

Leonides Wants Election Change

A change in the Leonides election schedule was proposed by Vivian Peterson, president, Monday night, so that the new officers can attend the national convention of the National Independent Student Association, to be held April 23-25 at Purdue University. No action was taken on the proposal.

An essay contest on "Why Be an Independent?" will be sponsored by the National Independent Student Association through Leonides.

Cwens Plans Frosh Party

Cwens made plans for a party for matriculating freshmen and transfer students during spring semester orientation week at a meeting Monday night.

The purpose of the informal affair will be to make new students feel at home, because little emphasis is put on orientation in the spring semester.

Patricia Ellis, Sylvia Grube, Nani Ku, Aurelia Arre, and Joyce Shushman were appointed to take charge of the party.

Margaret Crooks, past president and official counselor, presided at the installation of officers. Standing committee chairmen and committees, including a committee to discuss possible service projects for next semester, will be appointed at the next meeting.

Cwens will help serve at the tea for outgoing senior women to be held in Grange dormitory tonight. They will also assist in registration and Orientation Week.

Christy to Play At WD Dance

Lynn Christy and his orchestra will play at a West Dorm dance Feb. 20. George Forsyth, chairman of the social committee, announced at a meeting of the West Dorm Council last night.

Forsyth said no meetings of the social committee were scheduled until the beginning of the spring semester. He said the attendance at past committee meetings has been very bad, and urged floor presidents to be sure the floor's social chairman or a representative of the floor attends the committee's meetings. Council President Robert Hance suggested that Forsyth mail cards to council members notifying them of the meeting as well as to floor social committee chairmen.

Council members were asked to consult with residents of their living areas about the possibilities of installing a television set in the main West Dorm lounge.

5 PSCA Workshops Will Meet Tonight

Five workshop groups of the Penn State Christian Association will meet for the last time this semester at 7 tonight. Worship workshop meeting has been postponed until next month.

The Drama and the Art for the Spector workshops will meet at the PSCA office, 304 Old Main.

The Music for the Listener workshop will meet in Simmons Hall lounge.

Know Your World workshop will be held at the home of Mrs. Ralph Garber, 613 W. Park avenue.

The Gripes and Grins workshop will meet in 304 Old Main.

Sorority Offers Annual Scholarship

Application forms for the annual Delta Delta Delta scholarship are available in 105 Old Main.

The scholarship, which will not exceed $200, is open for sorority and non-sorority women alike. The award will be presented, on the basis of qualities showing promise of "valuable citizenship in future communities."

The Delta Delta Delta committee on awards will judge the applications, which must be returned before Feb. 20.

Miss Peterson mentioned the three possibilities for a scholarship fund. These are: (1) contribute to the Penn State Student Scholarship Fund, (2) set up a Leonides scholarship fund, or (3) do both. Because there was no quorum, no vote could be taken.

RILW Committees
Reports on dormitory units will be due at the next meeting, Feb. 2; the reports will be both oral and written. Representatives were urged to conduct more unit meetings. It was suggested that there are several women speakers available who could be used as drawing cards for these meetings. Representatives can schedule these speakers through Mary Jane Wyland at the Penn State Christian Association office, 304 Old Main.

Women interested in working on Religion In Life Week committees may contact Hilda Hoggeland in 329 McElwain.

Contest Rules
A prize of $25 will be awarded for the best essay in the "Why Be an Independent" contest, and a trophy will go to the chapter at the winner's college. Entries will be sent to Charles Stillwell, Drury College, Springfield 2, O.

These are the contest rules:
1. Essay should be typed on one side of paper only and should be double-spaced.
2. Essays should be identified with a pen-name and should be accompanied by a sealed envelope containing writer's name, address, and college, and having the pen-name on the outside of the envelope.

3. April 1 is the deadline on which essays should be received in the Office of the Executive Secretary.
4. Winner will be announced at the national convention at Purdue.
5. All essays become the property of NISA, and the decision of the judges is final.

Two Days Remain In Clothing Drive

With two days remaining in the clothing drive sponsored by Women's Student Government Association, contributions are "coming along very well," according to Genevieve Castrodale, chairman of the drive.

Miss Castrodale reported that all collection boxes on campus had been emptied at least once. "We hope the donations from last-minute contributors are as great as expected," she said.

Boxes for discarded clothing have been placed in women's dormitories, Old Main, and West Dorms, since the drive began last Thursday. Through the local Friends organization, the clothing will be mended and shipped to Korea.

The Penn State Red Cross committee has elected Marie Wagner, chairman, and Roberta Jones, secretary.

