Ticket Sellout

WRA Proceeds To Aid Orphan

Another war orphan will be aided by the Women's Recreation Association with the money received from their annual Sweetheart Dance to be held from 9 to 12 p.m. Feb. 14 in White Hall.

Since 1946 WRA has allotted $180 each year to a war child tion participation cup for the fall through The Foster Parents Plan for War Children in New York.

The donations have been obtained from the proceeds of the dance, which is an annual girl ask boy affair with tickets priced at $1.50 per couple.

Josiane, Macquet, a ten year

trade school in Poland.
Cwens joined with WRA in 1950-51 to aid Theodora Anna
Buurman, a ten year old Dutch war orphan. This child was assigned to the two groups by the Foster Parents Plan, Inc., who suggested that the extra money not needed by Ireta be spent to aid Theodora.

old French girl, was the first war child to be benefited by the WRA donation. As a result of bombing raids, her mother Announced For Mil Ball died and her father was seriousdied and her father was seriously injured. Josiane, her older brother, and younger twin brother and sister, were put with their grandmother who was unable to care for them financially. The Macquet children suffered during the Occupation and it was in the years The 1000 tickets available for the Military Ball to be held from 8:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. Feb. 27 in Recreation Hall have been sold, James Graef, head of promotion for the dance, announced yesterday.

The tickets, which went on sale at 8 a.m. Wednesday, were sold out at 3 p.m. yesterday. The ticket dispersal system for the dance was entirely different from previous, years. There was no limit to the number of tickets that could be obtained by ROTC cadets and midshipmen.

Billy May 27-3. The Macquet children and it was in the years 1946-47 that the WRA gave aid to Josiane and the rest of her family. As a result, this shy, blue-eyed child and her brothers and sister have adequate clothing, food, and shelter.

In 1948-49 the WRA adopted Ireta Pasztual, a Polish girl of 13. Ireta was one of fine pation, and it was in the years 1946-47 that the WRA gave aid to Josiane and the rest of her family. As a result, this shy, blue-eyed child and her brothers and sister have adequate clothing.

could be obtained by ROTC cadets and midshipmen.

Billy May and his orchestra, featuring the Encores, will play for the formal dance. During the intermission the Military Ball queen will be chosen from five finalists. previously selected by the personnel of the military staff at the Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, Va.

The queen will be presented an engraved, silver-plated crown and elever insensibed leaving and the silver plated crown. The brown-eyed blonde girl

The queen will be presented an engraved, silver-plated crown and a large inscribed loving-cup. Each of the four runners-up, who will form the queen's court, will receive bouquets, leather jewelry cases, and small loving-cups.

Religion-

Inter-Varsity To Show Film

A Moody Science Foundation

A Moody Science Foundation film, "Voice of the Deep," will be shown at the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship meeting at 7:30 tonight in 405 Old Main.

An informal mixer for old and new students will be held by Newman Club at 8 tonight at Theta Kappa Phi. Records will be played for dancing, and refreshments will be served.

Students meeting at the Lutheran Student Association at 7:15 tonight will divide into two groups tonight will divide into two groups and go roller skating at the Coli-seum or bowling, according to bi Benjamin Kahn will officiate.

Of Penn State Farmer Theodore Kimmel, seventh semester agronomy major, has been named editor of the Penn State named editor of the Penn State Beta Sigma Rho Farmer for the spring semester, Boyd Wolff, retiring editor, announced yesterday.

Other staff members elected intising manager; Bernard Fox, circulation manager; Donald White, editorial layout; Harry Nichol, advertising layout; James Hall, feature editor; Ann Patterson, wommanager.

Aye Sees Awarded

Pi Beta Phi has been awarded the Women's Recreation Associa-greatest number of hours per person to WRA activities. The statistics are derived from WRA atndance cards.

The semi-annual presentation of the cup was started by Marilyn Williams, 1950-51 president of WRA. The first winner was Nit-tany Co-op in the spring semester of 1951. In the fall semester of 1951 Alpha Chi Omega and 'Nittany Co-op tied for the award. Nittany Co-op again won the cup in the spring semester of 1952.

Engraved on the cup, which is to be awarded at the intramural board meeting Monday afternoon. will be "Participation Cup, Aye See, First Semester, 1952-53."

