

Weekend to Begin With Mardi Gras

Mardi Gras Weekend will begin with the annual Mardi Gras carnival from 8:30 p.m. to midnight tonight in Recreation Hall. It will continue with the informal Mardi Ball tomorrow night in the TUB and the all-College sing Sunday in Schwab.

General admission charge to Rec Hall, where all tickets will be sold, will be 15 cents, and each each event at the 21 booths will cost 10 cents. The booths are run by sorority and other women's groups, and Mortar Board, senior women's honorary society, sponsors the whole affair.

The Mardi Gras king will be chosen by penny votes from the 15 candidates nominated by groups sponsoring booths. Besides the 12 candidates listed in last Friday's Collegian, three additional men will compete. The new candidates and their sponsors are Sam Nowell, Alpha Chi Omega; Arthur Rosfeld, Alpha Xi Delta; and Donald Frey, Delta Zeta.

King to Get Gifts

Pictures of the candidates are displayed in the Western Union office window.

Yvonne Carter, Mortar Board president, will crown the king with a mortar board, a red velvet and gold braided robe, and a gold scepter. He will also be presented with a $25 gift certificate from Jack Harper's.

The Lion, Alex Gregal, and Frothy, David Heckel, and three queens will form the king's court. The queens are Barbara Werts, this year's Belle-Hop Ball queen; Nancy Bailey, last year's junior class queen; and Katherine Nicoll, last year's Military Ball queen.

Cup Awarded

A refreshment booth selling cider and doughnuts will be handled by Mortar Board. Alpha Phi Omega, service honorary society, will help with construction.

An engraved bronze cup will be presented to the group taking in the largest number of tickets during the evening. Alpha Omicron Pi has won the trophy for the last three years.

Proceeds from the carnival will go toward the Charlotte E. Ray Memorial Scholarship Fund, used for scholarships for junior women.

Last year's Mardi Gras grossed over $1400. Donald Cook, sponsored by Alpha Xi Delta, was crowned king.

BEAT SYRACUSE

Chimes Continues Bal Ticket Sale

Tickets for Le Mardi Bal, an informal dance sponsored by Chimes, junior women's hat society, will continue on sale at Student Union, Carnegie Hall bulletin board, and the Corner Room. They are priced at $1 per couple.

As part of Mardi Gras Weekend, the dance will be held from 9 p.m. to midnight tomorrow in the TUB, with music by Jack Jenkins' orchestra.

No admission will be charged for the first all-College sing from 3:30 to 5 p.m. Sunday in Schwab Auditorium. The sing is sponsored by Senate of the Women's Student Government Association.

Religion—

Jenkintown Minister Will Speak

The Rev. Paul W. Lingle of St. Mark's Reformed Episcopal Church, Jenkintown, will speak on "The Honest Doubter" at a meeting of the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship at 7:30 tonight in 405 Old Main. A social hour will follow the meeting.

Tickets for the Newman Club communion breakfast, priced at 85 cents, are now on sale at Student Union. Father Richard Walsh, Newman Club chaplain, will speak at the breakfast, to be held at 9:30 a.m. Sunday at the Dutch Pantry.

Three local church groups will feature square dances on their social calendar tonight.

Members of Roger Williams Fellowship will be guests of the Lutheran Student Association at a square dance at 7:30 tonight at the Lutheran student house.

Wesley Foundation will hold a "Farmer-Farmerette Swing" at 7:30 tonight in the Wesley gymnasium.

A "Spruce Up Party" to "house-clean" Westminster Foundation will begin at 7:30 tonight at the foundation. Members are asked to wear old clothes.

Hillel Will Observe Building Dedication

By BAYLEE FRIEDMAN

Sabbath evening services at 8 tonight led by Rabbi Benjamin Kahn, local Hillel director, and student leaders will begin the three-day dedication of the new Hillel Foundation.

Representatives from the B'nai B'rith women's and men's organizations, who have come to State College for the formal dedication, will view an exhibition of original Jewish paintings during the reception following the services.

Hillel Members to Entertain

A Sabbath tea will be held tomorrow afternoon for visiting members of the National Hillel Commission, B'rith guests, and Hillel alumni.

Entertainment by Hillel members will highlight an open house program at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow. Featured will be a folk dance group, the Hillel Radio Players, a round table of past Hillel presidents, and Elizabeth Lesser, concert pianist.

A special tour of the campus conducted by students will begin Sunday's activities. Rabbi Arthur J. Lelyveld, national director of B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundations, will speak in Chapel with Rabbi Kahn officiating.

Procession of Torah

Leonard Krieger, local Hillel vice-president, will affix the Mezuzah, a small cylinder containing the Ten Commandments, as a part of the cornerstone ceremonies at 1 p.m. Sunday. Representatives from the national commission, B'nai B'rith, and the student membership will participate.

