Lion Fund Exceeds Goal With Alum Gift

Penn State's frisky Lion may discard his red and green patched fur and step out in a new fall suit next year.

A $50 contribution for the Lion suit fund from the Lion's Paw alumni association brought the fund total to $400.76, just over the goal.

But the job is not done. Because of increased prices, Harold R. Gilbert, graduate manager of athletics, said at least $500 should be on hand before the new suit can be ordered.

Hance Wins West Dorm Presidency

Robert Hance, seventh semester arts and letters student, was elected president of the West Dormitory Council in last night's close-as-possible elections.

Andrew Jaros was chosen vice president, Philip Beard secretary, and Ross Clark treasurer.

All elections were won by the margin of one vote. Hance, who had tied 8-8 with Lewis Goslin on four ballots last week, won tonight 9-7. Jaros won the vice presidency over Ross Clark 8-7 on a second ballot. George Forsyth was eliminated on the first ballot by a 6-5-4 vote.

John Lyon lost the secretaryship 8-7, and Joe Sommers was second in the treasurer race, also 8-7.

Hance appointed Hugh Cline chairman of the social committee and Goslin chairman of the food committee.

The council voted to hold its weekly meetings at 7 p.m. Monday in the lounge of McKee Hall. It met there for its first three meetings. Last year's meetings were held in the lounge of Hamilton Hall.

LA Council Favors LaVie $2 Assessment

By LYNN KAHANOWITZ

The Liberal Arts Student Council last night favored the $2 LaVie assessment for second semester freshmen and All-College Cabinet's financing the chess team and rejected the Recreation Hall seating plan proposed by Ernest McCoy, dean of the School of Physical Education and Athletics.

The council unanimously favored the LaVie assessment as the additional money is needed because of a decreased upperclass enrollment.

The approval of the $200 allocation to the chess team was made with the qualification that the team represent the College and not individuals.

The McCoy plan which was rejected proposed allotting 300 seats in Recreation Hall to townspeople and alumni.

First semester freshmen who wish to run in next week's council elections must submit petitions with names of 25 freshman Liberal Arts students by Saturday to the dean's office in 132 Sparks. Only two members of any one fraternity or sorority may be members of the council.

Paul Sappie, president of Alpha Kappa Psi, professional commerce fraternity, inaugurated a series of talks by LA club heads at council meetings.

Unreported collections made in fraternities and dormitory units should be turned in as soon as possible, David Pellnitz, Daily Collegian editor, has announced. Contributions may be left at the Collegian office, basement of Carnegie Hall, from 11 a.m. to noon and from 4 to 5 p.m., or at the Student Union desk in Old Main.

Unless the present two-year-old suit, can be repaired, the Lion will not appear at any more football games this fall, Alex Gregal, who portrays the Lion, said. Originally he was to appear at the Penn and Pitt games as well as the last home game with Rutgers. Because at least three months is necessary to have a new suit made, it will be impossible to have the new suit this season.

Thompson Hall freshmen opened the drive when they collected $122 in the dormitory. Ernest B. McCoy, dean of the School of Physical Education and Athletics, contributed $35.

A "Dress the Lion Day" drive conducted by Androcles hatmen Oct. 9 netted approximately $115. Booths on campus and at the Corner Room turned in $32.70. Hatmen collected $82.30 when they solicited at fraternities during the drive. At least $25 more in fraternity contributions is expected, Philip Greenberg, Androcles Lion suit campaign manager, has announced.

A collection made by dormitory representatives for Leonides, independent women's organization, netted $51.71. Donations of $5 were received from Philotes, independent women's social organization; Phi Mu, Phi Sigma Sigma, and Beta Sigma Omicron sororities; and Gregal, who wears the suit. Contributions of $1 were made by Wayne Mantz and Anthony Tornetta.

At a recent senior class meeting it was proposed that a permanent fund of $100 be taken from the senior class gift fund for the suit. Each succeeding senior class would be asked to donate $100 to this fund, which would make funds available at all times for a new suit.

IFC Workshop Opens Tonight

Exchange dinners and discussion periods on ten phases of fraternity life will begin at 6 tonight in ten fraternities as the third annual Interfraternity Council Workshop gets underway.

The purpose of the meetings to be held tonight, tomorrow, and Thursday is to uncover and discuss fraternity problems, attempting to find solutions. Each fraternity will be represented at each meeting by one delegate.

At forum-type meetings discussion groups will exchange ideas and adopt recommendations to make to IFC. Speakers from the College administration and faculty will address the groups each night.

Chapter advisers will meet at Phi Epsilon Pi under chairman James Carrigan, with Clifford A. Nelson, associate professor of economics, speaking; rushing chairmen at Phi Kappa Sigma under Joseph Connolly, with Dr. Kent Forster, associate professor of history, speaking; house managers at Chi Phi under Charles Signorino, with Richard Curto, salesman of house manager supplies, speaking; treasurers at Phi Kappa Tau under William Lindsay, with Charles J. Rowland, professor of accounting, speaking; and pledgemasters at Alpha Sigma Phi under Wil-

John Speer, after withdrawing from a representative-at-large nomination, was elected vice chairman of the sophomore class clique. He defeated Frum, John Harmin, Robert Piper, and Ruth Meng. ### Belle Hop Finalists

The finalists for the title of Belle Hop Queen are Barbara Werts, Andree Bloom, Maude Strawn, Jean Krewson, and Barbara Patton.

