

Jess Stretches to No Avail

JESS ARNELLE, State's highscoring pivot man, drives in for a layup during the second period of last night's season opener with Alfred. However, Jess missed and the refs called him for charging into Bud Roberts, the Saxon's ace. State Captain Herm Sledzik is coming up from behind. State won, 56-43.

Cagers Win-

The shooting percentage of the Lions came up a bit and at the half had hit on 27 per cent while the hapless Saxons had a respectable 33 1/2 percentage.

The Saxons opened the third quarter with a full court press and on some fine cutting and sets by their speedy forward Roberts, they were able to stay in the game.

But they still couldn't stop the jump shooting of the Lions. Nittany Captain Herm Sledzik started to sink shot after shot as he began to find the basket. His eight points in the third quarter gave the Lions a 15 point lead at the three quarter mark.

Reserves Play
Penn State sent in the second string to start off the third quarter.

It was nip and tuck the rest of the way with the Lions scoring eight points to the Saxons 10 in the fourth quarter. Penn State sent in the second string with Jim Hill, Jim Brewer, Bob Rohland, Stu Phillips, John Ward and Frank Desalle all seeing action.

Brewer especially impressed the crowd with his speedy ball handling and dribbling.

Game Notes

Penn State hit for 19 baskets out of 66 shots for a 28 percentage. Their opponents had a 26 percentage on 16 tallies out of 52 attempts.

BASKETBALL FREE THROWS

Big Jim Hill did a good job in the backcourt. On a tip-in he practically threw the ball through the cords as his arm was way over the rim of the basket. In the third quarter, huge Jesse Arnelle went up for a shot and not only took the ball along but three Saxon players who had a hold of him. The speedy forward, Bud Roberts, was the mainstay on the Alfreds team. Several times he'd cut and weave his way through the Lions and lay the ball in the basket.

Nittanies Win in IM Cage Play

By TOM WERNER

One of the few overtime games of independent intramural basketball was played Thursday night at Recreation Hall. Also present was the usual mixture of large, and close scores.

The battle of the day featured the Nittanies over the Eagles, 24-21. It was a long, sad story for the Eagles who, after being on the short end of a 12-11 halftime score, tied it up by game's end, 19-19, only to lose out again in the overtime period.

The Nightmares had one as they lost out to the Rams 30-14. Leading the Rams' attack was George Cowdright with 10 markers.

The Panthers retired to lick their wounds after a 43-18 drubbing at the hands of Dorm 41.

There weren't enough of the Ioba to avert a 41-15 defeat by the Polecats. Ron McGrainor was lead Polecat with 16 points.

Glenn Gross with 19 markers led his Palms quintet to an easy 41-17 rout over the Aces.

The Leopards clawed the Cats, 38-21. The winning quintet was led by Jack Newell, who came through with 14 of his team's total points. The game broke open in the second half time after a halftime score of 15-10.

The Rovers had their minds elsewhere as the Irvineers romped home with a 33-19 victory.

The Graymen were a little blue after losing a close one to the Hoopsters, 20-16. The losers could do nothing more than keep up with their tormentors after a half period score of 10-6.

Jones' Boys carried off a forfeit win over the Radads.

JV's Beat Frosh, 36-26

By DICK McDOWELL

The freshman basketball team opened an abbreviated season with an abbreviated ball game last night, and lost to a more experienced Junior Varsity quintet, 36-26.

The game was halted early in the fourth quarter in order to get the varsity contest under way. The score at that time was 36-26, and must stand as the final tally. The contest had been scheduled to begin at 6 p.m. but was delayed because of the intramural boxing matches.

The JV's jumped off to an early 6-0 lead and were never headed after that. The frosh went into the contest as the underdogs, but managed to make a fine showing. After the JV's had scored their initial 6 points, the scoring leveled off to point-for-point basis, and the yearlings couldn't quite catch up.

