PAGE STX

THE DAILY COLLEGIAN STATE COLLEGE PENNSYLVANIA

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1952

-};

4

1

`ړ

MSC Takes 20thLions Score Twice With 34-7 Score 51,162 See Lions Lose First Game

By JAKE HIGHTON EAST LANSING, Michigan — For nearly 24 minutes here Saturday Penn State gridders not only held back a Michigan State flood, they forced it to recede. But then the dam broke and out poured the combination of luck and tremendous All-American talent which keeps the Spartans king of the football mountain. When the dam did break with just six minutes left until halftime, the Lions' 7-0 lead and bid for a stunning upset was swept aside by a Spartan tide which washed out its 20th consecutive oppo-nent since 1950 and ruined any Nittany hopes for an unbeaten season.

A Homecoming Day crowd of 51,162 — third largest in MSC history—stuffed cool, clear - sky covered Macklin Field to see the Spartans bag their fifth straight of the season, 34-7, and the Lions lose their first after having won four and tied one.

The final "rout" tally hardly tells how close the score casily could have been even though MSC had every bit of the amazing depth, blinding speed, and terrific power with which it was known to shock opponents.

On the outcome of one play hinged the whole complexion of the game. After the Lions hit the jackpot late in the first quarter on a Tony Rados-, Don Malinak pass, the Nittanies drove again midway in the second period with a fourth down and six inches on to go on the MSC 35. A Rados quar-terback sneak appeared to have the necessary the big factor in knocking State from the ranks terback sneak appendix footage, but the refs said no. It was at this point that the dam broke. With brilliant defen-sive w or k by backersup Pete Schoderbek and Sam Green and double-duty end Malinak having stopped the MSC ground dread-naughts when necessary, the he long for-from the hands of Duckett in the Spartans called on the long to hend zone. ward pass. So well provided in end zone. The second half became no con-the Lions held to a mere covered 45 yards. The lone Spar-tan score not attributable to a long TD pass was Wells' 20 dash around end behind tremendous

PENN STATE TC 8

MICHIGAN STATE TC G^{*} 11 79 12 66 9 37

PASSING PENN STATE

Att.Comp. 21 13 2 1

L 0

L 0

TD

Gain / 122 17

21

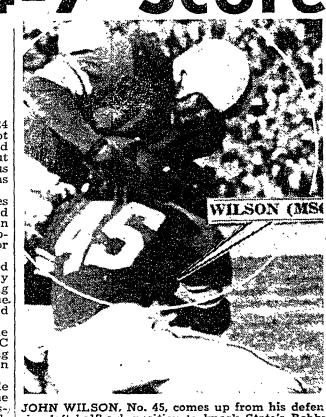

20 25 12 0 8 12

test as the Lions, held to a mere two Lion aerial defense lapses 41 yards rushing, could get noth-had a 14-7 lead and a command never once yielded thereafter. Michigan State continued to shake

From the second half on, the up the Nittanies with one-punch Lions were completely overpowered, outsped, outreserved, and outstatisticed by a team which, if it isn't the nation's number one, bears a striking resemblance one, bears a striking resemblance to such a monster. As the game opened, Nittany Ted Kemmerer's splendid punt-ing and fast covering by Nittany forwards k e p t the Spartans hammed deep in their own ter-ritory. A hard-hitting Lion line contained the MSC "Light Bri-gade" backs, but the rugged Spartan defenders e v e n more completely tied up the PS ground assaults. assaults.

Player Yanosich Pollard Rowell Jones Disaster Strikes Late in the first quarter Spar-tan Billy Wells was fumble-hit and Lion Stew Scheetz fell on player the oval at the MSC 26. Then McAuliffe Rados stepped back into his ex-Bolden cellent passing pocket and watched Jess Arnelle wave frantically and draw over all de-Player fenders. With all eyes on Jess, Rados Malinak — who more than ade-Dubinsky sive left halfback position to knock State's Bobby of the unbeaten by a 34-7 score.

Michigan State's football team proved its ranking near the top of the Nittany team arrived at Lans-ing, Mich., Friday morning, you would have thought Penn State had the top team in the country. knockout TD's on long passes. Yewcic to McAuliffe went 61 yards for a touchdown and sub QB Willie Thrower to Bolden

Band Hails

To Lion

A big brass band from a local high school was on hand at the station along with a 15-car caravan which escorted the team to the hotel. Co-Captains Stew Scheetz and Joe Gratson were in the lead convertible with the Spartan Homecoming queen chosen by the Nittany gridders.

Half of Penn State's trouble over the weekend lay in the Home-coming Day activities which had both the Spartan gridders and harriers "up" for the Lions. Par-21 ticularly disconcerting to Penn Staters during the game was the Spartan cheering sections. Every time the MSC team came out of Net the huddle, the Spartan rooters Sunday. would let out an exhorting roar from whichever end of the field their team was playing.

MSC's reserve quarter b a c k Willie Thrower—an awfully good substitute appropriately named — is guite the favorite with Spartan fans but because

To Defeat Colgate By BOB SCHOELLKOPF

Penn State's soccer team, still showing the signs of lackadaisical play that cost it a 3-2 loss to Navy last week, managed to record its third win of the year, 2-0, over a surprisingly strong Colgate squad Saturday on the Beaver Field baseball diamond.