The procession of the Torah (scrolls) and the kindling of the Eternal Light will start the dedication exercises at 2 p.m. Sunday. Greetings will be given by Theodore H. Gordon, Hillel director at the University of Pennsylvania; William Ginsburg and Mrs. Jacob Yanoff, presidents of the B'nai B'rith Grand Lodges in this district; Adrian O. Morse, College provost; Clifford A. Nelson, associate professor of commerce; Rabbi Kahn; Stanley Goldman, President of Hillel; Rabbi Isaac Vanderwalde, Hillel director at Bucknell; and William S. Livengood, Secretary of Internal Affairs of Pennsylvania. Rabbi Lelyveld will deliver the special dedication address.

The erection of Hillel Foundations on various college campuses is made possible through allocations from the B'nai B'rith men and women.

Harvest Ball Queen Entries Due Nov. 25

Entries for Harvest Ball Queen must be submitted to the Student Union desk in Old Main by Nov. 25. Portraits must be 8 by 10 inches. Any campus organization, fraternity or sorority may sponsor a College student.

Sponsored by the Agriculture Student Council, the Harvest Ball will be held 9 p.m. to midnight Dec. 5 in Recreation Hall. Jim Erb and his orchestra will play.

Riding Club Party

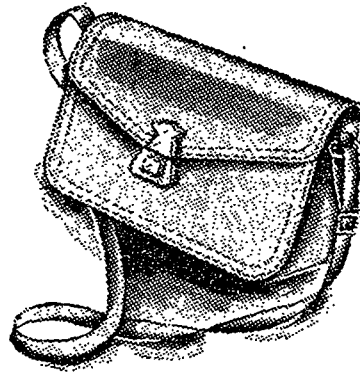

The Riding Club will hold a cabin party at 8 tonight in Watt's Lodge. Members may bring guests at a charge of 50 cents a person. Those desiring transportation should meet at 7:30 p.m. in the parking area behind Old Main.

Kappa Alpha Theta

Kappa Alpha Theta recently entertained Sigma Alpha Epsilon with a scavenger hunt. Refreshments were served.

Another
SIMON'S
"EXCLUSIVE..."

That'll carry you to class in style—in this smart, durable shoulder strap bag. Comes in red, tan, black, and navy. All bags from $6.95 - $10.95.

Simon's SHOES — 109 S. Allen St.

Learn to Fly with

"Lowest Rates in the Nation"

Membership Open to Male and Female

Students — Faculty — College Employes

Inquire

Student Union Desk -- Old Main

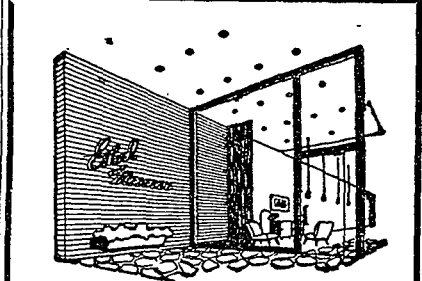

Formals

OF
BREATHTAKING BEAUTY

to carry you to the Junior Prom in style. Float in a cloud of nylon net . . . and "sparkle" with glittering rhinestones. Show a pretty ankle in a ballet length gown that's a "hit" with everyone.

Yes—for gaiety, beauty, and fun—GO FORMAL!!

SMART SHOP
123 S. ALLEN ST.

thru the
Looking Glass
with Gabbi

Everyone's still talking about the election. A lot of people are happy that "Ike" made it—and then, there are the others . . . However, one thing's sure—this campaign has sure been a "dazzler!"

What a "dazzler" Speaking of "dazzlers," you should see the fabulous collection of rhinestone earrings down at Ethel's. All sizes, shapes, designs . . . and just perfect to add the "finishing" touches to your gown for the Junior Prom. Yes, these would make any girl's dream "come true" for the small price of $1.00 (plus tax) and on up.

It's in the BAG Everyone's saying the election was "in the bag." And while we're on the subject of bags—you should see the line-up Ethel has. Failles, sequins, brocades—yes—evening bags galore! . . . for every little Miss. So, don't "miss" out—select yours ahead of the crowd. Just $2.50 (including tax) is all you need depart with for any of the many models on the shelves.

No tie No, the election wasn't a tie—but if it's a tie clasp you want to get for your "favorite" man—Ethel has 'em. Remember, if you want your man to look sharp, and feel sharp, buy him a tie clasp at Ethel's. Just $2.75 on up.

These are only a few of the many, many wonderful things Ethel has stocked up for you for the Big Weekend coming up. Go down today and look around—tell her Gabbi sent you!

Ethel Meserve
112 E. COLLEGE AVE.
STATE COLLEGE, PA.