

Week-Long Coal Strike Ends

Lewis Sends Soft Coal Miners Back Pending Wage Decision

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 27 (AP)—The week-long coal strike ended today with John L. Lewis firing off "go to work" telegrams to aides throughout the nation's soft coal fields.

The president of the striking United Mine Workers told his 375,000 diggers they should resume production in the best interests of the public and themselves pending a final decision on their pay increase.

The nation's coal production was throttled just a week ago after the Wage Stabilization Board ruled that 40 cents should be lopped off the $1.90 a day pay boost which Lewis recently negotiated with the industry.

Miners, whose pay was cut by the WSB action from the expected $18.20 for a basic minimum day to $17.85 promptly refused to work. They took the stand that the government had nullified their contract. The miners have a long "no contract no work" tradition.

Lewis sided with his men and said they wouldn't work unless

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27 (AP)—The Interior Department said today the freeze on shipments of soft coal ends automatically when each mine resumes production.

It had been imposed to conserve coal in the event of a lengthy strike.

No accurate estimate is possible on the amount of coal that was held up by the freeze.

they got the full $1.90. But over the weekend President Truman summoned Lewis and Harry M. Moses, chief industry negotiator, to the White House and made a personal appeal for an end to the strike.

Lewis then sent his district director telegrams this morning which said in part:

"It will require a reasonable time for review of attendant facts and the reaching of a decision.

"It is my opinion that our industry should be operating during that period and that the best interests of the mine workers and the public will be best served.

"I am therefore requesting an immediate resumption of operations at all mines in all districts and I am urging each member of our union to return to work at once."

There is no official indication of how the pay issue will be resolved finally. The industry and the union jointly appealed the wage board's decision that the full pay boost would jeopardize the nation's anti-inflation fight.

They appealed to Economic Stabilizer Roger Putnam, who has the power to overrule the WSB.

In Washington, Putnam, categorically denied that he was aware of any deal to accommodate Lewis as the price for ending the pre-election strike.

"I just don't happen to be a dealer," Putnam told reporters.

"The only promise I made, or know about, is that the appeal made by Lewis and a major portion of the coal industry from the WSB ruling will get prompt and serious consideration."

Candidates Attack Each Other On Questions of Foreign Policy

Adlai Mentally Untutored -- Ike

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 27 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said tonight Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson has a mentality "completely untutored" to meet tough world problems and that the administration has deliberately fostered policies of inflation and "treadmill prosperity" for workers.

The Republican presidential nominee threw the double-barreled blast at the Truman administration and his Democratic rival in a speech delivered in this busy steel center.

Eisenhower repeated, as he had all day long in a barnstorming train trip across Pennsylvania, a pledge that he will go to Korea if he becomes president to see what can be done about ending the war there "with speed and honor." He jeered at Stevenson and other critics for what he called "partisan howling" on the subject.

Stevenson has suggested the place to settle the Korean War is in Moscow. Eisenhower had this comeback:

ABOARD EISENHOWER TRAIN IN PENNSYLVANIA, Oct. 27 (AP)—Gov. John S. Fine flatly predicted today Gov. Dwight D. Eisenhower will carry Pennsylvania by more than 150,000 votes next Tuesday.

"It betrays again the mentality that is completely untutored in the tough business of world relations. It is the cry of men whose formula for dealing with Soviet aggression has been openly stated in terms of 'give and concede.'"

Major Korean Hill Recaptured By Marines

SEOUL, Tuesday, Oct. 28 (AP)—U.S. Marines battling with fists, bayonets, and rifle butts wrested back the crest of a major Western Front hill position Monday from 1500 attacking Chinese Reds only to withdraw after dark under intense artillery fire.

Front reports said the Reds concentrated more than 17,000 rounds of shell fire on the position known as "The Hook." This is a mile long ridge guarding main Allied lines ten to 12 miles north-east of the truce town of Panmunjom.

With trench defenses shot to pieces, the Marines pulled off the crest and slopes, Monday night.

