Jess Arnelle High Scorer For Lions With 16 Points

A versatile Penn State wrestling squad secured its 24th consecutive dual meet victory last night in Rec Hall when it pinned a comparatively weak Red and Blue Penn team, 28-0, before some 5000 eager fans.

The Nittany Lions' second stringers proved they are capable of holding their own when five of Coach Charlie Speidel's "second best" scored wins.

Speidel's Eastern intercollegiate champions' excellent victory proved to be devastating for the Quakers. It was their fifth successive defeat. Only once during the entire dual meet did a Penn matman endanger any early Penn State lead. This came in the 147-pound battle when Bill Hoffman obtained a reversal after State's Bill Krebs took his opponent down. In the second period, however, the fast and swift Krebs came back strongly with another reversal. On the reversal, Penn State's impressive newcomer almost had a near fall, but Hoffman slid off the mat on one shoulder.

Homan Scores Fall

Speidel, who has had his boys moving up and down the scales, had Doug Cassel go down from his usual 130-pound division to the 123 spot. Cassel had little trouble in teaching his opponent how to get points. Leading 4-1 at the start of the third period, Cassel took down his opponent three times, escaped once, and had his foe in a near fall position, scoring a total of nine points. Two points for time advantage gave Cassel his second win of the season, 15-3.

Bob Homan, the 123-pound EIWA champion who moved up one weight, made Tom Jones observe Rec Hall's lights with a three-quarter nelson and leg drop in 6:24. Homan, who wrestles on one knee, was leading 6-2 at the time of the fall. The victory was Homan's fourth of the season and seventh in succession.

Bellefonte's Larry Fornicola opposition when he decided proved he can handle heavier

Penn's Len Shea, 6-0. Shea took the initiative by jumping for Fornicola's legs, but the 137-pounder did not keep his hold long. Penn State's 137-pounder broke away from the hold and took Shea down. It was Fornicola all the way from there.

Dvorozniak Wins First

Scoring the second fall of the evening was State's Bill Shawley. The 157-pound newcomer pinned Penn's most outstanding grappler and captain, Ed Agnew, with a reverse cradle in 7:27. Shawley's fall put the Quakers further in the red. By this time the score read 19-0.

George Dvorozniak, who lost his initial match as a Penn Stater, wrestled his foe with ease, decisioning Russ Down 6-2. Dvorozniak's attempt for a fall was halted as the buzzer ended the second period. The win was his first of the season.

Samson Decisions Assiff

Co-captain Joe Lemyre decisioned Penn's Ray Walker, 6-0. The EIWA and NCAA champion scored early with a take-down. It wasn't until the second period that the barrel-chested 177-pounder received two more points. Wrestling from the referee's position, Lemyre obtained a reversal of position and had little chance of doing any more scoring after that. His 177-pound opponent was wrestling in a shell, leaving no chance, if any, for open wrestling. The victory was Lemyre's sixth consecutive win and ninth unbeaten dual meet.

Gavilan TKO's Davey in Tenth

CHICAGO, (AP) — Cuba Kid Gavilan, a rugged champion from the school of hard knocks, floored college-bred Chuck Davey four times last night with his explosive punching to hold his world welterweight title on a tenth round technical knockout.

The previously unbeaten Davey was unable to answer the bell for the 10th after absorbing a bloody beating in the savage ninth.

Switching southpaw at times against his left-handed foe, Gavilan flunked the Michigan State grad in the finals of his graduate course in pugilism. After the bout was stopped he gaily danced a few rumba steps in his corner while waving to the roaring crowd of Davey partisans at Chicago stadium.

It was no contest although the game Davey kept flicking his impotent punches in annoying fashion against the 27-year-old champ from Camaguey.

With their second string playing most of the game, the Penn State cagers walked their way to the 10th win of the season in Rec Hall last night by downing American University, 69-53.

At no time during the game were the Eagles able to get within breathing distance of the Lions who scored 18 points the first quarter; 15 the second half; 18 the third quarter and 10 points in the final period.

State took the lead from the start with Ronnie Weidenhammer sinking a set shot. American University used a sliding zone defense much the same as the Lions but good feeding from Dave Edwards and Weidenhammer into pivot man Herm Sledzik or under the boards to Jesse Arnelle pulled the Lions ahead where they stayed the rest of the game.

Arnelle, who was high man for the Lions with 16, did most of the scoring for the Lions in the first quarter and sank all of the foul shots in the first half. First quarter ended just as Jack Sherry took a long-running set shot with the ball hitting the net as the buzzer sounded. (And as one person commented—"That was the first time I ever saw Sherry smile while playing".)

Coach Elmer Gross cleared the bench the second quarter and the subs ran up the score to read (Continued on page seven)
