

4 Sing Finalists To Be Selected

Four finalists for the Interfraternity Council Panhellenic Council Sing will be announced tonight after the second set of preliminaries are completed, Allan Schneirov, fraternity chairman of the sing, announced yesterday. Two fraternities and two sororities will enter the final competition Sunday.

Two honorable mention singing groups will also be announced tonight, Schneirov said. The finals will be held 8 p.m. Sunday in the State College High School auditorium.

Available Cash May Rule Fate Of Pa. Ed TV

Available funds will decide the fate of legislation before the state Senate to provide for the state operation of educational television stations, according to the Associated Press.

Four bills to authorize state construction of educational TV stations and to appropriate $850,000 for maintenance were introduced yesterday by Sen. Paul L. Wagner (R-Schuylkill). He warned that the state has only until June 2 to accept the offer made by the Federal Communications Commission to provide four TV channels in the state for educational purposes.

Direction and administration of the stations would be placed in the hands of the Department of Public Instruction. The General State Authority would be empowered to finance the construction of the stations.

Guild to Give Fifth Broadcast

The fifth in the Radio Guild series "Ludlow and Myrtle" will be broadcast at 7:45 tonight over WMAJ with Ludlow set to take over the presidency of the United States.

Arthur Simm will portray Ludlow, a tenth semester junior who just can't get along without his girl, Myrtle, played by Emily Snyder. Jack Lieberman will enact the parts of both Ludlow's roommate and Professor Umlatt. Craig Sanders will narrate and take the part of the old man. Ira Apple will play Mr. Gundelsinger, with Joseph Galen cast as Professor Caucus.

Voices will be Charles Folkers, Ira Apple, and Sandra Greenspun. Director is Allen Klein, assisted by Doris Berkowitz. John Citron, who plays the sheriff, is Klein's collaborator on the script. The script was written by John Citron and Allen Klein.

Animal Judging Contest To Be Held Tomorrow

The annual Livestock Judging Contest sponsored by the Block and Bridle Club will be held at 12:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Livestock Judging Pavilion.

Eight classes, each with an amateur and professional division, will be judged. Any student may participate in the amateur class. A 25 cent entrance fee will be charged. Trophies will be awarded to the winners.

Blue Band To Present Concert

James W. Dunlop To direct concert

The annual spring concert by the Penn State Concert Blue Band, directed by James W. Dunlop, assistant professor of music education, will be presented at 3 p.m. Sunday in Schwab Auditorium.

The program, which is open to the public, will include 14 selections by the band and a cornet trio. Marches, classics, light classical numbers, and American folk songs are among the selections to be offered.

To open the concert the band will play "The National Anthem" followed by the "Emblem of" (Continued on page eight)

The first set of preliminaries were held last night. About 35 groups will have entered the competition by tonight. Sorority chairman of the sing is Anna Mae Webb.

4 Ribbons to Be Given

Posters which have been entered in the Greek Week poster contest will be judged Saturday afternoon, Richard Gibbs, Greek Week chairman, said yesterday. The posters—on the theme of the week "The Greeks and the Community"—have been placed in downtown windows for display. A winning sorority and a winning fraternity will receive cups for their posters.

Four prize ribbons will be given to second and third place winners—two to sororities and two to fraternities, Gibbs said. Judges for the poster contest are Andrew Case and Yar Chomicky of the art department and two town merchants, Charles Schlow and R. W. Yeagley. Gibbs estimated that about 35 posters had been entered.

Project Heads Named

A parade beginning at 1 p.m. tomorrow from Simmons Hall and traveling to the borough fire house will set off more than three hours of work projects as a part of (Continued on page eight)

Forum to Discuss 'Solution in Korea'

Dr. Robert T. Oliver and Dr. Channing Liem, specialists on Korean affairs, will discuss the topic "Solution in Korea" at a public forum at 8 p.m. Tuesday in 10 Sparks. The forum is sponsored by the International Relations Club.

Dr. Oliver, appointed in 1949 as professor and head of the Speech department, is an organizer and member of the board of directors of the American-Korean Foundations. He was called to serve as an adviser to Dr. Syngman Rhee, president of the Republic of Korea, in June, 1951, and in November, 1952, after serving a similar capacity in the spring of 1949.

Before joining the College faculty, Dr. Oliver was Washington bureau manager of the Korean Pacific Press. He continued with the Press as a consultant until 1953.

Dr. Oliver's other work connected with Korean affairs was that of counselor to the Korean Commission and adviser to Korean delegations to the United Nations. He also served on the faculty of the University of Korea in Seoul in 1946 and lectured at the Asia Institute in New York in 1948.

Dr. Channing Liem, chairman of the Political Science department at the Pennsylvania College for Women in Pittsburgh since 1949, came to the United States in 1930. He is a native of Korea but an American citizen.

