

Huge N. Y. Throng Gives Adlai Thunderous Ovation

NEW YORK, Oct. 28 (AP)—New Yorkers by the tens of thousands turned out today to give Gov. Adlai Stevenson a thunderous ovation and the Democratic nominee promised, if elected, to devote his whole "heart, mind and soul" to attempts to end the Korean War.

Ike Parades; Tells People Of Letdown

NEW YORK, Oct. 28 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower paraded through 65 miles of crowded Long Island today, telling people they have been let down by an administration he said has "robbed" them of their pride in government.

The Republican presidential nominee kept on repeating that he intends to go to Korea. He wooed independent voters with a declaration that he hasn't changed a bit. But for the most part, he just kept his hands waving and his smile going through more than two dozen towns in Queens and Nassau Counties.

Eisenhower rode the back of a convertible, under skies that changed from sunny, to hazy to dull. Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York rode with him. Rooters and onlookers by the tens of thousands cluttered along the streets to wave and yell a welcome, shower the general with confetti and now and then toss chrysanthemums or roses into his car or in its path.

Occasionally crowds surged out and stopped the caravan. Sometimes Eisenhower slowed down on his own to shake a hand, inscribe an autograph or chat for a moment. He even had smiles for occasional hecklers from the rival camp of Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois.

tains headquarters, the Illinois governor said neither he nor anyone else can promise that there will be peace.

Continuing the criticism he has voiced previously of what he has called Republican pledges of a "quick and easy" end to the Korean War, Stevenson said:

"I can't promise you any of these things and no one can and no one should."

Stevenson was introduced at the luncheon, at which more than 2000 members of the Women's division of the Volunteers for Stevenson gathered, by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Previously, the Illinois governor had promised at a rally in New York's garment district to make revision of the Taft Hartley Act the "first order of business" on the domestic front, if he is elected.

As contrasted to the Eisenhower "crusade" Stevenson said his is "the peoples cause."

Stevenson rode triumphantly through almost unruly crowds in a blizzard of home made confetti tossed out of the skyscrapers. It was New York's version of the full treatment and by far the biggest welcoming show of the Stevenson campaign.

U.S. Can Cut Defense Spending, Says Martin

HARRISBURG, Oct. 28 (AP)—Sen. Edward Martin said today defense spending could be cut by 20 per cent by a unified purchasing program among the Armed Services.

The 10 billion dollar a year payroll also should be cut in half, he told a news conference. "In that way," he said, "we could get along with the task of balancing the federal budget within two years."

HST Raps Eisenhower Backers

HIBBING, Mich., Oct. 28 (AP)—President Truman declared tonight that the policies of Dwight D. Eisenhower's chief backers "are bound to put this country into another Republican depression sooner or later."

Asserting oil, electric power and other millionaires are contributing heavily to the general's campaign in the hope of getting anti-labor and other "special interest" laws passed under a GOP administration, the President said:

"Maybe the Republican candidate for president doesn't understand what all of his backers are after. Or maybe he just thinks the same way they do, as he has shown on so many of the issues." Truman's campaign speech for Gov. Adlai Stevenson was prepared for a working man audience in this Minnesota community, center of the Mesabi Iron Range, after a busy day of whistle stopping across the state.

Earlier, at St. Paul, the President hit back at Wisconsin Sen. Joseph McCarthy, asserting the Republicans have adopted McCarthy's "fear and smear" tactics on a national scale in the hope of hiding the real campaign issues.

Truman followed through with another address across the Mississippi River in Minneapolis' Pioneer Square.

Prison Riot Spreads To Psych Division

CHESTER, Ill., Oct. 28 (AP)—Rioting at Menard State Prison spread today to the Psychiatric Division, where scores of dangerous criminal psychopaths are confined, and three more guards were overpowered.

This brought to ten the number of prison officers seized as hostages since 300 rebellious convicts seized control of the east cell block and took six guards and a prison lieutenant captive late yesterday.

Three hundred inmates in an exercise yard of the Psychiatric Division stormed their cell block's combination kitchen-dining room shortly after 1 p.m., CST.

Emergency Call

Thirty-seven of the Psychiatric Division insurgents, many armed with butcher knives, succeeded in overpowering three guards and barricading themselves in the room. Hard-pressed guards and police, after a brief scuffle, returned the others to their individual cells.

An emergency call went out from State Police Capt. Herman Nofs for 50 more state police reinforcements. Seventy state policemen already were on hand.

At 4 p.m., Warden Jerome E. Munie announced a plan for persuading the rebel convicts to end their uprising.

The 300 convicts bottled up in the east cell block, opposite the Psychiatric Division, had been without food since the original outbreak late yesterday.

Threaten East Cell Block

Munie said State Sen. Milton Mueller, member of an Illinois legislative committee which recently investigated Menard, had agreed to try to talk to the Psychiatric Division convicts into surrendering their three hostages and returning to their cells. It was not known just when Mueller would talk to the rebel psychopaths.

If this proves unsuccessful, Munie said, the plan was for Michael Farrin, administrative assistant to Gov. Adlai Stevenson, to threaten the east cell block holdouts with prosecution under the Lindbergh Kidnaping Act unless they surrendered their hostages.

The death penalty may be imposed under the Lindbergh Act, a federal law.

Reds Take Pinpoint Hill From Allies

SEOUL, Korea, Wednesday, Oct. 29 (AP)—Chinese Communists hurled a surprise moonlight attack on Pinpoint Hill and forced Allied defenders from that blood-soaked crest of Sniper Ridge early today.

Front reports said a reinforced Red battalion of 700 men attacked without customary artillery preparation an hour before midnight.

Heavy Allied artillery opened an intense barrage on Pinpoint soon after the Reds seized it for the seventh time in 15 days.

AP Correspondent John Randolph reported from the Central Front that Allied troops withdrew from Pinpoint after almost two hours of violent no-quarter battle.

On the Eastern Front 400 or more North Korean troops twice penetrated U.S. Eighth Army positions at Heartbreak Ridge. But Allied troops quickly sealed both breaches and hurled back the Reds from that rugged rampart with fierce counterattacks. It was the second time in three days that Heartbreak Ridge was attacked.

In the west, U.S. Marines mopped up the last die-hard Reds from "The Hook"—a curving ridgeline guarding main Allied defenses ten to 12 miles northeast of Panmunjon, scene of the now recessed armistice talks. At least one third of 1500 Chinese who struck The Hook Sunday night were wiped out, the Marines said.

Stevenson Backers Call McCarthy Charge 'Lie'

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28 (AP)—Backers of Gov. Adlai Stevenson chorused "lie" today in response to the speech last night in which Sen. Joseph McCarthy accused the Democratic presidential nominee of giving "aid to Communist causes."

They used a wide choice of words—"big lie," "storm trooper mentality," "dishonest," "slander," "character assassination" and the like—but the basic meaning never varied.

On the other side of the fence Sen. Everett Dirksen, Republican from Stevenson's home state of Illinois, said Americans should "carefully ponder the facts told about Adlai Stevenson and his left wing advisers" in the McCarthy speech.

"We in Illinois, being familiar with these facts, and with other weaknesses of Gov. Stevenson's record as governor of Illinois, have been trying to get them before the public for some time," Dirksen said in a statement through his office here.

"The left wingers cannot answer the facts Sen. McCarthy exposed so they have only their usual recourse—to smear the man who made them public."

"It was fortunate that, for the first time, much of the American public had a chance on TV to see and hear Sen. McCarthy and to judge what he said for themselves," Dirksen said. "They can thus judge also those newspapers and columnists who ignore the shocking facts to attack Sen. McCarthy."
