

WSGA Interviews Scheduled Today

Thirty-four candidates for Women's Student Government Association freshman senator will be interviewed by the WSGA application board between 8:30 a.m. and noon today in 318 Willard. Applicants are to appear in alphabetical order, according to Louise Glud, elections chairman.

A two-thirds vote of the board is necessary for a candidate's name to appear on the primary ballot Tuesday. Final elections will take place Thursday.

Applicants for Women's Recreation Association freshman and sophomore representatives were interviewed Thursday, according to Eleanor Gwynn, WRA election's chairman.

WSGA nominees whose names are approved will be notified immediately. Both WRA and WSGA candidates will have their pictures taken for election posters at 1 p.m. today at the Penn State Photo Shop.

Candidates will be introduced at house meetings at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow and Monday. Students acting as poll sitters will meet in 318 Willard.

Voting will take place 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday. WSGA and WRA voting boxes will be located in the lobbies of McAllister, Thompson, and Atherton Halls. WRA will also have ballot boxes in Simmons and McElwain Halls.

Woman's Building, Grange Dormitory, and town students will vote in McAllister Hall. Town students must present matriculation cards.

The following election code has been released by the election committee:

1. No candidate can spend more than $2 on her campaign.
2. No posters may be placed on bulletin boards on campus and main lobbies of dormitories.
3. Posters may not be larger than 8 x 11 inches.
4. No candidate may tear down the posters of other candidates.
5. Door to door campaigning is prohibited. This includes sending of post cards for announcements over Groovology, notices in mailboxes, and leaflets in or under doors.
6. Candidate must secure the permission of the hostess to post signs in dormitories.

Blue Band Feted

—Photo by Schroeder
TAU KAPPA EPSILON, Kappa Delta Rho, and Alpha Epsilon Phi were the scene of simultaneous parties held last night, in honor of the Blue Band. Dr. Hummel Fishburn, head of the Department of Music, James W. Dunlop, conductor of the Blue Band, Thomas Hahn, president of the Blue Band, and Ed Austin, chairman of the entertainment committee, are shown grouped around a piano at last night's party.

WRA Outing Club To Climb Nittany

The Women's Recreation Association Outing Club plans to climb Mt. Nittany tomorrow afternoon. Members and interested students will meet in Simmons Hall lounge at 1:30 p.m.

The club will meet to elect new officers at 7 p.m. Monday in White Hall.

WRA to Meet Tomorrow

Candidates for Women's Recreation Association freshmen and sophomore representatives will meet at 9:20 tomorrow night in the Thompson Hall lounge for introductions and house meetings.

The area of Philadelphia is 130 square miles.

BEAT MICHIGAN STATE!

The TAVERN

ITALIAN SPAGHETTI
MEAT SAUCE

HUNGARIAN
CABBAGE ROLLS

ROAST TENDERLOIN OF BEEF
STUFFING

MIXED SEAFOOD PLATTER
PRIME SIRLOIN STEAKS

Religion—

Groups Will Observe Reformation Sunday

By LAVONNE ALTHOUSE

Reformation Sunday will be observed by two Protestant student groups at their meetings tomorrow night. The Rev. Luther H. Harshbarger, College chaplain, will speak on "The Faith of the Reformation" to the Lutheran Student Association after its fellowship supper at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow in the LSA Fellowship hall.

Dr. Harry Hutton will speak on "Some Facts and Fallacies of the English Reformation" at the meeting of the Canterbury Club at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow in the parish house.

The Evangelical United Brethren Student Fellowship will hear Glenn Goss speak on "The Progress of Moral Concepts in the Old Testament" after its fellowship supper at 5 p.m. tomorrow at St. John's E.U.B. Church.

Dr. Arthur H. Reede will speak about the coming presidential election as a Democratic sees it after the Wesley Foundation's fellowship supper at 5:15 p.m. tomorrow.

Two students will lead a discussion on the Korean situation at Roger Williams Fellowship after their fellowship supper meeting at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Hillel Foundation will sponsor a "Fall Frolic" tonight.