Red Cross Group Chooses Officers

The organization is planning a variety show for the veteran hospital in Altoona Feb. 16. Chairmen of committees are Donald Ludwig, entertainment; Betty Buchanan, refreshments; and Robert Hance, transportation.

Those serving on the Red Cross committee are Kay Brainerd, Betty Buchanan, Donald Douglass, Robert Hance, Roberta Jones, Donald Ludwig, Ruth Minkel, Marie Wagner, Rhea White, and Ronald Zimmerman.

The fastest bird for running on the land is the emu of Australia. The emu can travel at 31 miles an hour for 10 miles.

Dean of Women Sets Coffee Hour

An informal coffee hour for all graduating senior women will be held at 6:30 tonight in Grange Dormitory by Dean of Women Pearl O. Weston and her staff.

Kent Forster, associate professor of history, will be guest speaker.

Senior women will be asked to complete personnel blanks at that time, and information on graduation will be given.

Engagements

Frey-Riddle

Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Riddle of Franklin announce the engagement of their daughter, Sue, to Robert Frey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max M. Frey of Franklin.

Miss Riddle is a third semester business education major, and Mr. Frey is a seventh semester student in mechanical engineering.

Condit-Lord

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lord of Reading announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia, to John Condit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Condit of Washington.

Miss Lord is a fifth semester home economics major. Mr. Condit, an eighth semester commerce major and a member of Delta Sigma Phi, will work for the General Fireproofing Co. in Youngstown, O., after graduation this month.

Ayers-Radisca

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Radisca of Phoenixville announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathleen, to Charles Ayers of Sayre.

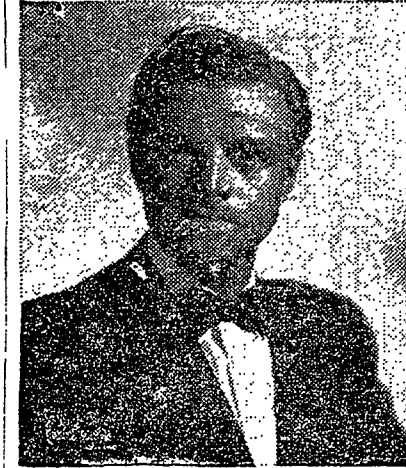

Miss Radisca, a seventh semester elementary education major, has been active in Association of Childhood Educators International and the Women's Recreation Association. Mr. Ayers, eighth semester arts and letters major, will enter law school after graduation this month. No date has been set for the wedding.

Noted Cantor Sings At Concert Tonight

Cantor Moses J. Silverman of Chicago will present a concert of Jewish music, sponsored by the Hillel Forum, at 8 tonight at the Hillel Foundation.

Cantor Silverman, a descendant of generations of famous cantors, has made radio and television appearances on all major networks and is a recording artist for MGM. He was featured soloist recently at a concert in Grant Park, Chicago, before an audience of 80,000.

To Sing at Hillel

Moses Jo Silverman

As a boy, Cantor Silverman sang in his father's choir and then toured with Joseph Rosenblatt, one of the great cantors of modern times. He continued his training at the Institute of Musical Art in New York City and now serves as cantor of the Anshe Emet Synagogue in Chicago, the largest synagogue in the Midwest.

Cantor Silverman, in addition to his radio and TV appearances, was the star of the motion picture "Your Neighbor Celebrates."

Cantor Silverman will sing selections from the liturgy of the Synagogue, western European Yiddish folk songs, and modern Israeli compositions. He will be accompanied at the piano by Joseph Rosenthal, graduate student in arts and letters.

The concert is open to the public.

Dance to Feature Christy Family

Lynn Christy, associate professor of English composition, and his two sons, Neil and Lynn Jr., will be the feature attractions of an hour-long floor show at the annual polio fund-raising dance tonight.

The dance, which is sponsored by the Elks Club, will begin at 8 p.m. at the Elks' home on S. Burrows street. It will feature music by the Campusers. Benefits from the dance and floorshow program go to the Centre County chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Janitor Service To Be Discussed

A suggestion that Allen C. St. Clair, acting director of housing, be invited to discuss the janitor service in the Nittany-Pollock area with the Dean of Men's advisory committee was one of six suggestions made by the group Monday.

Dean of Men Frank J. Simes said he would try to have St. Clair attend the next meeting, Feb. 2.

Other suggestions for discussion are medical excuses, a possible class cut policy, recreation areas in the Nittany-Pollock area, possible increase in the size of the Dispensary, and uses for the Temporary Union Building after construction of the Student Union.
