

2 Frosh Elected WSGA Senators

By JANE REBER

Carolyn Cunningham and Helen Sidman were elected freshman senators of the Women's Student Government Association in the final elections of WSGA and the Women's Recreation Association yesterday.

Also elected in the finals were Mildred McCowan, WRA sophomore representative, and Mary Elizabeth Lloyd and Ruth Kronwetter, WRA freshman representatives.

A total of 60 per cent of eligible women cast ballots in the elections, as compared to 67% last fall and 80% last spring. About 800 women out of an eligible 1339 voted.

In the balloting for WRA sophomore representative, only 42 per cent voted, but 83 per cent of the freshman women turned out to vote.

Joan Hutchon, WSGA president, said she was very proud that so many freshman voted and hopes they'll make it 100 per cent next year.

Installation of the new WSGA freshman senators will take place Wednesday night in the WSGA room, White Hall. WRA representatives will be installed Nov. 10.

Miss Cunningham and Miss Sidman will be co-chairmen of the Big-Little Sister Tea and ex-officio members of Freshman Council.

The three WRA representatives will be members of the WRA executive board and will be in charge of the WRA cabin. The securing of timers and scorers for all intramural sports events will also be the duty of Miss McCowan.

WSGA candidates may pick up their pictures by paying 50 cents to Louise Glud, WSGA elections chairman, in 351 McElwain Hall. WRA candidates may get their pictures from Eleanor Gwynn, WRA elections chairman.

Although election results will not be published, any candidate desiring them may contact either Miss Glud or Miss Gwynn.

Beloit Prof Will Speak At Chapel

Dr. Chad Walsh, professor of English and poet-in-residence at Beloit College, Beloit, Wis., will speak on "The Three Words of Christianity" at Chapel services at 11 a.m. Sunday.

A graduate of the University of Virginia and the University of Michigan, Dr. Walsh was a research specialist in the Army Signal Corps before going to Beloit College.

Dr. Walsh has published poetry in periodicals including "The New Republic," "The Saturday Review of Literature," "The Swane Review," and "The New York Times." His articles on linguistics have appeared in "College English and American Speech."

He is author of "Stop Looking and Listen," "C. S. Lewis: Apostle of the Skeptics," "The Factual Dark," and "Early Christians of the Twenty-First Century." His most recent book, "Campus Gods on Trial," will be available in March.

Now on sabbatical leave, Dr. Walsh intends to spend the winter in New Mexico working on a new book of poetry and a book-length study of satiric utopias.

Dr. Walsh, who is an ordained priest in the Episcopal Church, serves as assistant rector at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Beloit.

The Chapel Choir will sing "Light of Light Enlighten Me" (Ahle-Bach), and Carolyn Morris will sing "Brufftiges Verlangon" (Ahle).

George Ceiga at the organ will play as prelude "Prelude on Gregorian Tone" (Scandlyn), as offertory "Herzlich Lieb Hab Ich Dich, O Herr" (Karg-Elert), and as postlude "Deo Gratias" (from "Musica Divinum" by Kerckle.)

Engagements

Pigman-Dyal

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dyal of East Orange, N.J., announce the engagement of their daughter, Anne, to Lt. Richard Pigman, Lexington, Ky.

Miss Dyal attended the College last year. Mr. Pigman, a member of Phi Sigma Kappa, was graduated from the University of Kentucky with a B.S. in industrial administration and received a B.S. in meteorology from the College.

Group Will Observe Saints Day Tomorrow

By LAVONNE ALTHOUSE

Observance of All Saints Day tomorrow will be added to the calendar of one of the local groups this weekend.

Canterbury Club will participate in a Holy Communion at 7:45 a.m. tomorrow. Tonight the group will meet at 8 p.m. at St. Andrews Episcopal Church to sell hot dogs at the high school football game. The group will hold its regular meeting at 6:30 p.m. Sunday in the parish house at St. Andrews.

Two groups plan bowling tonight and discussions Sunday. Members of the Wesley Foundation will bowl at 8 tonight and will hear Gazexer G. Green talk on "The Election as a Republican Sees It" after their supper meeting at 5 p.m. Sunday at the foundation.

Lutheran Student Association members will also bowl at 7:15 tonight. The Rev. Donald W. Caruthers, former director of Westminster Foundation, will address the group at 6:30 p.m. Sunday at the Lutheran student house.

The Rev. Henry Woll of Manoa United Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, will speak at a meeting of Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship at 7:30 tonight in 405 Old Main. His sermon will be based on Romans 1:1-7, 14-16. A social meeting will follow the service. A film, "Hope for China" will be shown.

The Unitarian Student Fellowship will meet at 6:30 p.m. Sunday in 304 Old Main and from there will go to 311 S. Sparks street for a discussion.

