Association scholarship were also honored.

Gerald Van Zyverden was presented the Alpha Zeta Scholarship cup awarded to the sophomore with the highest average at the end of his third semester. Van Zyverden has a 3. all-College average.

Dr. John B. Haggerty, former director of the Office of Foreign Relations U.S. Department of Agriculture, was the speaker.

Mr. Ag was an agriculture senior selected on the basis of activities by a faculty committee composed of representatives from each department in the School of Agriculture. He was presented an engraved gold loving cup.

Wolff's activities include membership in Coaly Society, Agriculture Student Council, Dairy Judging team, Dairy Science Club, Block and Bridle Club, 4-H Club, and Skull and Bones hat society.

He was treasurer of Alpha Gamma Rho, editor of the Penn State Farmer and the Penn State Dairyman, committee member for the Ag Hill Party and the Harvest Ball, and recipient of the Sears Roebuck scholarship. He has an all-College average of 2.1.

The speech contest winners were selected from five students in the finals Tuesday night. Fehnel spoke on "How to Get a Start in Farming" and Hart discussed the "Future of Vegetable Products in the Dairy Industry."

The awards, to be presented annually, were provided by Mrs. Paul R. Guldin in a $5000 memorial fund.

Paul H. Margolf, professor of poultry husbandry, and William Waters, Coaly Society president, were masters of ceremonies.

They introduced the show managers; members of the judging teams; student council officers and committee chairman; presidents of the four agriculture fraternities, agriculture departmental honoraries; and editors of the Ag Hill Breeze and the Penn State Farmer.

In his address, Dr. Haggerty cited international communism as the major problem facing youth when they graduate. He said, "The chief weapon against communism at home and abroad is democracy."

Dr. Lyman E. Jackson, dean of the School of Agriculture, and Dr. Russell B. Dickerson, vice dean of the school, also spoke.

The campus queen has dates galore,
A new one every night;
But Luckies are her steady smoke—
Their taste is always right!

Diana Yates
University of Washington

Nothing-no, nothing-beats better taste and LUCKIES
TASTE BETTER!
Cleaner, Fresher, Smoother!

Ask yourself this question: Why do I smoke?
You know, yourself, you smoke for enjoyment. And you get enjoyment only from the taste of a cigarette.

Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother! Why? Luckies are made better to taste better. And, what's more, Luckies are made of fine tobacco. L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike Means Fine Tobacco.

So, for the thing you want most in a cigarette... for better taste—for the cleaner, fresher, smoother taste of Lucky Strike...

Be Happy—GO LUCKY!

So round, so firm, so fully packed—
They're really better-tastin';
So reach right up for Lucky Strike—
Hop to it, time's awastin'!

Richard J. Drasher
Drexel Institute of Technology

COLLEGE STUDENTS PREFER LUCKIES IN NATION-WIDE SURVEY!
Nation-wide survey based on actual student interviews in 80 leading colleges reveals more smokers prefer Luckies than any other cigarette by a wide margin. No. 1 reason—Luckies' better taste. Survey also shows Lucky Strike gained far more smokers in these colleges than the nation's two other principal brands combined.

When nerves are frayed and tempers short
From books and everything—
Just smoke a soothing Lucky Strike
To get back in the swing!