Secretary and a trustee of the American Foundation for Korean Education, which sponsors advanced education in America for Korean scholars, Dr. Liem also has directed the Korean Church and Institute in New York for five years and taught at Princeton University for three years.

The most recent of Dr. Oliver's 13 books is "Verdict in Korea," published by the Bald Eagle Press. Dr. Oliver is also author of newspaper and magazine articles on speech and Korea.

Political Campaigns To Start Tomorrow

Campus politicians seeking office in the coming spring elections will begin a grueling 11-day campaign when the starting gun sets off campus political activity at 8 a.m. tomorrow.

Campaigning will end at 8 a.m. April 22, the first day of voting. Elections will be held April 22 and 23 in the second floor lounge of Old Main.

Both Lion and State parties have scheduled activities for tomorrow. A jazz concert featuring "Dixie" jazz music will be sponsored by the Lion Party from 2 to 4 p.m. in Schwab Auditorium. Cost of tickets, available at the Student Union desk in Old Main, is 50 cents each.

State Party will hold a mixer at 9 p.m. tomorrow at Sigma Chi fraternity. After entertainment, refreshments will be served. The meeting will be open to all students.

According to Myron Enelow, State Party chairman, State Party candidates will begin visits to dormitory living and dining units Sunday. Candidates of both parties will begin concentrated activity Monday when they visit both dormitory and fraternity living units. The candidates will speak on party platform planks at meal times in the units.

Lion Party chairman Richard Kirschner and Enelow said posters and printed material to be used by the parties in the campaign are being printed.

Candidates will seek All-College positions of president, vice president and secretary-treasurer. Posts in the junior and senior classes will also be sought by campaigning politicians. All regular students at the College may vote for All-College officers. Only fifth and sixth semester students may vote for senior class officers, and only third and fourth semester students may vote for junior class officers.

Ag Ed Profs Attend Meeting In New York

Four members of the Agricultural Education department are attending the North Atlantic regional conference of teacher-trainers and supervisors in agricultural education in New York this week.

Dr. Henry S. Brunner, head of the department and chairman of the national committee on research in agricultural education, will report on several research projects.

Dr. Glenn Z. Stevens, associate professor of agricultural education, will head the session of the conference discussing the growth and development of vocational education in agriculture.

Dr. David R. McClay, associate professor in agricultural education, will present a paper on new ideas in facilities for high school departments of vocational agriculture. Norman K. Hoover, instructor in agricultural education, will discuss production goals for livestock and crop projects in vocational agriculture.

Athletic Award Is Established

An athletic scholarship fund honoring the late Allen M. Pearce of Clearfield has been established. President Milton S. Eisenhower has announced.

The fund, established by Allen E. Pearce of Lancaster and Louis N. Pearce of Kankakee, Ill., both graduates of the College and sons of the late Mr. Pearce, will pay the college fees for one year for each student granted the award.

Recipients of the award will be male students who fulfill the academic requirements of the College and who have demonstrated skill in athletics. They must have qualifications for leadership and show financial need. Preference will be given to residents of Clearfield or Centre counties.

Cast Ticket Deadline Set

Members of Masquerettes and the cast of "Roberta" must pick up complimentary and reserved seat tickets for the Thespian production before noon Saturday, according to Moylan Mills, administrative assistant.

Glee Club to Give Concert Tonight

The Penn State Glee Club will present the program for its spring concert and 1953 tour at 8 p.m. tonight in the Bellefonte High School auditorium.

The Glee Club, directed by Frank Gullo, will present its concert at 3 p.m. April 19 in Schwab Auditorium.

The Bellefonte concert is being presented by the Pleasant Gap and Bellefonte Rotary clubs for the benefit of underprivileged and crippled children. Tickets for the program will be sold at the box office before the performance.

Young GOP's to Meet

The Penn State Young Republican Club will be host to the first annual meeting of the Centre County Young Republican Club at 8 tonight in 202 Willard.

Spring Has Arrived

And during Spring with its warm sunshiny days Vic extends his invitation to drop in and see him at Vic's Place. Vic has all of the deliciously flavored ice cream that makes the warm days more pleasant. You can take your choice with you or eat it in the congenial atmosphere of Vic's.

Make Vic's your regular stopping place for snacks these Spring days.

Vic's

145 S. ALLEN ST.

Today! WARNER theatres

Cathoum

ALAN LADD
RICHARD CONTE
ARLENE DAHL
"DESERT SONG"

State

ROSALIND RUSSELL
PAUL DOUGLAS
MARIE WILSON
Never Wave at a Wave

Nitty

HENRY FONDA
LINDA DARNELL
"MY DARLING CLEMENTINE"

First National Bank

OF STATE COLLEGE

a member of

Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

Federal Reserve System