

Matmen Pin Virginia, 30-0, Capture 21st

By SAM PROCOPIO

Penn State's Eastern Collegiate wrestling championship squad kept in tune with its all-important dual meet with Lehigh this weekend when it drubbed an inept Virginia team Saturday, 30-0. It was the second successive shutout administered to the Cavaliers of Virginia by the Lions. Last year the grapplers won, 34-0.

Previously Unbeaten

Tackling the Virginia team before approximately 1500 eager spectators, the Nittany Lions captured their 21st consecutive dual meet victory.

The previously unbeaten Cavaliers had won their initial meet against Johns Hopkins, 24-5.

Coach Charlie Speidel said although the score may have been impressive, the meet was no test for the ever-strong Lehigh. "Some of our boys are slow starters," he added.

"Virginia had a stubborn squad. They would operate in a shell, playing away from open wrestling, therefore, making it difficult for our boys to throw them. We had to manhandle them," the mentor said.

Don Frey Pins Foe

All the wrestlers did a fine job in handling their opponents, despite the weight move-ups, Speidel said. Most impressive, however, were Co-captain Don Frey, Dick Lemyre, and Jerry Maurey, he said. All three registered falls.

Frey, a standout 147-pounder, pinned Virginia's Lee Marston at 7:45 with a half nelson and crotch in the 167-pound class. EIWA champion Dick Lemyre pinned Fred Bocoock at 4:15 with a body press in the 137 pound class. Maurey, unbeaten in five dual meets last year, scored a fall over Howard Henry at 1:19 with a body press after taking his foe down with a lateral drop in the 147 pound division.

Bob Homan, EIWA champion, who opened the meet last year against Pete Thomas, also opened Saturday's meet with the same Thomas, this time decisioning him, 8-2. Homan decisioned Thomas, 5-2, last year. Thomas, in his first outing against Johns Hopkins, scored a fall.

Doug Frey Victor

Doug Cassel, who started at the 130 spot for the Lions, received praise from Speidel for his fine showing in his first varsity wrestling meet. Nervous at first, the scrappy little wrestler overcame the fright and easily defeated Stu Valentine, 12-5. With the Lions' Lemyre and Maurey, who followed, scoring pins, Penn State increased its lead to 16-0.

Doug Frey, twin brother of Don, posted his win in the 157 pound division, decisioning Harvey Fitzgerald, who had lost but one dual meet last year.

Samson Wins, 6-0

In the 177 pound match, which saw both varsity captains wrestle, Co-captain Joe Lemyre, EIWA and NCAA champion last year, decisioned Meb Turner. Turner was Virginia's leading scorer last year with 7-1-1 log.

Hud Samson kept the Lions' prestige in the unlimited class in fine style when he decisioned Virginia's John Braddon, 6-0. Samson sported a 7-2 record in the 177 class last year.

Lions Beat Gettysburg, 73-66

3000 Fans See Nittanies Collect Seventh Victory

By TED SOENS

A crowd of 3000 yelling fans saw a well-balanced quintet from Gettysburg make a last desperate attempt to overtake the Lions last night, but they couldn't quite make it as they lost, 73-66.

This is the first setback the Bullets have suffered this season, and they now have a record of seven wins in eight starts, while State is carrying a 7-3 record. Going into the game the Bullets had been averaging 88.1 points per game.

Habeeb Sinks Foul

The Bullets put on a fine exhibition of team play as they came up to within one point of the Lions with but three minutes left to go in the game. But the superior height of the Lions began to pay off, and Jack Sherry and Jesse Arnelle sank two jumps to pull the Staters ahead, 63-61. Gettysburg came right back with a foul shot by Habeeb and two beautiful fakes and push shots by Bill Snyder to pull the opponents right back in the game at 62-65.

But Arnelle added six more points, and Joe Piorkowski sank a foul to put the game on ice. Two State men fouled out in the final quarter Sledzik and Sherry.

Build Up Lead

The game started off with Gettysburg building up a 7-2 lead, before the Lions began to find the mark. Then Piorkowski and Sledzik poured in seven points, and the Staters took a lead which they never relinquished although it was tied twice.

First quarter score was tied at 21-21. Coming back in the second quarter the Lions built up a four point lead but again Gettysburg came from behind to close the gap. This occurred several times during the contest—the Lions would pull ahead, then the Bullets would come up to, but never quite catch them.

Perk Plays Good Ball

Trailing 29-36 just before the half-time buzzer, the Bullets put on a terrific drive and with their set shot artist—Habeeb—hitting on the outside, they managed to run up a 35-39 score at half-time, the Lions still out in front.

Opening the third quarter on two drive ins. one by Lang and the other by Luster Echman, the Bullets made another bid for the lead. This time the dependable Piorkowski, who played excellent ball all night, took two push shots from 20 feet out and helped the Lions to stay just ahead of Gettysburg.

Jesse Arnelle (Lions' High Scorer)

The fourth quarter began with the score reading 54-53 in favor of the Lions.

Arnelle Leads Attack

The free throws kept the Bullets in the game. They had 24 charities out of 35 attempts for a remarkable 69 per cent. The Lions had 17 for 32 attempts.

Arnelle, although off at the foul line making only five out of 14, was the game's high scorer with 23. Captain Sledzik was next with 19, and Piorkowski was third with 13.

For the visitors the points were more evenly spread.

