morning. As a part of Junior Week the class is presenting flowers for the service. Class officers Richard Lemyre, Robert Carruthers, and Margaret Crooks, and Thomas Farrell, Junior Week chairman, will take part in the service, to be broadcast over station WMAJ.

The center section of Schwab Auditorium will be reserved for juniors and their dates until 10:50 a.m. Members of Blue Key and Androcles, junior men's hat societies, will usher at Chapel. Protestant churches in town will also reserve sections.

A junior class breakfast will be held 9:30 a.m. Sunday in the Dutch Pantry. About 70 persons have already signed up, but there is room for approximately 50 more reservations. Juniors may sign up until 5 p.m. tomorrow at the Student Union desk where their names will be put on a master list. Tickets are $1.25 a couple.