Abeloff-Moss

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Moss of Woodmere, N.Y., announce the marriage of their daughter, May, and Frederic Abeloff, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Abeloff of Frackville.

Mrs. Abeloff attended Ce dar Crest College in Allentown and the Liberal Arts school of the College.

Mr. Abeloff was graduated in June in commerce and finance at the College. He is a member of Problems of Pennsylvania and the College.

The brown-eyed blonde girl

the College. He is a member of Alpha Epsilon Pi. Hannah Silberman, junior so ciology major, was maid of honor and Marvin Cotler, junior in commerce, was best man.

The couple is now residing in Bethlehem.

Wertman-McMillan

in Korea.

Coed Recreation To Be Continued

Coeducational recreation will continue this semester from 7:30 predominate at the Wesley Foundation's Patriotic Party at 7:30 tonight in the Wesley gymnasium. Records will be used for dancing. Hillel Foundation will hold regular services at 8 tonight. Rabbil Benjamin Kahn will officials.

regular services at 8 tonight. Rab-bi Benjamin Kahn will officiate. recording secretary. Alice Hen-board, and table tennis facilities. recording secretary; Alice Hennessy, corresponding secretary; New ping-pong tables have been and happiness the world over? Nancy Barth, rushing chairman; added, he said.

Meal Service to Start

housekeeper.

Beta Sigma Rho

Recently elected officers of Beta Sigma Rho are David Meyers, chancellor; Larry Boxer, vice chancellor; David Garfield, ward-but of the spring semester, lunch and dinner will be served in the Home Economics Building. Lunch will be served cafeteria essay to Association of Interest, chancellor; David Garfield, ward-but of the spring semester, lunch and dinner will be served in the Home Economics Building. Lunch will be served cafeteria essay to Association of Interest, chancellor; David Garfield, ward-but of the spring semester, lunch and dinner will be served essay to Association of Interest, chancellor; David Garfield, ward-but of the spring semester, lunch and dinner will be served essay to Association of Interest, chancellor; David Garfield, ward-but of the spring semester, lunch and dinner will be served entered in the Home Economics Building. Spaced, typewritten, 1000-word essay to Association of Interest, and the spring semester, lunch and dinner will be served entered in the Home Economics Building. Spaced, typewritten, 1000-word essay to Association of Interest, and the spring semester, lunch and dinner will be served entered in the Home Economics Building. Spaced, typewritten, 1000-word essay to Association of Interest. The spring semester, lunch and dinner will be served entered in the Home Economics Building. Spaced, typewritten, 1000-word essay to Association of Interest. The spring semester, lunch and continue and continue in the Home Economics Building. Spaced, typewritten, 1000-word essay to Association of Interest. clude Edgar Fehnel, managing en; Morton Zieve, vice warden; dinner, tea room style, from 5:30 before March 30. The entrant's editor; Bennett Avery, business manager; Richard Bauer, adverding manager Bernard Fox circles and the state of the

4 Students to Read Tuesday in Simmons

Four literary works will be featured in the reading hour to be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Simmons Hall lounge.

Jerome Feinberg, sixth semester arts and letters major, will read from Charles Dickens' "The Madman's Story."

LaRue Fritz, eighth semester speech major, will read from Mark

Twain's "The Glorious White-

A reading from Terence Rattigan's "O Mistress Mine" will be given by Arthur Rosberg, eighth semester political science major.

The reading hours, which have been held monthly at the College for the past five years, are spon-sored by the Speech department to provide students of Speech 280 and 285 classes an outside oppor-tunity to demonstrate their talent in oral interpretation. The reading hour is open to the public.

The students are chosen by members of the speech classes.
Selections are chosen by the students are chosen by the students. dents themselves.

Charles Dickens' "The Christmas Carol" was the selection read by James Ambandos at the read-

Woodmere, N.Y., announce the Woodmere, Their Semester, 1952-58.

Wester Participation Cup, Aye by James Ambandos at the reading for ing hour held in December.

The idea of public reading of literary works has taken a universal hold within the last few years. Charles Laughton has toured the world giving his readings. Other outstanding persons in the field are T. S. Eliot, Charles Boyer, Agness Moorehead, and Sir Cedric Hardwicke.

