties Listed

WSGA freshman senators are co-chairmen of the Big-Little Sister Tea, are ex-officio members of Freshman Council, and attend all meetings of WSGA Senate.

The WRA sophomore representative is a member of the WRA executive board, is responsible for securing timers and scorers for competitive events, is manager of the WRA cabin, and is the official representative of the sophomore class.

WRA freshman representatives are members of the WRA executive board, are in charge of the WRA scrapbook, aid the sophomore representative in the management of the WRA cabin, and are the official representatives of the freshman class.

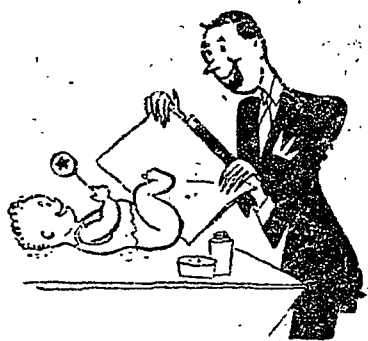

WSGA Senate Approves Fee For Freshmen

Approval of the proposed $2 LaVie fee for freshmen was expressed by Women's Student Government Association Senate at its meeting Wednesday night.

Senate voted against the motion before cabinet that the Chess Club be allocated $200 for expenses incurred during the time of competition.

Decision on whether the College needs a new hat society for senior women with a lower average than that required by Mortar Board was postponed until members could get more information.

Senate passed the constitutional amendment increasing junior women's 11 o'clock permissions from four to six a semester and those of seventh semester women from four to eight a semester.

Movies

GI, Cowboy Comedies, African Film at Movies

State College theaters are going international this weekend with movies ranging from a GI comedy at Tokyo and an African thriller to a "cowboy-injun" farce at Sawbuck Pass.

Tom Ewell and Harvey Hembree come back to the screen as the slapstick Willie and Joe in "Back at the Front," Bill Mauldin's sequel to "Up Front." The battle-hardened GIs of World War II find themselves in Tokyo tussling with an Oriental beauty and posing as dupes for smuggling activities. The picture will be at the State tonight through Monday starting 2:07, 4:01, 5:55, 7:49, and 9:46 p.m.

Bob Hope and Jane Russell are at it again in the western comedy, "Son of Paleface," at the Cathaum tonight through Tuesday. This time a Harvard man, Hope returns to Sawbuck Pass looking for his famous father's gold inheritance. He sets out to woo lady outlaw Jane Russell and winds up with government agent Roy Rogers and his old faithful, Trigger. Complications arise when the Indians try to avenge the ex-plots of Paleface Senior. The show begins 1:30, 3:33, 5:29, 7:32, and 9:40 p.m.

"Ivory Hunter," an adventure story filmed in Kenya, Africa, will be at the Nittany tomorrow through Wednesday. Starring Anthony Steel as a game warden trying to thwart needless animal slaughter, the Universal-Rank film offers technicolor scenes with action close-ups. Feature time is 6:15, 8:04, and 9:43 p.m.

The story of the mulatto son of a Negro soldier, "Angelo," will be at the Nittany tonight only. An Italian film with English subtitles, "Angelo" is being sponsored by the International Film Club.
