

Scholarship Aid Stalin's Death -- Asked by 42

Forty-two applications had been picked up by Thursday at the Student Union desk for the three $50 scholarships being offered this spring by the Penn State Student Scholarship fund, according to Edgar Fehnel, chairman of the fund.

Most applications have already been turned back to the Student Union desk, Fehnel said. The deadline for returning the applications is noon Monday.

The scholarships are given to students who must work to remain in College and who have contributed to student activities. No date has yet been set for announcement of the recipients of the three scholarships.

pecially if there is a long political crisis in the Kremlin which interferes with delivery of supplies for China's Russian-begotten war with the United Nations. And especially if promised Western help arrives to put his country on its feet.

In such a situation, the time might be ripe for the Western world to strike boldly to see what can be done. All its concepts of proper attitudes toward non-Russian Communist governments may need to be shifted to the line adopted for Yugoslavia. Tito, of course, was first required to prove himself as anti-Soviet. This time the effort would have to begin nearer the bottom; to give the satellite leaders—or elements which might provide new leadership—a chance to prove themselves.

Lid on Mail Box Path to Diploma

Imagine getting your diploma from the College without eight o'clocks, dormitory regulations, and pop quizzes. The wonder can be achieved by correspondence courses.

Agriculture and home economics correspondence courses have just enrolled their 100,000th student—John Kresge, traffic manager of radio station KDKA.

Poulos on Dean's List

Milton Poulos, eighth semester electrical engineering major, was erroneously excluded from the fall semester dean's list of the Engineering school. His average was 2.64.

Choir To Sing
Dr. Bennett is the author of the books, "Christian Realism," "Christianity and Communism," and "Christian Ethics and Social Policy."

The Chapel Choir will sing as the call to worship "Bless the Lord, O My Soul" (Ippilov-Ivanov), and as anthem "Heavenly Light" (Kopylow-Wilhoucky). George Ceiga, organist, will play as prelude "Litanias Solenne In Modum Antiquum," as offertory "Pax Vobiscum In Modum Antiquum," and as postlude "Benedictus In Modum Antiquum," all by Edmundson.
