

'52 Lion Gridder 'Air' Team

TWO LION gridders, Jess Arnette, right, and Tony Rados, left, who have raised the eyebrows of Nittany football fans all season, set new State offensive records in the Pitt game. Big Arnette is the proud owner of 33 pass catches which broke the old record of 31 by Lenny Krouse. Passing wizard Rados' 93 completions out of 186 tries, as well as his career total of 118 out of 254 are new Nittany grid records.

Nittany Lions — 17, Pitt Panthers — 0

By JAKE HIGHTON

Penn State's best football season since 1948 wound up in a blaze of sunshine and a cloud of rain in Pitt Stadium two weeks ago. The sun was for the Lions' 17 points, the rain for Pittsburgh's big gooseegg and shattered Orange Bowl hopes.

The crowd of 53,766—season high for Pitt Stadium and the second largest in the Lion-Panther series—saw State score its seventh win against only two losses and one tie. It also witnessed a fine football game with some brilliant play on both sides:

First Quarter

Punting specialist Ted Kemmerer got off a prodigious 61-yard kick for the Lions, whom the Pitts had bottled up inside the 20.

Keen deception, crisp blocking, and Bobby Epps kept the Panthers rolling hard and fast along the ground—but only between the 20-yard lines.

Hard running by Keith Vesling and Buddy Rowell combined with sharp Tony Rados passing to circus-catching Jim Garrity and Don Eyer paced State's finest offensive game since early season.

Safetyman Jack Sherry made a twisting interception at midfield and streaked to the Pitt 29 as the period ended.

Second Quarter

Sophomore Garrity made a sensational "pro" catch—tipping the ball first and then grabbing it from the arms of two defenders. Rados threw from the 37, Garrity caught it on the 25 and then chugged to the 16, nearly going all the way.

Vesling slammed inside the 10 on a cutback. Then Rados pitched to Jesse Arnette, who made a leaping catch at the base of the goal posts, but the refs ruled him out of the endzone. Rados fired a quickie to Arnette over the middle to Jess on the 8 from whence he smashed to the 3. Rowell slanted off tackle like a man possessed for the score. Automatic Bill Leonard booted his 17th straight and State led, 7-0.

The Panthers roared back. A long pass put the Pitts on the Nittany 26. Then came what appeared the turning point—a brilliant defensive effort by State's great linebacker, Pete Schoderbek. Epps was off around end behind good blocking. The way appeared clear for a long gain, if not a touchdown. But Schoderbek roared "from nowhere" to spill the ball carrier.

Again the Pitts hounded toward the goal line after a drive from their own 38. With Epps showing the way, the Panthers had a third down and five situation on the Lion 15. Shifting into single wing for the first time, Pitt passed, but the Lions were ready as Schoderbek intercepted. It was the Pitts' last serious threat.

Third Period

Matt Yanosich made a picture tackle crashing Pitt's crack safety Henry Ford out of bounds on the Panther 18.

Later, after tackle Stew Scheetz had stacked up two ground plays in a row, defensive end Dave Simon blocked a punt, and Rosey Grier recovered for the Lions on Pitt's 8. Pitt braced, and Leonard's field goal attempt, from a difficult angle, went off to the right.

As the period ended, Arnette latched on to a Rados pass for his 32d reception of the season and a new Penn State one-year record. The previous high of 31 was held by Lenny Krouse and set in 1941.

Fourth Quarter

This Rados pass moved the Lions to the 36. Opening the last 15 minutes, Bob Pollard and Vesling alternated to the 25. Then Rados tossed to Yanosich, who made a spectacular leaping catch on the 15, and barreled to the six. With Pitt holding on the goal again, Leonard stepped back for another field goal try. With a somewhat better angle, Bill booted his second FG of the season and gave State the clincher, 10-0.

But with Pitt unable to move against the stubborn Nittany defense, State iced the game thanks to another of Sherry's fine safetyman efforts. Jack intercepted a deep pass on the Lion 45 and streaked all the way to the 10 behind good interference from Leonard, Eyer, and Joe Graison.

With Sherry being roughed up by the gang-tackling Pitt's who shoved him out of bounds, State was awarded a first down on the one-yard line. From there Rados sneaked into paydirt, Leonard converted, and Pitt was kayoed, 17-0. In five seconds—record time—after the game ended, the goal posts were down—just as broken as the Panther bowl dreams.

Robin Roberts, the Philadelphia Phillies strongman righthander and the winningest pitcher in the National League in 1952, was a first baseman until he was transformed into a pitcher by veteran Spartan Coach John H. Kobs.

The 34 points scored by Michigan State against the Lions in the 34-7 drubbing administered a few weeks ago represent the most points scored by either team in the series that dates back to 1914.

Pinezich's 23 Pointers Set Lion Booter Mark

Whoever heard of a record being set by a toe? Well, Penn State recently had one such phenomenal happening.

