Cagers Seek 5th Win Tonight Over Syracuse

Lion Courtmen Win One, A much wiser and more experienced Lion court team resumes regular season play at 8 tonight when it hosts the ose Two in Tournament

Although Penn State's record in the All-College tournament wasn't too impressive, only one win as against two losses, it was a good one considering the fact that the Lions were pitted against nationally ranking teams.

Both Oklahoma A&M and Western Kentucky, the two losses, are top seeded quintets with the Aggies in seventh place and the

The lone win was over Bowling Green by a 67-56 score.

Sledzik Outstanding

The big bright spot in State's holiday excursion was the performance turned in by its captain—Herm Sledzik. His coach, Elmer Gross, commenting on his playing, said "Sledzik played excellent outstanding ball in the tourney!"

In the second night contest, the Lions had their sliding zone working better, and took a 67-56 contest over the Bowling Green quintet. This time Arnelle began to show his old form and tallied 21 points which for the tourney!" tourney!

Herm's 54 points in three games led the Lions in scoring and also helped to gain him honorable mention on the tourney all-star teams along with teammate Jesse

Aggies Win Tourney

The Lions opened their threeday contest against top-seeded Oklahoma A&M coached by Hank Iba. The Aggies, eventual winners of the classic and winners nine times in 16 years, were paced by a 6-10½ monster named Bob Mattick and Gerald Stockton who tied Sledzik as the games' high scorer with 18. Mattik and the Lion's Joe Piorkowski each had 15. Final score read 61-68 in favor of the Aggies.

The Lions have pinned their three-day contest against top-seeded total of 169 points was a new all time high two-team mark.

32 Point Outburst

The Hilltoppers hit on 46% of their shots and that pretty much is the story within itself. They were paced by two big men, Art Spoelstra, 6-9; and Dan King, 6-7. Spoelstra, who outplayed the famous all-America Walt Dukes of Seton Hall not so long ago, scored 21 points while King had a grand high total of 27 tallies. With Sledzik leading the way, Penn State was only behind four

The Lions have pinned their hopes on their scoring ace Jesse Arnelle, but the big 6-5 center hadn't rounded out to basketball form yet and was off in his shooting. He could only get 5 points. He was also being guarded by Mattick which would help to account for his low scoring.

With Sledzik leading the way, Penn State was only behind four points at the half—37-33. But the Kentuckians came to life and ripped the game wide open with a 32 point outburst. The Lions stubbornly clung on and managed to make the score read 72-66 in the final quarter but they fell behind. behind.

Collegiate Chatter

A Michigan State defensive ackfield ace, Johnny Wilson, is believed to be the first major college gridder to win a Rhodes scholarship since Byron "Whizzer" White of Colorado, in the 1930's.

No. 45 on a Spartan football uniform seems to have political implications. The last two players who have worn the numeral, George Guerre, in 1946-48, and Johnny Wilson in 1950-51, were both senior class presidents.

Michigan State won national championships in both its fall sports, football and cross country,

College tournament in Oklahoma and lost to the Oklahoma Aggies and Western Kentucky while picking up their lone win over Bowling Green.

Only 2 Wins
On the other hand, Syracuse, coached by Marc Guley, will be attempting to get back on a winning path. In seven outings this

Their more recent defeat was by a powerful St. Johns quintet in an overtime period, 97-84. Other losses were by Sampson AFB, 72-70; Niagara, 65-45; an always strong West Virginia team, 71-63; and the Quantico Marines, 92-78.

Aside from winning the national championship, the MSC football team led the nation in rushing defense, permitting an average of only 33.9 yards gained against it per game.

3 Veterans

Comparing the records of Syracuse and Penn State, it would seem as though the Lions would be the heavy favorites in tonight's battle, but the starters were also heavy favorites a few months ago in favorites a few months.

Grid Attendance Reaches All-Time Mark-300,000

For the first time in its 66 Three veterans of last year's Syracuse team will see action tonight. A fourth letterman, Bill Manikus, who is this year's captain, will be out because of inturies. Acting as contain in his years of intercollegiate competi-tion, Penn State's football team in 1952 played before crowds totaling more than 300,000.

tain, will be out because of injuries. Acting as captain in his place will be Frank Reddout, rated as one of the best collegiate players in the game. This 6-5 senior scored 248 points last year and is an excellent play maker. The other two veterans are Pat Stark at 6-0 and Lou Beverly, Spartan series Stark at 6-0 and Lou Beverly, 6-10 pivot man. The team will be rounded out by Melvin Besdin and Skippy Thaw. Besdin was a late starter last season but scored 129 points, mostly on wiside shots and drive inc Spartan series.

A new home attendance mark also was established as five games at Beaver Field drew more than 100,000 patrons. A capacity house of 30,000 turned out for the homecoming game against the University of Nebraska for 1952's home game high.

Michigan State still holds the record for Beaver Field, attracting approximately 31,000 for its 1950 game with the Lions.
