

Greek Groups Plan Formals

Traditional Christmas holiday spirit will prevail this weekend as 19 campus groups give formal winter dances tonight.

A joint dinner dance will be given by Alpha Epsilon Pi and Zeta Beta Tau. The "Holiday Ball" will be held at the Alpha Epsilon Pi house.

Alpha Gamma Rho will hold its annual pledge dinner dance. An informal New Year's Eve party will be held by Beta Sigma Rho.

Christmas will be the theme at the Beta Theta Pi annual pledge dance. The Tunesters will play for the dinner dance.

At Chi Phi, the Melody Men will play for the pledge dance. The Delta Sigma Phi's will dance to the music of Don Trostel, and the Dreamtime Serenaders will play for the Delta Upsilon pledge dance tonight.

Decorations will be centered around Christmas at the Kappa Sigma pledge dinner dance. Jack Huber will play at the Christmas dinner dance to be held by Phi Delta Theta.

The Four Sharps will play at the Phi Kappa Psi dinner dance, and at Phi Kappa Sigma Don Smith will provide music for the pledge dinner dance.

John Sampsell will play at the pledge dinner dance to be held by Phi Kappa Tau. Phi Sigma Kappa will hold its pledge dinner dance. Dick Dennis will provide the dance music.

At the Nittany Lion Inn, Phi Sigma Sigma will hold its pledge dinner dance. Jim Erb will play at the "Sapphire Ball," which will be open to the public after 9 p.m.

Christmas decorations will appear at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon pledge dinner dance. A Christmas dinner will be held by Sigma Phi Sigma.

A semi-formal pledge dance will be held by Sigma Alpha Mu. The dance will be open to the public after 10 p.m.

At Tau Kappa Epsilon, Jack Jenkins will play for the pledge dance to be held in conjunction with Aye See. "Mistletoe Kiss" will be the theme.

The University Club will hold its annual Christmas dinner dance. All affairs are closed unless otherwise indicated.

Greatest Christmas tree demand is for balsam fir and Douglas fir.

UN Will Be Topic Of Town Meeting

"Should Red China and Franco Spain Be Admitted to the UN?" will be the subject of the final Hillel Town meeting for this semester at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Hillel Foundation.

The Town Meeting will be in the form of a round table discussion in which four faculty members will participate, followed by questions from the audience.

The speakers are Dr. Vernon Aspaturian, assistant professor of political science; Dr. William H. Gray, professor of Latin American history; Dr. Hugh Chapman, instructor in Romance languages; and Dr. David H. Russell, professor of education.

The program, which will take place at Hillel, 224 S. Miles street, is open to the public.

Greeks Will Hold Children's Party

Members of Gamma Phi Beta and Tau Kappa Epsilon will hold a joint Christmas party from 2 to 4 p.m. tomorrow for children from the State College area.

Along with a Christmas tree and presents for the children, entertainment will consist of a Rudolph the Red-nosed Reindeer skit presented by the sorority, and music by the Mellowaires quartet. Hot chocolate and ice cream will be served.

The European corn borer destroyed about 35 million bushels of corn in the United States in 1951.

Phi Sig Sig Stunt Wins Hillel Trophy

Almost 700 persons who attended Hillel's annual stunt night last Saturday at the Hillel Foundation saw Phi Sigma Sigma take first prize with its skit, "Cover Girl." The act brought several magazine covers to life.

Second place honors were shared by Alpha Epsilon Phi and Alpha Epsilon Pi, while Sigma Delta Tau won third place. Cups were awarded to first and second place winners.

Judges for the evening were James Ambandos of the College Motion Picture Studio, Frank Schlow, local business man; Warren S. Smith, assistant professor of dramatics; and Dr. Henry Youngerman, assistant professor of speech.

Margot Grossman and Eleanor Horvitz were in charge. A dance was held after the stunts.

ATO, KKG Plan Party For Woodycrest School

Alpha Tau Omega and Kappa Kappa Gamma will sponsor a Christmas party for the Fillmore third grade school in Woodycrest 2 to 4 p.m. tomorrow.

Santa Claus will distribute presents donated by members of the fraternity and sorority, and members of the groups will lead a program of songs and games. Refreshments of ice cream and cake will be served.

Christmas Programs Slated for Tomorrow

Since Christmas vacation begins next Saturday, local Christian groups will observe Christmas at their meetings tomorrow and go caroling afterwards.

The Wesley Foundation will hold a Christmas dinner at 5 p.m. tomorrow at St. Paul's Methodist Church. The theme of the evening program, starting at 6:30 p.m., will be "A Child Is Born."

After the regular weekly supper meeting at 5:15 p.m. at the University Baptist Church, the Roger Williams Fellowship will go caroling.

The Lutheran Student Association will hold its candlelight service at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Lutheran student house, followed by caroling.

A Christmas worship service will be held by the United Student Fellowship at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Faith Evangelical and Reformed Church.

The Canterbury Club will present a Christmas play at 4:30 and 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at St. Andrews Episcopal Church.

"Social Side of the Wedding Day," third in a series of seven talks on the Catholic marriage, will be sponsored by the Newman Club at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow in the basement of Our Lady of Victory Church. The club will go caroling at 7 p.m. tomorrow.

Members of St. John's Evangelical United Brethren Student Fellowship plan an afternoon of games beginning at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow at St. John's E.U.B. Church followed by a Christmas dinner at which Benjamin Niebel, associate professor of industrial engineering will speak on "Give to Take Account."

Folklore, folksongs, and traditions will be discussed at the meeting of the Unitarian Student Fellowship tomorrow. Members will meet at the Student Union desk at 6:15 p.m.

Hillel Foundation will hold a latke party at 3:15 p.m. tomorrow at the foundation.