Margaret Stevenson will tell members of Roger Williams Fellowship about her "Trip to Alaska" during the past summer after their supper meeting at 5:30 p.m. Sunday in the basement of the University Baptist Church.

The Evangelical United Brethren Student Fellowship will hear Morris Schroeder talk at its meeting at 6:15 p.m. Sunday in the student room of St. Johns E.U.B. Church.

An open house will be held at Westminster Foundation beginning at 8 tonight. Kyung Ho Lee, Korean student, will talk on Korea and show slides of that country at the group's meeting at 6:30 p.m. Sunday.

United Student Fellowship will go en masse to the union Reformation Sunday services at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at St. Paul's Methodist Church. Dr. Chad Walsh, Sunday's Chapel speaker, will deliver a sermon on "The Future of Protestantism."

Rabbi Benjamin M. Kahn will conduct regular Sabbath Eve services at 8 tonight at Hillel Foundation.

21 Coed Groups Plan Mardi Gras Booths

Twenty-one women's organizations will sponsor carnival booths ranging from games of skill to variety shows at the annual Mardi Gras 8:30 p.m. to midnight next Friday in Recreation Hall.

Twelve groups have entered candidates for the Mardi Gras King contest. The king will be selected by penny votes at the Mardi Gras.

Because three sororities entered names of football players who cannot be present next week, Joan Hutchon, king chairman, has extended the deadline for king entries until Sunday night.

King Candidates Named

King candidates and their sponsors are Stuart Allen, Phi Sigma Sigma; George Black, Gamma Phi Beta; Paul Bourdeau, Alpha Omicron Pi; Daniel Fagan, Leonides; Richard Grossman, Alpha Epsilon Phi; William Hirsch, Kappa Delta.

Wayne Hockersmith, Delta Delta Delta; Richard Lemyre, Kappa Kappa Gamma; William O'Malley, Alpha Gamma Delta; Douglas Schoerke, Ionians; John Walsh, Delta Gamma; and Harding Williams, Kappa Alpha Theta.

Five groups planning variety shows are Theta Phi Alpha, Zeta Tau Alpha, Alpha Xi Delta (Mintrel Show), Gamma Phi Beta (Cafe Crescent), and Phi Mu (Roaring 20's).

Shows Varied

Eleven games of skill include Alpha Chi Omega, variety booth; Alpha Epsilon Phi (Double Bubble); Alpha Gamma Delta, ring toss; Delta Gamma (Ring a DG); Delta Zeta (Clowning Around); Kappa Alpha Theta (El Kat Kasino); Kappa Kappa Gamma (Kappa Kasino); Sigma Delta Tau (Ring a Drink); Leonides (Strike it Rich); Ionians, basketball throw; and Freshman Council (Frosh Frolics).

Other shows are Alpha Omicron Pi, fashions (As Time Goes By); Chi Omega, a variation of pie throwing; Delta Delta Delta, drawing silhouettes; Phi Sigma Sigma, fortune telling, and Aye Sees (Cake Walk).

Co-Edits

Kappa Kappa Gamma

Kappa Kappa Gamma ribboned Barbara Iwashita Tuesday night. Pledge officers are Martha Burke, president; Gretchen Robb, vice president; and Margaret Faris, secretary-treasurer.

The sorority recently entertained Phi Delta Theta. Skits were presented and refreshments served.

Modern Dance Club

New officers of the Modern Dance Club are Katherine Nicoll, president, and Alice Colbert, secretary. Dorothy V. Briant, assistant professor of physical education, instructs the group, which meets at 7 p.m. Wednesdays.

This certainly is a hectic weekend what with Halloween, the Penn-Penn State game, bluebooks, bluebooks, bluebooks... (change the needle, honey—the record stopped).

Keep the home fires burning

Talking about bluebooks, why burn the midnight oil when a candle will serve your purpose? And Ethel has the kind that burns for days (well, a day anyway). They come in kettle-like glass containers. Red, white and green are the colors. Perfect table decorations—and only 75c each.

"If I only had a match . . ."

... then how happy I would be? ... Remember that old song? Well, Ethel wants to make you, and all your friends happy—and she has just the things to do it—MATCHES! Real pretty ones, too. They come ideally boxed in a circular carton, and in a rainbow selection of colors. And what's more, you can have them monogrammed, too—for the "personal" touch. Perfect for sororities, fraternities, married couples, single couples... Monogrammed, 3.50; plain, 2.50.

Bean, Bag?

For you who are in the habit of breaking ashtrays—Ethel offers you the bean bag variety. No more worries—no more fuss—just throw it around, and PLOP—it sets down. Comes in gay, plaid combinations—with a cigarette holder to match. Only $1.95 for the set.

Don't burn up . . .

... with desire for all these wonderful, wonderful things. Come in and look around. Don't forget—tell Ethel Gabbi sent you!