For the visitors Lang with 15, Habeeb, with 13, and Pizalato with 12 paced the attack. Dale Klinefelter, Lang and Keller had perfect records at the foul line,

Cagers Stop Tartans, 62-51 But Lose to Panthers, 57-56

On a very controversial play in the dying seconds of Saturday's basketball game, the Pitt Panthers managed to hand the Lion cagers a 57-56 setback. This loss was State's first in two years to Pitt and caused a 1-1 record for the weekend trip to Pittsburgh.

On Friday night, paced by the usual three, Herm Sledzik and Jesse Arnelle, with 14 points each, and Jack Sherry, on 13 tallies, the Lions beat a smaller Carnegie Tech five, 62-51.

Very Close Game

Rebounding was the big factor in both games. In the Tartan contest, it was the superior height of the Lions that controlled the boards and consequently the game, while in the Pitt field house, it was the Panthers who took the majority of the rebounds.

The Pitt game was very tight, with the score changing hands several times and neither team able to get more than a five-point lead.

With three minutes left in the final quarter, the score was tied 53-53 by virtue of a jump shot by Sherry. Pitt took the ball out of bounds and brought it down-court where the Panthers desperately tried to find an opening in the Lion defense. On a missed shot by Dutch Burch, Arnelle grabbed a rebound, but was fouled by Pitt's Don Virostek. This made five personals for the Panther forward, and he left the game. Arnelle missed his first try but carefully dropped in his second attempt to make the score read 54-53 with two minutes to go.

Haag Scores

Pitt tried a fast break, but a poor pass gave possession of the ball to the Lions. Ed Haag, from 20 feet out, tried a set and missed, but took his own rebound and the first two having three for three and Keller two for two.

Penn State	Fg	F	T	Pitt	Fg	F	T
Sledzik, f	6	7-9	19	Habeeb, f	3	7-11	13
Sherry, f	2	2-3	6	Keller, f	1	2-2	4
Phillips, f	0	0-0	0	Eckman, f	2	3-7	7
Arnelle, c	9	3-14	23	Pizalato, c	4	4-5	12
Hill, c	0	0-2	0	Lang, g	6	3-3	15
Piorkowski, g	6	1-2	13	Klinefelter, g	2	3-3	7
Weid'her, g	1	0-0	2	Snyder, g	3	2-4	8
Haag, g	4	2-2	10
Brewer, g	0	0-0	0
Totals	30	17-32	73	Totals	21	24-35	66

sank a jump shot to put the Lions ahead with a three-point lead—56-53.

With only one minute to go and the crowd in an uproar, the Panthers tried three shots in a row. However, the Lions failed to get the rebounds, and finally Dave Duessel, a 6-4 guard for Pitt, took a push shot from the corner and pulled the Panthers to within one point of the Lions, 56-55.

Ref Fails to Call Foul

The clock read 40 seconds left when the Lions took the ball out of bounds.

The pressure was terrific, and the Panthers frantically pressed every Lion who took a pass. The second half read 20 seconds to go when three Pitt players charged into Sledzik and fouled the ball out of his hands (when asked why he didn't call a foul, the referee said—"I thought the game was over!"?)

Burch got the ball and went in for a layup but missed. However, Bernie Artman, following the play, took the rebound and made his shot just before the game ended—the final score reading—57-56.

Penn State	Fg	F	T	Pitt	Fg	F	T
Sherry, f	2	6-8	10	Zernich, f	3	3-5	9
Sledzik, f	6	8-11	20	Deitrick, f	2	2-4	6
Arnelle, c	5	6-9	16	Duessel, c	4	2-4	10
Haag, g	1	0-0	2	Virostek, g	3	3-5	9
Weid'her, g	0	0-0	0	Boyd, g	3	0-2	4
Phillips	0	0-0	0	Artman	1	0-0	2
Hill	0	0-0	0	Burch	1	1-1	13
Piorkowski	3	2-5	8	Falesko	1	0-0	2
				Carnahan	1	0-0	2
Totals	17	22-33	56	Totals	18	21-36	57

Score by periods—
Penn State 17 11 16 12-56
Pitt 16 14 11 16-57

FRATERNITY PAPERS
LETTERPRESS - OFFSET
★
COMMERCIAL PRINTING
Pugh & Beaver State College

Get MORE money for your used books

You can sell all your used text books currently in use at the Used Book Agency in the TUB. You can also sell any other books you think students might want.

You set your own price

Name the price you want for your books. We just sell them for you.

We will sell your books

In the large, self-service ball room of the TUB, we have utilized 3,000 sq. ft. of space to aid students in selecting and buying books. You have a better chance of selling your books.

Bring your books to the BX in the TUB starting Monday, the 26th. The BX will take books all that and the following week. We will be open for sales on Wednesday, the 28th.

Get those books you won't be needing or aren't saving. You can save some one money that might be spent for new books.

PENN STATE BOOK EXCHANGE

Non-Profit Student-Operated School Supply Store

Board at the Beaver House

Good Food at Good Rates

ONE BLOCK FROM CAMPUS

329 E. Beaver CALL 7851

... for BANANA SPLIT fans

A whole up banana... several scoops of your favorite Ice Cream... topped with true multiple flavors... nuts and whipped cream... you'll love this one probably more than you can eat... for 45c

ALLEN STREET

STATE COLLEGE