Both Lion goals were netted by State's ace scorer, Jack Pinezich, who ran his point total to 11 goals for four games. Held scoreless by the Navy defense last week, Pinezich found the net once more in each of the last two quarters to insure victory for the Jeffreymen.

The Lion win, second whitewash job applied by Nittany booters this season, may have been a costly one, for after the game it was discovered that one of the Nittanies' defensive bulwarks, fullback Hap Irvin, suffered an infected blister on his heel. The infection was drained from the blister, but it remains to be seen whether the heel will mend in time for Irvin to play in next Saturday's crucial tilt with Army.

Lions Try 31 Shots

The Red Raiders made a fine defensive showing in holding the powerful Nittany offense to two goals, but were victims of their own brand of game as they could hardly dent the immovable Lion defense. Mark Randall's booters could attempt only eight shots throughout the 88 minutes of play-most of which were soft and poorly-directed.

Although the Lion offense still wasn't functioning with its usual effectiveness, it was good enough to lick the Raiders. The Jeffreymen attempted 31 shots and missed golden scoring chances on many other occasions, especially in the last half, when the Colgate defense began to weaken.

Pinezich was the main offensive threat all day for the Lion ters with his two goals and other blazing shots that were stopped ny Raider goalie Hap Merrick. In the first period the Brooklyn product laced a shot toward the net from ten feet out only to have Merrick come up with a fine stab which kept the game at a 0-0 stalemate.

Dierks, Harr's Star

Pinezich's first goal came at 15:40 in the third period to send the Lions ahead, 1-0. His second pointer was set up beautifully in the fourth period by a pass from Joe Mijares from the left side. Mijares, at a poor angle with the net to make the goal himself, passed directly in front of Pinezich, who blasted the ball into the net for the Nittanies' final tally.

Defensively for the Lions, fullback Paul Dierks and goalie Red Harris turned in a fine day's work. In the first period Harris drew the nation's grid heap, but when the plaudits of the crowd with his stop of a hard drive from only a few feet out, while Dierks' long, booming punts were a continual thorn in the Colgate offensive attack all afternoon. The Nittany defense so completely bottled up the Colgate attack that not one shot was taken by the Red Raiders in the first stanza.

John Carney, Delta Tau Delta, and Joe Ginsberg were winners pendent intramural golf-medal round points are: tournament championships held on the golf course Saturday and

'51 crown, registered a low score by, Alpha Sigma Phi, 169.

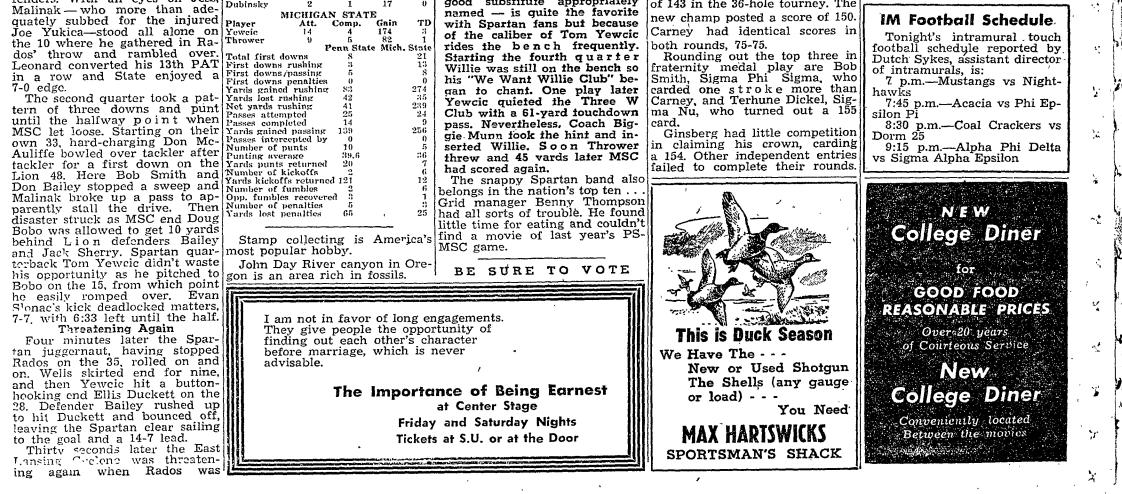

of 143 in the 36-hole tourney. The new champ posted a score of 150.

Fraternity men placing in the of the 1952 fraternity and inde- first ten who will earn points for their fraternities in the all-year-

Bruce Isaacman, Phi Sigma Delta, 159; James Mayes, Delta Upsilon, 160; Richard Bruce, Sig-

Carney succeeds Billy Albert, ma Nu, 161; Bill Bauer, Phi Kap-Phi Epsilon Pi, as fraternity Da Sigma, 165; Paul Eckert, Beta Theta Pi, 166; Joe Reiber, Lambchamp. Albert, in winning his da Chi Alpha, 168; and Joe Ash-

IM Football Schedule

. S. 11