

WRA Officer Will Go to UN

Nancy Lusk was approved Tuesday night by the Women's Recreation Association executive board as volunteer representative of WRA to the United Nations tour Dec. 11-14.

Miss Lusk, head of WRA Saturday night playnights, will visit the General Assembly, any committee meeting open at the time, the United States Embassy for the UN, and general sites of interest.

McElroy Names 3 Committees For Reception

Committees for the Junior-Senior Faculty Reception Dec. 10, sponsored by the Women's Student Government Association, were announced yesterday by Carolyn McElroy, chairman.

The invitations committee includes Chairman Jane Larpentour, Gwen Griffith, Neida Fraich, Roberta Carre, Emilie Tyler, Lois Craven, Helen Norris and Jean Marohnic.

Carolyn Pelczar is chairman of the decorations committee. Other members are Doris Gordon, Luella Heineman, Diane Miller, Joyce Johnson, and Barbara Rollo.

Ellen Wandel heads the publicity committee consisting of Ann Patterson, Joan Rosenberger, Ruth Ann Davies, and Eliza Newell.

Simmons Hall lounge, the site of the reception, will be decorated with the Christmas motif. Holiday punch and cookies will be served, Miss McElroy said.

Caroling Hours Set by Senate

Extra 11 o'clock permissions were granted women students by the Senate of the Women's Student Government Association last night for Christmas caroling on Dec. 14.

Carolyn McElroy, head of the coed coordinating committee sponsoring the Junior-Senior Faculty Reception, announced that entertainment will be provided by Joan Elise, violinist; Luella Valmont, cellist; and Carolyn Morris, pianist.

The reception is being held for faculty members of junior and senior women students to further student-faculty relations and will be held in Simmons lounge from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. Dec. 10.

Barbara Werts, vice president, announced there will be no meeting of the Senate next week because of the tea.

NROTC Group To Give Dance

Quarterdeck Society, Navy ROTC honorary, will sponsor a dance from 9 p.m. to midnight Saturday in the Armory.

The dance is free and open to members of the campus NROTC unit. Although uniforms will be worn, the dance will be informal.

The Quintones from Altoona will play. The dance will center around a nautical theme, and refreshments will be served.

Jewish History Course

Rabbi Kahn will continue his lecture series on Jewish history at 4:10 p.m. today at the Hillel Foundation. All students may attend.

WRA Ski Club Classes Await Deeper Snow

The beginners' Ski Club, sponsored by Womens' Recreation Association, will meet for the first time this year in the White Hall ski room as soon as there are three or four inches of snow on the ground, Mildred Lucey, club instructor, has announced.

Meetings will be from 4 to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday as long as there is snow.

Approximately 15 persons can be accommodated in one session. In previous years, 100 students were enrolled each year in the course. Equipment, including skis, binding, and boots, will be provided by WRA for instructional purposes only and will not be rented to students for individual use.

Miss Lucey has advised students to wear thick socks, slacks or ski pants and a short rather than long coat.

ACEI Will Place 'Mitten Tree' In Atherton Hall

Mittens! Mittens! Mittens! Big ones, small ones, handmade ones, "boughten" ones... all kinds of mittens are wanted for the "mitten tree," sponsored by the Association for Childhood Education International.

The tree is to be placed in the northeast lounge of Atherton Hall and will be decorated at the ACEI meeting, 7 p.m., Wednesday. Mittens are to adorn the tree in place of Christmas ornaments. They will later be distributed to needy children in the area.

The meeting is open to the public. Irene Stroemyer, acting ACEI president, requests that those attending bring a pair of mittens for the tree. The tree will be moved after Dec. 10 to either the Library or Burrows building where additional mittens may be hung on the tree.

Ethel Beaver of the Child Welfare Service last year distributed 92 pairs of mittens collected by the ACEI. She will be present at the meeting to talk about the success of last year's project.

Simmons Musicales Planned for Tonight

Another in the series of Simmons Musicales will be presented at 7:45 tonight in the Simmons Hall lounge.

The program will feature "Masquerade Suite" (Khachaturian), "Violin Concerto" (Mendelssohn), and "Das Lied Von Der Erde" (Mahler). The musicale is open to students and faculty members.

Wagner Ineligible

The board also took action on the vacancy of the intramural chairman office, left open by Virginia Hinner, who will not return to school. The position will be unfilled for the remainder of the year. Miriam Wagner, assistant intramural chairman, who has recently assumed the chairman's duties, will continue as assistant.

Because of a clause in the WRA constitution stating the intramural chairman must be a junior, Miss Wagner, a sophomore, is ineligible to hold that office. Beate Maron was appointed by the board to help the assistant chairman. Miss Maron, who is not an official member of the board, will have no vote at board meetings.

To Hold Joint Party

Barbara Wallace, WRA vice president, told the board that 70 children from Patton Township will be brought to White Hall for the annual children's Christmas party 1 to 2:45 p.m. Dec. 12. The Phys-Ed 125 class will instruct the children in games. Other features of the party will include movies, a Santa Claus, gifts, and refreshments.

A joint Christmas party will be held 1 to 2:30 p.m. Dec. 13 by the WRA executive and intramural boards, and the WRA clubs and club presidents. The groups will present skits of past and future activities.