Coach John Egli, in an effort to get a good look at everybody in action, used a "three platoon system" for the first half of the contest, inserting new combinations in the latter part of the game.

Hugo Mori, a 5-9 flashy guard, was high scorer with 10 points for the yearlings, while Joe Garrity scored 10 for the winners. Following Garrity in the scoring department were Jim Blocker and Jim Brasefield with 6 apiece. Earl Fields scored 5 points to place second of the frosh scoring honors.

Hal Brown, the frosh's classy guard, although scoring only 4 points, was a standout playmaker for the freshmen. The former all-stater stands only 5-10 but was continually outjumping the "big boys" to grab a big share of the rebounds. The speedster was the initiator of a good many scoring drives with his tricky ball handling and fine passing.

The game marks the first of eight scheduled contests that the yearlings will play this season. The same two teams will meet at Rec Hall again tonight. The game is scheduled to begin at 6 p.m.

State vs. Bowl Teams

Two bowl teams appear on Penn State's 1953 football schedule. Wisconsin will be the first opponent Sept. 26 and Syracuse will help the Lions open their home schedule Oct. 17. State's first three games will be played on the road, the next four at home.

Collegiate Chatter

Michigan State football players are receiving All-American honors and other laurels of the game almost daily.

Three senior members of the team which ran its current victory streak to 24 games have been selected on one or more All-American teams.

Guard Frank Kush, linebacker Dick Tamburo, and halfback Don McAuliffe each were named to two or more All-American teams. Kush and McAuliffe appeared on nationwide television shows from New York City in connection with their awards.

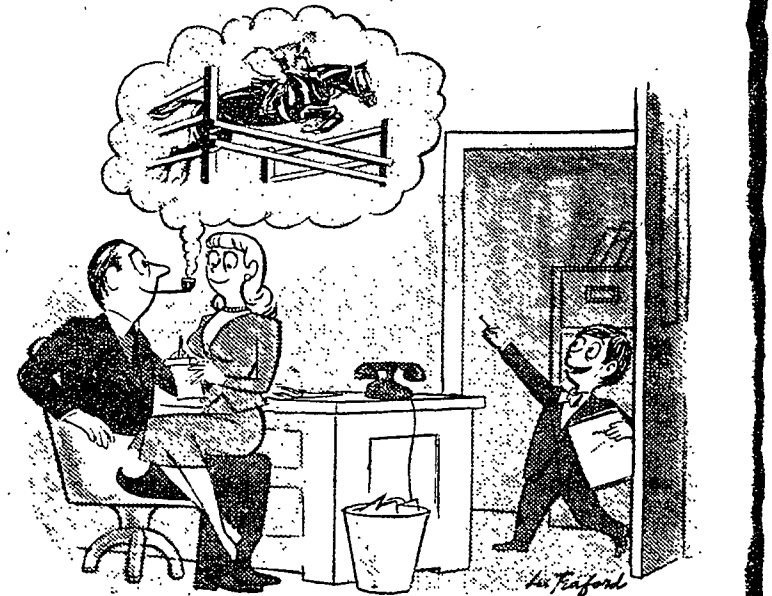

Safetyman Jim Ellis again was named to the All-American team selected by the Chicago Tribune. In 1951, although only a sophomore, Ellis won the same award. It is the first time a Spartan has placed on an All-American team two successive years.

Tamburo was the recipient of the Governor's Award, an inscribed gold watch signifying his selection by his Spartan teammates as the most valuable player. Doug Weaver, jovial middle linebacker, received the Oil Can trophy for the second year "providing the most humor."

Defensive end Don Dohoney, a junior, was voted captain of the 1953 Spartan squad.

The O'Donnell Trophy, emblematic of the national collegiate football championship, will be presented to Michigan State, the 1952 winner, at the annual banquet of the Detroit Times Quarterbacks Club.

LeRoy Bolden, Michigan State's sparkling little left halfback, weighed just 98 pounds when he first went out for football in junior high school.