However, front dispatches said the Communist ground threat had been broken with heavy casualties. An accurate estimate was lacking.

On the Central Front north of Kumsu, Allied and Chinese troops dug in feverishly on the Y-shaped northern end of Sniper Ridge after battling to a standstill in 14 days and nights of savage action.

As the focus of battle swung to the west, Navy, Marine, and Air Force planes plastered the attacking Chinese with rockets, bombs and napalm. Almost 200 sorties alone were flown Monday in the First Marine Division's sector.

Politicians Report Campaign Expenses

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27 (AP)—The Republican and Democratic National Committees today reported their spending since Sept. 1, opening date of the presidential campaign. Their outgo: Republicans $1,370,357; Democrats, $943,260.

The Democrats also reported unpaid obligations amounting to $306,383.

Ex-Soldier Faces Trial as Convert To Old Religion

NEW YORK, Oct. 27 (AP)—In one of the nation's weirdest court cases, a former American Army sergeant stood trial today for treason as a convert to an ancient, stoic Oriental religion.

The defendant, John David Provoo, 36, faces the possibility of the death penalty if convicted as a renegade to the Japanese in World War II.

Captured in the fall of Corregidor a decade ago, Provoo allegedly shaved his head, donned the robes of the Buddhist priesthood and turned on fellow American captives to single them out for Japanese brutality.

Buddhism, a venerable religion of the East, teaches that all life is subject to suffering.

Witnesses from Japan, Australia, Korea, Great Britain and Italy are on call for the strange trial.

Federal Judge Gregory F. Noonan ordered the process of picking a jury to proceed after refusing defense requests to dismiss the charges.

The defense argued a lack of evidence and said Provoo was cleared of all charges by the fact of his honorable discharge from the Army in 1946.

McCarthy Hits Adlai

CHICAGO, Oct. 27 (AP)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, in a slashing attack on Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson and his advisors, said tonight that the outcome of the presidential election will decide whether America wins or communism wins.

The Wisconsin Republican senator charged that the Democratic presidential nominee "is part and parcel of the Acheson-Hiss-Lattimore group" and endorses "suicidal Kremlin-shaped policies for America" and once had a plan for "foisting communism" on the Italians after Mussolini's fall.

"I do not state that Stevenson was a Communist or pro-Communist, but I must believe that something was wrong somewhere," he said.

McCarthy's much heralded "Stevenson Story" which he described as a "coldly documented background of this man who wants to be president" was prepared for delivery before 1150 persons at a $50 a plate dinner.

Hours before McCarthy spoke, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, campaigning in Pennsylvania, emphasized that subversives must be cleared out of government but in doing so "we have to destroy the reputation of no innocent man. We can do it and must do it the American way." His aides said Eisenhower was making his own position clear in advance of the McCarthy speech.

McCarthy charged that the Communist Daily Worker in effect has given "complete endorsement" to Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson and "orders the Communists" to support him.

LATE BULLETIN GARY, Ind., Oct. 27 (AP)—President Truman declared tonight that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower himself was responsible for the withdrawal of U.S. occupation troops from Korea in 1948.

Adlai Accuses GOP Of False Promises

EN ROUTE WITH STEVENSON Oct. 27 (AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson acidly accused his Republican opponents today of making vote-luring promises of "a quick and easy end to Korean War" which he said "may have delayed an armistice."

The Democratic presidential nominee, greeted by uniformly large crowds on his final campaign swing through New England, took the offensive against Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower on the Korean issue and ridiculed GOP "smear" charges.

Stevenson was hailed at Providence, R.I., by a cheering throng.

The Illinois governor prepared frainside crowds from Boston to Bridgeport, Conn., for what he predicted would be "the most magnificent of all smears of all time" by Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin in a television and radio talk tonight. Stevenson said McCarthy was talking with Eisenhower's "full approval."

It was the Korean issue, however, which Stevenson hit hardest in his final appeals to the voters in the vital states of Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and Connecticut before his arrival in New York City tonight for a major speech in Harlem.