Graduate Group Will Meet Monday

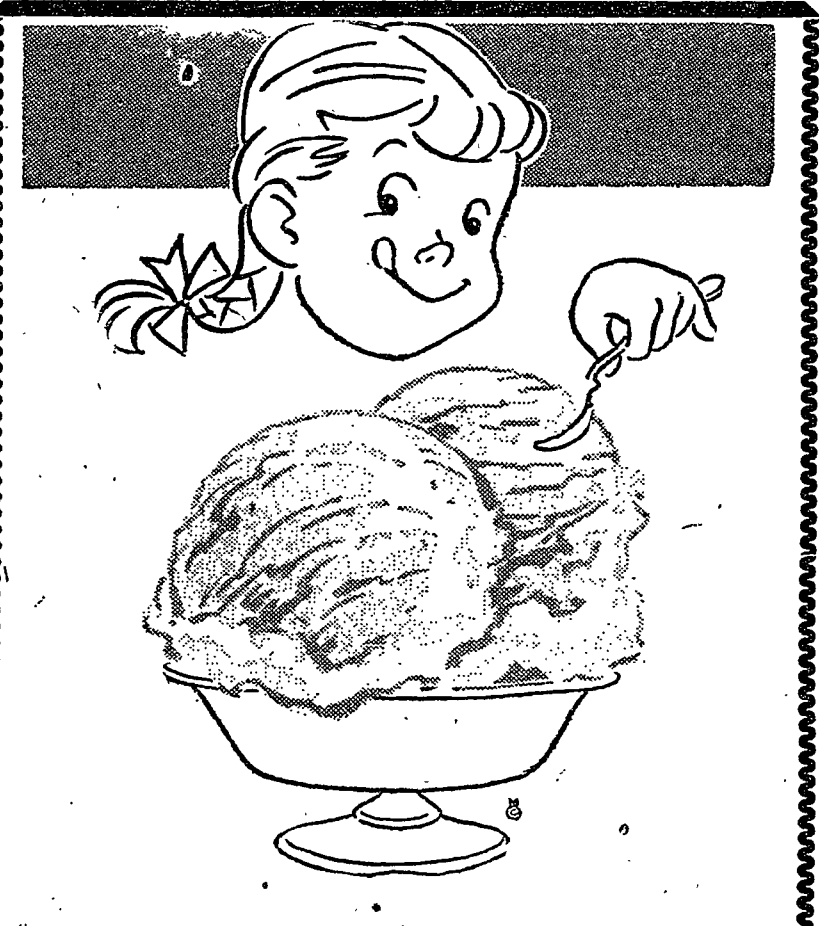

Four graduate students from India and Pakistan will discuss "Some Current Observations" about their countries at the first meeting of the International Graduate Students Club at 7:30 p.m. Monday in 304 Old Main.

The panel discussion, led by Syed S. Desnavi, Santosh K. Bhanja, Misbahul Haq, and Nagesh Wadaker, will initiate the year's program of international activities.

Sponsored by the Penn State Christian Association, the organization is comprised of foreign and American graduate students interested in the promotion of better international understanding.

The program committee includes Spyros Seliantis, Greece; Hermogenes F. Belin, Philippines; Richard Patterson, graduate student in the Industrial Vocation department; and Mrs. Philip Rice of State College.

Sa-a-y, This is Good!

You bet it is, Sis. Made of finest ingredients in a host of flavors. Order some!

Breyer's Ice Cream

at

McLANAHAN'S
DRUG STORE

NITTANY

A MESSAGE TO OUR PATRONS:

THE BEST TEST OF A GOOD MOVIE IS ITS RECEPTION BY DISCRIMINATING MOVIE-GOERS. THOSE BEST RECEIVED ARE WORTH SHOWING AGAIN. HERE, THEN, ARE FIVE CLASSICS YOU HAVE ALREADY APPROVED BY YOUR PAST RECEPTION OF THEM. WE KNOW YOU'LL ENJOY THEIR FINE ENTERTAINMENT!

MONDAY, OCT. 27—
Popular on the American Marquee as well as the British ALEC GUINNESS in
"A Merry Crime" "LAVENDER HILL MOB"
Comedy
Also Starring STANLEY HOLLOWAY

TUESDAY, OCT. 28—
"LONG DARK HALL"
REX HARRISON - LILI PALMER
Mystery packed with high tension done in the English superlative fashion . . .

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 29—
ALEC GUINNESS portrays all eight members of a British family
"KIND HEARTS and CORONETS"

THURSDAY, OCT. 30—
Music to Fill Your Heart and Soul
"CARNEGIE HALL"
Conductors—Walter Damrosch - Fritz Reiner
Singers—Lily Pons - Rise Stevens and many many others

FRIDAY, OCT. 31—
W. SOMERSET MAUGHAM'S
"TRIO"
"The Verger" - "T'r. Knowall" - "Sanitorium"
All Reviews said "Excellent!"

Today WARNER theatres

Cathlam

BING CROSBY
JANE WYMAN
"JUST FOR YOU"

State

GARY COOPER
PHYLLIS THAXTER
"SPRINGFIELD RIFLE"

Nittany

TODAY ALL DAY
RODDY McDOWALL
"THUNDERHEAD, SON OF FLICKA"