

Griffith, Hogeland to Vie For Leonides Presidency

Voting for officers of Leonides, independent women's organization, will take place from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. today in all women's dormitories except Grange, Elinor Voyvodich, elections chairman, has announced.

Town students may cast their ballots in McAllister Hall. All independent women are eligible to vote.

Qualifications of the candidates will be placed at the polls along with their pictures. This will be the first time for a women's governing body to announce qualifications at the voting stations.

To Represent Council at NISA
Phyllis Griffith and Hilda Hogeland are candidates for president. Both women have served on Leonides Council for at least one year.

Candidates for vice president are Ruth Israel and Sarah Devita. The newly-elected president and vice-president will represent the Council at the National Independent Students Association Convention at Purdue University April 22-25.

Installation Tomorrow

Shirley Pritchard, Doris Longwill, and Myrtle Thomas are candidates for recording secretary. Competing for the position of corresponding secretary are Sherry Kofmann, Theresa Hess, and Jeanne Maxwell. Candidates for treasurer are Althea Rector, Susan Crumley, and Virginia Bowman.

Vivian Peterson, outgoing president, will install the new officers at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow. They will be honored April 26 at a banquet to be held jointly with the officers of the Association of Independent Men.

Assisting Miss Voyvodich on the elections committee are Ethel Wilson, Luella Heineman, Barbara Easter, Eleanor Robb, Carolyn Malsch, and Barbara Richards.

Seminary to Hold Conclave in April

The Chicago Theological Seminary will be host to the fourth annual Spring Church Vocation Conference, April 24-26.

The conference is open to college men who have shown either some interest in religion or some aptitude for the ministry or its related professions.

The purpose of the conference is to provide students the opportunity to confront contemporary issues from a theological viewpoint and to see experimental programs of the church at work in a metropolitan situation.

Further information can be obtained from Luther H. Harshbarger, chaplain, 304 Old Main.

WSGA Senate to Name 4 Judicial Members

Four sophomore women will be appointed to Judicial board at a meeting of Women's Student Government Association Senate at 6:30 tonight in White Hall. Senate will also appoint members of the WSGA freshman regulations board.

Discussion of the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students convention at Ohio State University will be heard. Plans for spring convocation and for WSGA retreat will be announced.

Three New Officers Elected by Panhel

Panhellenic Council elected three women to council offices last night. Roseann Monack was chosen recording secretary, Joan Levinson corresponding secretary, and Janet Carstensen treasurer. New officers will be installed April 13 at the Panhel-Interfraternity Council banquet.

Washington Project Set For Summer

The Washington Student Citizenship Seminar, a work-lecture-discussion project sponsored by the National Student Council of the YMCA and YWCA, will be held in Washington, D.C., June 23 to August 31.

The seminar has been organized to give students holding temporary jobs in federal agencies the opportunity to learn about government from distinguished officials in the capital.

The program will include dinner meetings, when students will hear and talk with government officials from Congress, major national organizations, the press, churches, synagogues, field trips to points of historical interest, hosteling trips, concerts, and plays.

College juniors and seniors of all races and creeds who have some background and interest in political science and who can qualify for Civil Service appointments, are eligible for the seminar.

Most job openings are those of stenographers and typists. A limited number of clerical positions are available. The jobs pay about $50 a week.

Seminar fees amount to $57. Living expenses are comparable to those on campus.

Further information can be obtained from Miss Jimmie Woodward, seminar coordinator, 600 Lexington Ave., New York 22, N.Y.
