

N.Y. Architect to Give Design Lecture Monday

John C. B. Moore, New York architect, will speak at 8 p.m. Monday in 121 Sparks on "From Pillar to Post—Principles of Architectural Design." His lecture is the third in the current Simmons Series sponsored by the German department.

After being graduated from Harvard College, Moore served overseas in the American Ambulance and U.S. forces during World War I. He received his professional training at the Ecole des Beaux Arts in Paris where he earned his diploma in 1927.

Army Riflemen Win 2 Meets

The Penn State Army ROTC Rifle Team posted two wins in recent shoulder to shoulder competition, defeating the Penn State Air Force ROTC Rifle Team, 1392-1307, and the Bucknell Army ROTC Rifle Team, 1382-1244.

Charles Hayes led the Army shooters with a score of 283 and was followed by John Thalimer (281), Donald Greth (276), Richard Moorhead (275), and John Scheerer (275). Robert Hess led the Air Force with a 280 followed by Donald Plasterer (272), David Overmire (269), Donald Shoemaker (251), and Charles Miller (235).

John Thalimer led the State team against Bucknell with a 287 and was followed by Moorhead (277), John Ifft (274), Hayes (273), and Scheerer (271). Drummond led Bucknell with a 265.

The twin victories enabled the ROTC squad to post a win-loss record of ten and one in shoulder to shoulder intercollegiate competition.

Sing Finalists--

(Continued from page two) Greek Week. About 1000 fraternity and sorority students will clean up State College parks and playgrounds, work at the Tussey Ridge girl scout camp, record town traffic signs, and perform other civic duties.

Co-chairmen of the projects are Eleanor Horvitz and John Flanagan.

The IFC-Panhel spring banquet will be held at 6 p.m. Monday at the Nittany Lion Inn. Speaker for the banquet will be Herbert L. Brown of Drexel Hill, secretary of the national IFC. Co-chairmen for the banquet are Carolyn App and William O'Malley.

A Greek Week booklet, edited by Bettie Loux and David Jones, will be distributed to fraternities, dormitories, and other points today and tomorrow, according to booklet circulation chairman Vincent Drayne.

OPEN TO SENIORS ONLY...

There's a letter to all Seniors on its way in the mail now explaining how you can halve at least one item in your future cost of living. It has nothing to do with inflation, nothing to do with taxes—but it does point out that a TIME subscription today will cost you just half the price that Old Grads normally pay.

The secret, of course, is timing. For today you can still qualify for the Special Student Rate which brings you 52 issues of TIME for less than six cents a copy.* But once you have that degree—you're fair game for the regular rates.

It's an open secret, too, that we'd like to have you as subscribers—now and in the future. And if we make it easy for you now, we think you'll get into the habit of wanting TIME around the house.

So if you're going to read TIME anyway (and most college graduates do**), why not subtract $3 from the cost of your "news-education" and place your order now?

All you need do is keep your eyes peeled for that letter and return the card enclosed. Or if you'd like to get the jump on the postman, place your order today with your campus TIME representative or the college bookstore. You pay for it later when we bill you—at $3 per year instead of the usual $6.

—And you don't need a graduate degree in finance to see that this offer makes sense.

to be practical

An adventure in good reporting, good reading

* It's hard to figure a way to stretch six cents farther than across the world and back in TIME's 23 chapters, some of which you see spelled out around this ad.

** Today 78% of all TIME readers are college-trained. And incidentally, '52 graduates recently voted TIME "the most important magazine" and their own first-choice.
