

Eleven Finalists To Read Monday

Eleven finalists competing to attend the Eastern Poetry Reading Festival and the Pennsylvania Interpretative Reading Festival will take part in the March reading hour, 8 p.m. Monday in 304 Old Main.

Four of the 11 will be selected to represent the College at the Interpretative Reading Festival to be held at the College in May. A fifth will take part in the Poetry Reading Festival at Middletown College, N.Y., in May.

Forestry Ball Queen Photos Due Monday

William Musser will read from W. H. Auden's "Low, Say the Gardeners Is the Sun." Kaye Vinson will read Edwin Markham's "The Man With the Hoe" and David Grayson's "The Man Who Was Going to Die" will be interpreted by Charles Gaunt.

Margaret Troutman will read from "Portrait of Jenny" by Robert Nathan. Nancy D. White's reading will be taken from Steven V. Benet's "Lucy Weatherby," and Constance Melvin has chosen "A Letter to Jackie." Ann Wylie will read Constance Mackay's "Ashes of Roses."

William Saroyan's short story, "At the Public Library," will be read by Margaret Roberts. "Zeek Musta Been Away" by Thomas Slakoff, and Lois Lehman will close the program by reading excerpts from "Mary of Scotland," by Maxwell Anderson.

Jay Murphy will serve as chairman of the program, and members of the Speech department will be judges.

The reading hour is open to the public.

Photographs, at least 3 by 5 inches, with the name, address, and brief description of the candidate and the sponsor's name, may be submitted at the Student Union desk in Old Main or the main office of the Forestry Building. Individuals or campus groups may sponsor candidates.

The faculty at Mont Alto, a branch of the Pennsylvania State Forestry School, will select the Sweetheart by audience applause at the dance during intermission. Judges are Richard Stanley, Agriculture Student Council president; John Laubach, All-College president; and Herman Sledzik, captain of the basketball team.

A loving cup and victory figurines will be presented to the winner and her runnersup, Reynolds said.

The dance, sponsored annually by the Forestry Society, will be held from 9 p.m. to midnight March 13 in Recreation Hall. Jim Erb and the Penn State Blue Notes will provide the music.

Tickets for the semi-formal affair are $2 a couple and may be purchased at the Student Union desk in Old Main or from members of the Forestry Society.

300 Independents Visit Open Houses

Approximately 300 independent men and women attended the open houses sponsored jointly by the Association of Independent Men and Leonides in observance of National Independent Students' Association Week. Vivian Peterson, president of Leonides, said yesterday.

The open houses, held nightly in the women's dormitories, featured dancing and refreshments. They were the first step in the direction of a tentative policy of joint social affairs for independents, Miss Peterson said.

Sally McKnight served as general chairman of the project. Individual dormitory chairmen were Ethel Wilson, Joan Feehrer, Alice McKnight, Eleanor Robb, Patricia Dickinson, and Sarah Devita.

You Don't Have to be a Beaver to be Eager or ## Should virtue be its own reward?

Once there was a Junior who was, by nature, a Grasshopper, rather than an Ant. He devoted most of his time and energies to Social Pursuits, with correspondingly little emphasis on the Curriculum in the Catalogue. Consequently, while he was Right Up There socially, he had academically just about reached the Point of No Return.

Topping it off was an Ultimatum from the Male Parent, warning that on his next arrival home, he had better be accompanied, either by a List of Passing Grades or a Social Security Card. All Our Boy could see ahead was a lifetime at Hard Labor, unless Something Drastic happened.

So he made it happen. Invested heavily in benzdrine and black coffee and lined up three super-skull Tutors. Night and day he sweated it out. Made it, too! Wound up, if not with Flying Colors, at least with Respectable Grades. First thing he did, naturally, was to call Western Union and flash the Joyous Tidings homeward by telegram. Then he sat back and waited for the Reaction.

It came an hour later. A Telegraphic Money Order for $500, plus a message that read: "Delighted at your confounding the Prophets, including myself. Hope you will join me on two-month European trip, expenses paid, starting June 20th." Signed, POP.

Moral? When you've got good news to impart, strike while the Iron is Hot—by Telegram! It adds weight, as well as wings, to Your Words. In any kind of Communicue, from Date Talk to Dream Talk to Job Talk, you'll get farther, faster, when you use the Yellow Blank. Just call Western Union.
