

Cornell Next for Matmen; Gymnasts Eye Syracuse

If there is any chance for an upset when Penn State's matmen face Cornell tomorrow at 2:30 p.m., the Red Raiders will have to win the early matches. The Nittany Lions' 11-man contingent will leave the campus for Ithaca, N.Y. this afternoon.

Coach Charlie Speidel claims that in order to capture his 26th consecutive dual meet victory "our boys must get by Cornell's first three wrestlers"—namely, Red Boda, Bruce Blackman, and Nate Pond.

"In order to be on the safe side, our boys must take those matches," the stocky mentor explained.

Boda, 123-pounder, is Cornell's upcoming sophomore who has been winning regularly. Blackman, a 130-pounder of Forty Fort, Pa., is another sophomore whom Speidel holds in much respect. Pond is the Raiders' classy 137-pound wrestler.

The Red Raiders possess two other sophomores who are in varsity competition for the first time this season. Although Coach Jim Miller of Cornell has these capable newcomers, he must deal with one drawback. That is, last year, Cornell had to wrestle under Ivy League rules which did not permit members of the League to use freshmen.

The only two lineup changes made by Speidel were made in the 123 and 130-pound classes.

Penn State's 123-pound EWA champion, Bob Homan, and Bellefonte's 130-pound surprise package, Larry Fornicola, will not make the trip. In their places, however, will be the Nittany Lions' fine 130-pounder, Doug Cassel, and EWA champion, Dick Lemyre. Cassel will move down one weight, while Lemyre will tackle the 130 spot.

Included in the two-time Eastern Intercollegiate champion contingent are Jerry Maurey, 137; Don Frey, 147; Doug Frey, 157; George Dvorozniak, 167; Joe Lemyre, 177; and Hud Samson, heavy-weight.

Coach Gene Wettstone and his 14-man traveling squad will leave at 12:30 p.m. today by car for Syracuse, N.Y., in quest of a win over the final remaining unbeaten EIGA team in Eastern play, the Orange of Syracuse.

At Syracuse, besides looking for an important EIGA dual meet win over the Syracuse gymnasts, the gym Lions will be shooting for:

- (1) Their fourth straight win this season.
- (2) Their seventh in a row over a two-season span.
- (3) Their second straight over Syracuse in two years.

Hommas To Tumble

Tomorrow's meet will be the fourth and last consecutive dual meet on the road for the Nittany gymnasts who will then return home for successive Saturday meets with Temple and Army Feb. 28 and March 7.

The lineups for Syracuse will remain the same, except for one slight change in the tumbling threesome, Wettstone said yesterday. Junior Warren Hommas will go in the number three spot of that event.

Captain Bob Kenyon who, all week, according to Wettstone, was "on the improve" in practices, will be in the number one tumbling slot, followed by Bob Kreidler. The Oranges' Jim Sebo will cause most of the single Syracuse trouble in this event.

Sidehorse Trio Same

The sidehorse crew, which slammed Navy, will be Bobby Lawrence, Frank Wick, and Tony Procopio. Procopio will be working his second event on the flying rings.

Veteran Jim Hazen and comparative newcomer Karl Schwenzfeier will go in the top two positions on the rings. Schwenzfeier's other two jobs tomorrow will be in the horizontal bar and parallel bars events.

Wettstone will lead with his Finnish stylist, Jean Cronstedt on the horizontal bar, followed by Mario Todaro, and again Cronstedt on the parallel bars, followed by Al Wick.

The ropeclimb trio, also the same, will be Dave Schultz, Johnny Baffa, and Bob Boudreau. Schultz and the Syracuse big rope-man, Ferdinand Feurneies, both have been clocked in meets in 3.9 seconds.

Werner Looking For Sprinters

Track Coach Chick Werner revealed yesterday that there is a vital need for sprinters on the track team. The way is open to anyone for a job with the Nittany thinclads, Werner said.

The wily mentor stressed one point in particular—experience is not necessary. He feels there are many potential trackmen at Penn State. Students who feel they don't have the ability, if put to the test, could find that they do, he said.

Werner said that anyone who is interested in a chance to run for the team should report to him or assistant Coach Norm Gordon at Rec Hall.

An excellent dual meet schedule is on the docket for this spring, including Manhattan and Michigan, among others, and the need for sprinters is imperative.

Tekes, Kappa Sigs Tie For First in Cage IM's

By ROY WILLIAMS

Tau Kappa Epsilon's first-place supremacy in league F of IM cage play came to an abrupt end Wednesday night. Phi Mu Delta engineered the 26-25 upset. The final two-pointer was in the air when the game ended, giving Phi Mu its fourth win and ending the TKE's six-game win streak.

Kappa Sigma, who lost its first floor battle, continued its six-game win streak by downing Phi Epsilon Pi, 20-15. Tom Goldsworthy's seven markers aided the winning five. This win by Kappa Sig, coupled with the TKE's first loss, placed both teams in a tie for the first place berth in league F.

DU's Lose, 29-28

Tony Dorrell's 15 points led the way for Alpha Tau Omega's 35-26 victory over Delta Tau Delta. DTD tried to fight its third loss by tallying 20 points in the second half. ATO's 22-6 halftime lead was too much of a barrier for the Deltas to overcome, as ATO went on to register its fifth victory.

Phi Sigma Kappa won its third contest the hard way by edging past Delta Upsilon, 29-28. DU couldn't stem the Phi Sigs and Harry Carroll's 13 tallies, although they held a 15-10 halftime lead.

Kappa Delta Rho squeezed by Theta Kappa Phi despite 16 tallies scored by Gabriel Lensak of Theta Phi. A 14-12 halftime lead and Tom Lazoroff's ten pointers gave KDR its second win of the campaign.

2 Forfeits

Phi Alpha Psi downed Phi Kappa, 17-13. Paul Sheperd lead the winners with six markers. Theta Chi walked over Phi Kappa Tau, 32-16. An 18-16 halftime margin did the trick for the winners.

Omega Psi Phi forfeited to Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and Delta Chi forfeited to Alpha Epsilon Pi.