And it was none other than the trusty toe of one Jack Pinezich, the Nittany Lion soccer team's crack center forward, that was responsible. Big Jack, who is only a sophomore, spoiled Bill McEwan's seasonal scoring record two Saturdays ago by scoring three goals against the Penn soccermen, raising his seasonal total to 23 pointers. McEwan's record, set in 1935, was 21 goals for seven games.

Pinezich has accomplished other feats during the past soccer campaign, which saw the Jeffrey men cop seven matches, lose one, and tie one.

Strong On Defense

The New York product, in addition to averaging 2.6 goals per game this year, accounted for 56 per cent of the total Nittany booters scoring. The Lions found the net 41 times during the campaign, and averaged 4.6 goals per tilt.

On defense, the Nittanies were equally effective. Aside from administering four whitewashings to opponent booter teams, they held the foe to a mere .9 goals per match.

To keep in shape for a possible bowl bid New Year's Day, the Jeffrey men will play an exhibition with a team composed of foreign students and faculty members Saturday at Beaver Field. Starting time will be 2 p.m. Coach Bill Jeffrey has not received word from the selections committee about a possible bowl bid, but he expects a reply shortly.

Fast Start

The Nittany soccermen completed another successful season Nov. 22 when they bowled over a strong Penn squad, 3-2, at River Field, Philadelphia, in a game played in rain and mud. It was the fourth straight conquest for the Nittany booters and kept them in the race for a possible bowl bid.

Pinezich's record-breaking trio of goals was all of the Nittany scoring for the day. The Quakers began like a bolt of lightning, scoring twice before ten minutes of the first period had passed. But after this flurry of goals, the Lion defense stiffened and held the Red and Blue booters scoreless the rest of the way.

And it was a sweet victory for Jeffrey himself. It marked the 200th game of coaching for the amiable Scot at Penn State, and his 151st win as against 22 defeats and 27 ties. Jeffrey has been the Lion soccer mentor since 1926.

Waterfield to Quit Football Next Year

LOS ANGELES, (P)—Bob Waterfield, veteran quarterback and bellwether of the Los Angeles Rams, yesterday announced he will retire from professional football at the end of this year.

The 32-year-old Waterfield—who has been supplanted by Norman Van Brocklin as the team's main spark—said he will finish the season, but then hang up his pads for good.

It's A Fact

in 1859 the admission requirements for a student entering Penn State were to have attained the age of 16; tuition, boarding, fuel, light and books were fixed at one hundred dollars per session. One hundred pupils were to be admitted on recommendation of the respective County Agricultural Societies.

The admission requirements for coming to Vic's are a desire for: a wonderful breakfast, lunch, or supper—served to you with that cheerfulness so characteristic of Vic's. Come in today and see for yourself why Vic's is so popular with the students at Penn State.

Lions Fail in Bid For National Honors

Now that their running spikes are stored away and they don't have to worry about bucking the elements attired in only their thinclads, Penn State's cross-country runners can look back over the past two outings and rightfully say that it wasn't their year for top honors.

Relieved of their IC4A title last month by the mighty Spartan hill-and-dalers, Coach Chick Werner's corps ran against this same club in the NCAA's last Monday at East Lansing, Mich., and had to be content with a fourth place deadlock with Syracuse, defending national champs.

Superior distance depth netted the Spartans the NCAA crown. By amassing 65 points, the MSC harriers duplicated their IC showing and, consequently, make a clean sweep of the championships, having previously won the IC4A title, along with the Big Ten crown.

New Record Set

Behind MSC in the scoring column was Indiana with 68 points. Iowa placed third with 103 points, while Syracuse and Penn State shared fourth place with 110 points each.

The individual honors were won by Charley Capozzoli of Georgetown. The Hoya senior, who also won the IC first place medal, covered the four-mile course in the phenomenal time of 19:36, breaking the record of 19:52 set by Bob Black of Rhode Island in 1948.

Red Hollen was the only Nittany harrier to place in the first ten. Reliable Red turned in what was probably the best distance performance of his distance career when he finished seventh. The 19-year-old junior ran a 20:00 clocking for the four-miles.

Horner Places 30th

Next for the Lions was sophomore Jim Hamill. Young Hamill placed 25th with a 20:36 timing.

Captain Jack Horner ran his last race for the Lions and it was a fine one at that. Horner's time was 20:42 as he placed 30th.

Senior Stan Lindner crossed the finish line 34th with a 20:51 clocking.

Perhaps the most disappointing of all Lion finishers was Lamont Smith, who, for the second straight week, couldn't keep up with the pace-setters.

Although his time of 20:58 was fast for the course, it was only good enough for 39th place in the star-studded national race.

The Lion harriers finished the regular season with a 4-1 record, winning over Cornell, Army, Manhattan and NYU, while losing to MSC.
