Debate Conclave to Hold Discrimination Discussion

Discrimination in employment and national defense will be discussed today by student legislators at the 18th annual Pennsylvania Debaters Convention and Mock Student Congress being held this weekend at the College.

Dr. Robert T. Oliver, head of the Speech department, will welcome delegates to the campus and convention at 9 a.m. today in the main banquet room of the State College Hotel.

AIM Votes Spring Week Participation

The Association of Independent Men Board of Governors voted to participate as a group in all activities of Spring Week at a meeting Tuesday night.

Previously the independent men had representation only from the various council groups, William Shifflett, AIM president, told the members. This year, he said, he hopes the independent men can help put the affair over and "make their presence felt."

To organize the group's participation, Shifflett named a Spring Week committee consisting of Andrew Jaros, chairman, Philip Philip Austin, and John Ball. He instructed them to enter a booth in the carnival, a He-Man contestant, and to support the other activities.

The AIM pin, which will be available to all independent men, was approved and will be put on sale in the near future. A motion to make it a substitute for the keys given annually to AIM executives was defeated. The plan would have given recognition to the officials by adding a special guard denoting their position to the pin.

The pin, which was designed by the L. G. Balfour Co., is triangular in shape with rounded sides and is black trimmed in gold. The letters AIM appear diagonally across its face in gold capitals.

The Board also agreed to sponsor Juan Avilla, a portrait sketcher, this spring. The artist will come to the College and do colored drawings of students while giving a percentage of his fees to AIM.

DA Announces Jean Christoff Almost Cleared

Jean Christoff, brother of strangulation victim and former coed June, has been "practically cleared" in the cloth belt-strangulation of his sister, District Attorney Frederick J. Fees announced Wednesday.

Official verdict of the death and definite clearance of Christoff could not be given until results of tests currently being run by the Federal Bureau of Investigation were received, Fees said.

Fees clarified earlier reports that autopsy performed on the girl indicated the death was due to strangulation. The death, he said, "could have been caused by strangulation." Other elements may have been present at the time of death, he said.

Cambria County detectives and state policeman were in State College Wednesday, Fees said, continuing the investigation. He said the deans of men and women and other persons connected with the case were contacted.

Christoff, 28-year-old combat veteran and former student at Carnegie Tech, has been committed to the Torrance State Hospital. He will undergo 90 days of observation, treatment, and diagnosis, Fees said. He was admitted to the hospital Wednesday.

An earlier mental examination reported Christoff mentally ill and in need of treatment. He is suffering from schizophrenia, the report said.

Auction Gavel To Fall on Used College Equipment

Wanna buy a lampshade, a rocking chair, meat grinder or washing machine?

All these—plus all sorts of farm, restaurant, office, and housing equipment—will be placed on the block and sold to the highest bidder Saturday at an auction sale of used college equipment.

The sale will be at the College Warehouses. The warehouses are north of the College stables. The stables are east of College Heights. College Heights is north of Agricultural Engineering. Agricultural Engineering is northeast of Old Main. But that is neither here nor there.

It is not known whether compasses will be sold at the sale.

The sale, starting at 8 a.m., is expected to last all day. Better depart Friday night.

Committees on the fair employment topic will meet at 11 p.m. in 4 Sparks and 16 Sparks. National defense committee members will meet in 111 Carnegie.

Afternoon Meetings Set
Joint committee meetings will be held at 8 tonight in 10 Sparks as a general assembly meeting of Congress and are open to the public, according to Thomas Farrell, men's debate manager and first vice president of the convention.

Delegates from Allegheny, Westminster, Slippery Rock, and the College women's team will reconvene at 2 p.m. in 228 Sparks and at 3 p.m. in 239 Sparks.

Representatives from Lehigh, Mt. Mercy, St. Vincent's and the College men's team will meet again at 2 p.m. in 107 Willard and at 3 p.m. in 237 Sparks.

To Choose 'Gavel Girl'
National defense committee members from Bucknell, Juniata, Duquesne, Geneva, and Albright will meet at 2 p.m. in 219 Willard and at 3 p.m. in 16 Sparks.

Three women delegates will be chosen to compete for the title "Miss Gavel Girl of 1953" at the banquet at 6 p.m. at the State College Hotel. Nominees must deliver a five minute talk on "Woman: What Is Her Place?" The winner will be selected by ballot on the basis of her intelligence, personal charm, and contributions to the convention.

Guyla Woodward, Susan Holtzinger, Patricia Marsteller, Jane Montgomery, Audrey Austin, and Barbara Tokarsky will represent the College women's team at the legislative meetings.

Delegates from the men's team are Philip Greenberg, Burton Treister, James Dunlap, Ernest Schonberger, Donald Pripstein, and Lewis Martini.

Asman to Speak

A. W. Asman, associate professor of mining engineering, will speak to the Mineral Economics Seminar at 4 p.m. today. His talk on the mining of iron ores will be given in 225 Mineral Industries.
