

Greeks to Host Returning Alums

After-game dinners, barbecues and dancing will be featured by fraternities as part of the Homecoming celebration in honor of alumni. Phi Gamma Delta will hold its annual Norris Pig Dinner following the game. A barbecued pig dinner will also be held at Delta Upsilon. Both houses will be open in the evening.

Talk About

"... No sooner does he step on Penn State soil than he becomes possessed of new life. He meets the boys whom he has not seen for many a year; he talks of the times when they had real class scraps and murderous games; he shakes the hand of an instructor whom once he thought of blackjacking; he walks up the street as though he owns the town. He does; there is no disputing his ownership."

"... And on the trip home, as he sits and muses over the many things that happened, of the many friends whom he met, and of the welcome he received, he leans over to Bill, "Gee, but it was great."

But there were other alumni days—In 1924, the Nittany Lions dropped their first game on Beaver Field since 1918 to Syracuse, 10-6, and a Collegian presidential poll had Coolidge way in front of Davis and LaFollette in that election year.

A year later saw Knute Rockne bring his Fighting Irish to Nittany Valley to highlight the alumni reunion, and with Gray, Weston, McCann, and Michalse shining, the Lions held Notre Dame to a scoreless draw.

The Homecoming battle in 1927 was a different story. Intercepting nine passes, and with Roepke, Lungren, and Craig leading the way, State romped to a 40-6 win over Lafayette, one of the few high scoring Homecoming contests.

At the tenth Homecoming celebration two years later it was once again Lafayette—and it was Yutz Diedrich, a half-back, who scampered 60 yards on the last play of the game to give the Lions a 6-3 win. It was one of the truly great moments in Beaver Field history.

Ten thousand visitors crowded into State College in 1930 to celebrate the 75th anniversary of the founding of the College; State lost to Colgate 40-0; but President Ralph Hetzel paused to predict that Penn State in 1950 would show an advance to 10,000 students, a pretty accurate prediction.

Thespians advertised that "The Depression is Over" in plugging their "Panics of 1931", and the Nittany Lions in their second year under Bob Higgins fell to Pitt 40-6 in that year's Homecoming attraction.

Hoover took an overwhelming straw vote victory on campus in 1932, and that year's Homecoming attraction was about 60 seconds

The music of Dick Dennis will be heard at Phi Sigma Kappa, and Jack La Clair will play for Sigma Alpha Mu's third anniversary. Jack Jenkins and his orchestra will play for the alumni at Chi Phi, and Phi Kappa Psi will hear the South Sea Serenaders. Phi Kappa Sigma will feature the Melody Men, and Delta Theta Sigma will have music by Dick Marsh.

Alpha Epsilon Pi will hold a semi-formal dinner dance and feature "Alpha Epsilon Pi Paradise," presented by the pledges.

After dinner, Tau Kappa Epsilon will give a party for its alumni in Bellefonte. Phi Kappa Psi and Kappa Sigma will burn their mortgages tomorrow.

Ross Young's "thousand fingers" will travel across the ivory keys at six fraternities during the evening. Those featuring him are Alpha Gamma Rho, Sigma Pi, Chi Phi, Phi Kappa Sigma, Triangle, and Alpha Epsilon Pi. Sigma Pi will have as its guest of honor Richard Lowe, grand sage of the fraternity.

Since they are on social probation, Alpha Tau Omega and Beta Sigma Rho will hold dinner for their alumni followed by closed parties.

Following the game, dinner and open house will be held at Alpha Chi Rho, Alpha Chi Sigma, Alpha Gamma Rho, Alpha Phi Delta, Alpha Sigma Phi, Alpha Zeta, Beaver House, Beta Theta Pi, Delta Chi, Delta Sigma Phi, Delta Tau Delta, Kappa Delta Rho, Lambda Chi Alpha, and Omega Psi Phi.

Also Phi Delta Theta, Phi Epsilon Pi, Phi Kappa, Pi Kappa Phi, Phi Kappa Tau, Phi Sigma Delta, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Chi, Sigma Nu, Sigma Phi Alpha, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Sigma Phi Sigma, Tau Phi Delta, Theta Chi, and Zeta Beta Tau.

too short as State lost to Syracuse 12-6, knocking at the goal at the end.

Jean Harlow and Lee Tracy were starring in "Bombshell" at the Cathaum in 1933; and Mae West's "I'm No Angel" with Cary Grant was the preview. The Collegian had a birthday party, its 30th, and the Lions with "Red" O'Hara passing to Captain Tommy Slusser, defeated Lehigh 33-0.

We should perhaps bring this column up to date and continue the story down to the present day. But then that would be stealing the glory from the 15,000 to 20,000 alumni who are in town today. With these few suggestions from the earlier years and the recentness of the '40's to fall back on, we should hear some great stories in reminiscences of Penn State's past.

A good day to you, Mr. Alum.

Alum to Talk At Chapel Tomorrow

Dr. Charles C. Berryhill, an alumnus who is now minister of the First Presbyterian Church of Niagara Falls, N. Y., will speak on "Who Owes What?" at Chapel services 11 a. m. tomorrow in Schwab Auditorium.

Dr. Berryhill was graduated from Penn State and received his S.T.B. degree from Western Theological Seminary in Pittsburgh. He served Presbyterian churches in New Texas and Edgewood before beginning his present pastorate.

While at Penn State, Dr. Berryhill was president of the senior class, editor of LaVie, president of Delta Sigma Phi fraternity, and a member of Skull and Bones and Lion's Paw, senior men's honorary societies.

The Chapel Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Willa C. Taylor, will sing "My Inmost Heart Now Raises" (Bach) and "Turn Back, O Man" from the Genevan Psalter. George Ceiga, Chapel organist, will play as prelude "Grande Choer" (Dubois); as offertory "Rhosynedre" (Welsh tune by Williams); and as postlude "To Thee Jehovah Will I Sing" (Schilling).

George Weidman Groff, who has served Penn State in Lingnan University, China, will be presented two honor tablets for his work.

Leonides Will Meet Monday in McElwain

Leonides, independent women's organization, will meet at 6:45 p.m. Monday in the second floor lounge of McElwain Hall.

Vivian Peterson, president, asked members to wear white blouses and dark skirts because the council's LaVie picture will be taken at 8 p.m. at the Penn State Photo Shop.