Penn Tickets Ready Early

Ticket distribution time for the Penn State-University of Pennsylvania football game tickets has been changed to start at 9 a.m. tomorrow, according to Harold R. Gilbert, graduate manager of athletics.

Previously the time for picking up the tickets students ordered by mail was set for Thursday and Friday.

Students may get the tickets at the Athletic Association office windows in Old Main until noon and from 1:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. until tickets are distributed.

Athletic Association books must be presented at the time of distribution to obtain tickets. Signatures on the Athletic Association books must be the same as those on the applications submitted for tickets. One person may pick up a group of tickets, Gilbert said.

Tickets for the $2.60 seats which were not ordered on student applications were placed on sale to anyone yesterday at the Athletic Association office.

Draft Test Applications Available

Draft situation discussed on page four

Applications for the Dec. 4 and April 23 Selective Service college qualification tests will be distributed from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. today in the second floor lounge of Old Main.

Approximately 2100 students are eligible to take the test, but only 230 picked up applications last Monday and Tuesday, Mrs. Sara E. Case of the Dean of Men's office, has announced.

Applications are being distributed on campus as a convenience to students so they will not need to visit their draft boards to obtain applications. Applications will be distributed during the lunch hour.

Applications for the Dec. 4 test must be postmarked no later than midnight Nov. 1, and those for the April 23 test no later than midnight March 9.

Selective Service officials have advised eligible students to take the test. A student's score on this examination is used by his local board as evidence upon which to base deferment decisions.

At present 70 is a passing grade for the test, but this does not necessarily guarantee deferment. To be eligible to take the test, a student must be a Selective Service registrant who intends to request deferment as a student, must be satisfactorily pursuing a full-time college course, and must not have previously taken the test.

Ex-Student Fined, Jailed

Pleading guilty to charges of showing obscene movies in a fraternity house, William R. Wolfe, 22-year-old former student, was fined $100, given a 30-day jail sentence, and ordered to pay prosecution costs at a hearing yesterday in the Centre County Court in Bellefonte.

Wolfe was arrested Oct. 13 through cooperative efforts of the State College Police, Interfraternity Council, and Delta Tau Delta. Delta Tau Delta agreed to accept the films, and when Wolfe appeared he was arrested by borough police.

Final Election Of Candidates Set for Sunday

Forrest Miller was nominated as a candidate for freshman class president and Alan Dash for freshman vice president Sunday night when State Party held opening nominations for sophomore and freshman class officer candidates.

No nominees for sophomore president or vice president were presented at Sunday's meeting. Faith Gallagher and Marion Waldman were nominated for sophomore secretary-treasurer, and Ann Lederman was nominated for the freshman secretary-treasurer post.

After final nominations and election of candidates at 7 p.m. next Sunday in 121 Sparks, the party will begin its campaign aimed toward winning the election Nov. 13.

Clique Officers Elected

Robert Sherman was elected senior class clique chairman of State Party at the Sunday meeting. He was unopposed. Charles Gibbs will remain junior class clique chairman.

Sophomore Norman Levin and freshman Sanford Lichtenstein, both unopposed, were elected to their respective class clique chairmanships.

Senior class clique positions were also filled at the meeting. Donald Brain was elected unopposed as vice chairman, and Marion Morgan will continue as secretary—the position she held last year. Janet Herd defeated Nancy Thomas, Edna Grabiak, and Carolyn McElroy to become senior class clique treasurer for State Party.

Soph Treasurer Unopposed

The only contested position among junior class clique offices was that of treasurer, which Jane Yahres won over Arnold Rosenberg. The junior clique nominees for vice president and secretary were unopposed. Charles Signorino is vice chairman and Linda Jacobs is secretary.

John Fink was elected sophomore class clique vice chairman over Thomas Lamona; Marian Romberger defeated Elisabeth Engel and Gertrude Malpezzi for the secretary position. Barbara Horn was unopposed as sophomore treasurer.

John McMeekin was elected vice clique chairman of the freshman class for State Party, defeating Robert McKenzie. Roberta Sankey won the secretary position over Elaine Giltmore. Aaron Kaye was elected treasurer with no opposition.

Prior to the party clique meeting next Sunday evening, a steering committee meeting will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday at Pi Kappa Alpha.

Two Freshmen Seriously Hurt In Auto Mishap

The other student injured was Samuel Tegan, first semester commerce major, who was riding with Bennett.

Bennett received lacerations of the head and arms. Both students were taken to Bellefonte Hospital. Damage to Bennett's automobile was estimated at $1200 dollars. A full report on the accident was not available, State Police said.
