U.S. Hits Russia In B-29 Incident

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States charged Russia yesterday with wanton destruction of an unarmed B-29 American bomber near Japan and warned Moscow of possible grave consequences from such "reckless" attacks.

A protest note couched in some of the strongest terms the United States has used in relations with the Soviets demanded compensation for the plane and any of its crew of eight men who may have perished. It disappeared Oct. 7 and Moscow contended it violated Soviet frontiers by flying in the area of the Russian occupied Yuri Island.

Denying this flatly, the U.S. accused Moscow of "calculated misrepresentation of the facts."
