

Intramural Boxing Enters Final Week

Haffner, Arnold, McChesney, Kepple, Musial, Taub, Win Bouts

By SAM PROCOPIO

Delta Upsilon, defending team champion, advanced two of its three fighters in the IM boxing tournament yesterday to increase its total wins to 15. Theta Kappa Phi, trailing with eight wins, failed to advance its only pugilist on the card.

The DU's 165-lb. entry, Warren Haffner, beat his opponent, Steve Melmelk, Sigma Nu, to the punch when in close to gain the win. Haffner, endeavoring to fake his opponent with shifty footwork, rallied with fine jabs in the second and third rounds to gain the split decision. Haffner stunned Melmelk in the final round.

Despite his opponent's longer reach, Hank Arnold, DU's other winner, gained a unanimous decision from Jack Cleland, Phi Kappa Sigma. Face-to-face most of the way, Arnold connected effectively to the head and midsection. The scrappy 165-pounder had Cleland holding on in the final round.

Although Ed Nicholson, DU, rallied with a left jab to the nose and followed with a one-two punch to the head, the aggressive Alan McChesney, Phi Kappa Sigma, landed the harder punches to receive the unanimous decision. McChesney, 128, also beat Nicholson to the punch in their three round encounter.

In another split decision win, Joe Musial, Theta Xi, won from Bob Winters, Beta Theta Pi. Musial, 145, exchanged body punches with his foe in the initial round, landing the more punches. Although Winters had Musial covering up at times, the latter fighter was able to hit Winters more often with his right. Referee Glenn Hawthorne had to break the clinches in the final round.

Shifty Sylvan Taub, Phi Epsilon Pi, put away Gil Wetzel, Pi Kappa Alpha, just before the end of the initial round with a terrific right to the jaw. The heavyweights possessed "kayo" punches when they hit each other, but the fast, aggressive Taub connected effectively to the midsection and head. Wetzel had to hold on in the abbreviated bout.

Offensive-minded Bruce Wagner, Beta Theta Pi, handled his taller opponent, Dick Headlee, Chi Phi, with lefts and rights to the head to gain a unanimous decision. The 135-lb. Headlee made a comeback in the final round, but to no avail.

In the 145-lb. division Len Krieger, Phi Sigma Delta, stood toe-to-toe with Don Fields, Phi Sigma Kappa, and landed the harder punches to win. Krieger, consistently hitting with a right to the head, stunned Fields who had dropped his guard. George Resh, Lambda Chi Alpha, handled his defensive-minded foe with ease in the 135-lb. class to gain a unanimous decision from "Lanky" Williams, Kappa Sigma. Barton Fields, Kappa Alpha Psi, decided Doug Cassel, Phi Delta Theta in the 128-lb. division.

In the three independent fights of the card Charles Golightly stopped Craig Sanders in 55 of the first round. Dick Evanko's flurry of punches to the head with Herb Rebhun. Ron Kurz knocked 'Stocky' Hayes to the canvas to win in the 155-lb. division.

Engle Lauds Dooley

Penn State's Rip Engle says his center, Jim Dooley, of Williamsport, was the best in the East, if not the nation. A review of the season's movies shows that the veteran snapper-back rarely missed a block on offense. Dooley is a senior.