News Forum

Problems of Pennsylvania educators will be studied by news-papermen at a special seminar at the College Feb. 27-28. Melville Ferguson of the Philadelphia Bulletin, president of the Pennsylvania Society of News-paper Editors, sponsor of the sem-inar, said it is intended for news-men who cover schools in their communities.

Virginia McMillan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ryall McMillan, became the bride of Edwin Wertman Oct. 3 in Brentwood.

The bride is a senior in elementary education and a member of Alpha Chi Omega. The bridegroom, a graduate of Springfield College, is serving in the Army in Korea.

National Clubs Sponsor Contest

A contest sponsored by the Association of International Relations Clubs and the Youth's Friends Association of New York offers a $500 first prize and a $300 second prize for the best essays on "How can America" to purchase famous create a better understanding of its real intention to promote peace

Five honorable mention awards of $100 each will also be given.

The contest is open to students Beginning Monday and continu- up to 30 years of age enrolled in

The purpose of the cup is to give recognition to the team which has had the largest total of members participating in intramural sports and has given the major. Excerpts from Irwin Shaw's play "Bury the Dead" will be read by Sally Lowery, eighth semester speech major. A reading from Terence Rott: A Teading from Terence Rott: Excerpts from Irwin Shaw's play "Bury the Dead" will be read by Sally Lowery, eighth semester speech major. A reading from Terence Rott: A Teading from Terence Rott: To Meet Profs To Meet Prof

An informal reception for freshnen and sophomores in Education 1 to meet representatives from the nine College schools will be held from 3:30 to 5 p.m. Monday in Simmons Hall lounge.

The get-acquainted meeting is a continuation of the program initiated last semester to promote cooperation between faculty members and beginning education stubers and beginning education stu-dents, Dr. David W. Russell, chair-man of the faculty advisory board for Education 1, said.

General chairman for the recep-tion is Barbara Iwashita, junior in psychology and student chair-man of the fall Education 1 sec-

Members of the faculty advis-ory board for Education 1 are William E. Cobb, instructor in ed-ucation; Clyde G. Corle, assistant professor of education; Dr. Ger-hard E. Ehmann, associate pro-fessor of education; Dr. Harry K. Hutton assistant professor of ser-Hutton, assistant professor of secondary education.

Dr. James H. Moyer, professor of education; Dr. Robert B. Patrick, associate professor of edu-cation; Dr. Russell; and Dr. Chas. M. Long, professor and head of the Department of Education and ex-officio member of the board

Ag Engineering Club To Hold Square Dance

The Agricultural Engineering Club will hold a square dance at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the tractor laboratory of the Agricultural Engineering Building.

Chauncey Lang, professor of agricultural extension, will be caller. Donations may be made.

Keller Selected To Head Philotes

Jeanne Keller was recently elected president of Philotes, independent women's social organization.

Other new officers are Shirley Trudgeon, secretary; Sarah Sapper, treasurer; and Marian Dally, intramural chairman.

KNITTERS

to purchase famous brands of yarn at REDUCED PRICES!

COLUMBIA FEATHERWEIGHT 2-oz. hank-was 90c Now 59c

> BERNAT MIRASPUN 4-ply, 1-oz. balls-was 65c Now 43c

COLUMBIA SOCK PACKS All wool. Were $1.98 Now $1.19

NOVELTY SOCK YARN Was 75c Now 50c

BOTANY KNITTING WORSTED 4-oz., 4 ply 69c

ODD DYE LOTS AT ROCK BOTTOM PRICES!

All Sales Final

129 S. Frazier St.

Lagrantica manifestica with the

Take a TIP From Cupid

Shop at the Blair Shop for that Special Valentine present.

Copper Jewelry, Jeweled Compacts, Sweetheart Aprons, or new spring jewelry will win any girl's heart

WE WILL MAIL YOUR GIFTS

The Blair Shop

Collegian Promotion Richard Denison has been promoted to the intermediate board en's editor; Richard Stoneback, moted to the intermediate board state advertising manager; and of the Daily Collegian circulation Paul Stone, local advertising staff, Franklin S. Kelly, business manager, announced yesterday. Be Sure to See . . . GEORGE BERNARD SHAW'S COMEDY

tary.

MAJOR BARBARA at Center Stage January 16 and 17

Tickets $1 at S.U. or at the door