

Ike, Taft List 11-Point Agenda

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (AP)—President Eisenhower's legislative program took shape at a White House conference today, with increasing indications that tax reductions must await a more nearly balanced budget.

When Sen. Taft of Ohio, Republican floor leader in the Senate, emerged from the conference, he made it clear he agreed with the President that income and other taxes should not be cut until the brake has been pulled on spending.

Taft Backs Ike's Plans For Asia

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9 (AP)—Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) said tonight he is prepared to back any move the Eisenhower administration might make in the Far East, including a naval blockade against Red China.

Taft said in a radio discussion he has no information from official sources, however, that the administration is planning any move toward establishing a blockade.

He said he personally favors a blockade, but does not believe the United States should undertake such a move until it explores all the possibilities of getting Allied assistance.

Taft's statement came on the heel of these other developments in the international picture:

1. Sen. Russell (D-Ga.) joined in a growing congressional demand for a blockade to cut Red China off from the sea-borne shipments of potential war materials.
2. Secretary of State Dulles returned from Europe with word that he is "encouraged" about the prospect for creating a common defense army in Western Europe.

Call Girl Ward Begins Testimony

NEW YORK, Feb. 9 (AP)—Call girl Pat Ward began naming names today of the cafe society playboys who bought her love—but their identity was hidden behind a court curtain of secrecy.

Asked if the names were prominent, an attorney told newsmen: "I would think so." Miss Ward took the witness stand against Minot (Mickey) Jelke in a courtroom where press and public were barred "in the interest of public decency and morals," although special telegraph and telephone wires already had been installed.

THE SHAME OF OUR COLLEGES

Are we a nation of uneducated people with college degrees? Do less than half of our students in college actually belong there? Why is today's campus the target of Communist propaganda—a hotbed of sports scandal—a marriage mart for enterprising females? Don't miss Louis Bromfield's shocking expose, "The Shame of Our Colleges."

Early Adjournment

"I am confident that in the end we shall reduce taxes," the GOP leader told reporters, "but just how and when it shall be done was left for future consideration."

- Taft disclosed the Republican leadership in Congress is aiming at a Fourth of July adjournment. He outlined a broad legislative program and said he is certain all the goals will be reached. Here is what may be expected to happen in the next five months:
1. All appropriation bills (including those for foreign aid) will be out of the House and ready for Senate action by May 15. Taft said they have first priority.
 2. Hawaii will be admitted to statehood.
 3. Several executive departments and agencies will be reorganized under powers granted to the White House by Congress last week.
 4. The Taft-Hartley labor law will be amended to meet some of the objections of management and labor unions.
 5. Some controls, like rents, and some allocations of scarce materials will be extended.
 6. The Reciprocal Trade Act will be extended.
 7. A "tidelands" oil ownership law will be passed, probably giving the states title to the rich offshore oil deposits.
 8. Customs procedures will be simplified.
 9. Old age and survivors insurance will be extended to cover groups now unprotected.
 10. Aid to schools will be extended in critical areas.
 11. Two commissioners will be added to the board of three now administering the District of Columbia. A Negro and a woman may be given these places if they are established.

Senate Committee Claims Nixon Victim of Slander

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9 (AP)—The Senate elections subcommittee said today forged documents were apparently used against Vice President Nixon in the 1952 election campaign and the FBI has been asked to step in with a view to criminal prosecution.

The documents the subcommittee labeled spurious allegedly say Nixon got $50,000 from oil interests during last fall's campaign.

Chairman Barrett (R-Wyo.) declined to name individuals or firms mentioned in the case. But he told a reporter:

"I think we will be able to pin it on one individual, and in a reasonably short time. We think we know who is responsible."

"It was a very clever deal and a very vicious persons who concocted it. I think the thing will be ferreted out and that possibly prosecution for perjury will result."

Evidence uncovered by the subcommittee in two months of secret inquiry has been turned over to the FBI, the senator said. It includes, he said:

1. A fake photograph of "an alleged communication from an official of a well-known West Coast oil company" to another oil com-

Street scene in Tehachapi after last July's earthquake.

...EARTHQUAKE...

In the predawn of last July 21, the most severe California earthquake since 1906 struck the small town of Tehachapi.

Walls were collapsing, buildings were folding. The town's telephone office shook to its foundation. But the night operator remained at her switchboard until it went dead. Main cables to the office were pulled to the ground when a nearby wall caved in.

This was at 4:50 A.M. By 8:30 A.M. telephones were set up on the edge of town for use by the Red Cross and other emergency workers.

By late afternoon, the telephone switchboard was working. Tehachapi residents were able to contact friends and relatives concerned about their safety.

By 9 P.M. two TV stations were sending live telecasts of the damage. Telephone men had established a radio-relay system in less than 12 hours.

It was a typical disaster—brutal and unannounced. But telephone men were prepared. They quickly restored communication when it was needed most. They demonstrated the resourcefulness and technical skill typical of telephone people.
