

Women to Vote For May Court

Voting stations in the main lounges of all women's dormitories will be open from 10:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesday for the primary elections of the May Queen and her court.

Town students and people in the home-management houses may vote in McAllister Hall.

Matrix Dinner Reservations Close Tuesday

Reservations for the Matrix Dinner, which will honor outstanding upperclasswomen, may be made at the Student Union desk in Old Main until noon Tuesday.

The dinner, sponsored annually by Theta Sigma Phi, honorary and professional fraternity for women in journalism, will be held at 6:15 p.m. April 20 at the Nittany Lion Inn. Approximately 160 women have been invited to attend. Tickets for the dinner are priced at $2.75.

Nine pledges were initiated into Theta Sigma Phi Thursday night. They are Nancy Gemmill, Janice Robbins, Irene Taylor, Margaret Trolier, Mary Jameson, Barbara Baker, Virginia A. Bowman, Jeanne Pepper, and Ilene McKenzie.

Recently elected officers of the fraternity are Miss Gemmill, president; Grace Davis, vice president; Miss Bowman, treasurer; Miss Trolier, corresponding secretary; Miss Jameson, recording secretary; Eliza Newell, Matrix milestone chairman; and Evelyn Kielar, keeper of the archives.

Library Offers 2 Atom Films

Two recently released motion pictures on atomic energy will be available at the Audio-Visual Aids Library this month.

"The Atom and Industry," produced by Encyclopedia Britannica Films in collaboration with the Institute of Nuclear Studies of the University of Chicago, will be here until next Friday.

"The Atom and Medicine," produced by the School of Medicine and the division of biological sciences of the university, will be available April 20 to May 1.

Each film is about 20 minutes long. Faculty members may make arrangements for screening the films by calling the Audio-Visual Aids Library.

Fishburn to Lead Area Headquarters

Staff officers for the newly designed Area C Headquarters were elected recently by the Harry Armstrong Squadron of the Penn State Arnold Air Society.

Elected to the posts were Cadet Lt. Col. David Fishburn, area commander; Cadet Major David Ericson, executive officer; Cadet Capt. Harry Solomon, operations officer; Cadet Capt. Eugene Nepa, adjutant recorder; Cadet Capt. John Corenti, comptroller; and Cadet Capt. Mark Christ, public information officer.

Three to Participate in Fireside Panel

A panel of three will discuss "The Meaning of Prayer and Ritual" as part of the series of fireside discussions on religion at 8 p.m. Monday at the Hillel Foundation.

Dr. E. H. Freud, associate professor of philosophy; Dr. George M. Lott, College psychiatrist, and Rabbi Benjamin M. Kahn, director of the foundation, will participate.

Short Course to Open

A short course in artificial breeding will open Monday at the College. The specialized course is scheduled to end next Saturday.

STATIONERY
FRATERNITY FORMS
★
COMMERCIAL PRINTING
Pugh & Beaver State College

Home Ec Panel Will Discuss Miracle Fibers

A panel of laymen and experts in the textiles field will discuss problems presented by the new miracle fibers as one of the highlights of the Home Economics Spring Weekend to be held April 17-18.

The panel, moderated by Dr. Ruth Ayres, professor and head of the Department of Clothing and Textiles, will be held Friday afternoon.

Another feature of the two-day program will be a fashion show Saturday afternoon at which imported clothing, the creations of designers, including Jacques Fath and Christian Dior, as well as clothing made by home economics students, will be presented.

Lectures, exhibits, and demonstrations will round out the program which has for its theme, "Textiles in a Charming World." It is expected to attract persons in the textiles field as well as homemakers, professional home economists, and high school students interested in home economics.

Vaccinations Available

Smallpox vaccinations will be available to the children of student veterans at 9 a.m. May 1 in the Community Hall, Winderest. A doctor from the College Health Service will administer the vaccinations.

Insurance Training Offered Seniors

Seniors planning to enter the insurance field will have an opportunity to obtain specialized training by enrolling in a four weeks' Insurance Institute to be conducted by the University of Rhode Island extension division from June 15 to July 10 at Kingston, R.I.

The course is to provide a professional program of intensive study in all fields of insurance except life insurance. George E. Lonergan, superintendent of the education department of Employers Group Insurance Companies of Boston will be the instructor.

Registration information may be obtained from the office of the Division of University Extension, 25 Park Street, Providence 8, R.I.

Von Wolfradt Elected To ASAE Presidency

Carl Von Wolfradt, sixth semester agricultural engineering major, has been elected president of the Penn State student branch of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers.

Other officers elected are Robert Weaver, vice president; Max Demiwovich, secretary treasurer; Daniel Van Dyne, scribe; Roger Risser, Agriculture Student Council representative; and Mark Shaw, Engineering Student Council representative.

Seminar to Hear Sirkin

Maurice Sirkin, graduate student in engineering mechanics, will address the Engineering Mechanics Seminar at 4 p.m. Monday in 207 Engineering A. His topic will concern "Creep Formations."

Lion Party
JAZZ CONCERT
TODAY - 2 P.M.
Schwab Aud.

Matrix Skit Practice

Practice for the Theta Sigma Phi Matrix Dinner skit will be held at 10 a.m. today in the Simmons Hall initiation room instead of the Grange playroom as previously announced.

Religion--

Baptists Will Visit Bucknell Fellowship

Members of Roger Williams Fellowship will be the guests of the Baptist Student Fellowship at Bucknell University tomorrow. The local group will conduct a worship service there at the First Baptist Church of Lewisburg. Kenneth Hall will relate stories of famous hymns at the service.

To those who are unable to attend the Bucknell visit, Dr. Wilbur Spencer Sheriff, guest minister, will speak on "Humiliation by Christ" at 7:45 p.m. tomorrow. Dr. Spencer will also speak each evening except Saturday next week in a spiritual life mission.

Co-Edits

Kappa Kappa Gamma

Seven members of Kappa Kappa Gamma were among 2000 students attending "College Week" in Bermuda. They were Marilyn Porter, Nancy McCrady, Phoebe Erickson, Ann Jones, Iris Owen, Barbara Norton, and Alice Williamson.

Alpha Chi Sigma

Alpha Chi Sigma recently initiated James Angstadt, Lyle Barnard, Lynwood Boyer, Clarke David, Lorin Gardner, Kenneth Kresge, Charles McNeillie, Charles Larson, William Wagner, and Donald Wise.

Kappa Alpha Theta

The members of Kappa Alpha Theta were recently entertained by Delta Tau Delta at a spaghetti dinner. The sisters presented games and skits.

Penn Haven Club

The Penn Haven Club recently entertained Kappa Delta. The program included skits, dancing, and refreshments.

Phi Epsilon Pi

Phi Epsilon Pi recently entertained Kappa Alpha Theta at the fraternity house.

Engagements

Morton-Heimberger

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Heimberger of Saltsburg announce the engagement of their daughter, Betty, to Thomas Morton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Morton of Philadelphia.

Miss Heimberger was graduated from the College in education in January, 1951.

Mr. Morton will be graduated in June in engineering. He served with the U.S. Army and is a member of Theta Chi.

Shively-Nash

Mr. and Mrs. A. Luther Nash of Doylestown announce the engagement of their daughter, Audrey, to Richard Shively, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Shively of Doylestown.

Miss Nash is a junior in home economics and a member of Alpha Chi Omega.

Mr. Shively is a junior in liberal arts and a member of Sigma Pi.

Fehnel-Wiltbank

Dr. and Mrs. Robert C. Wiltbank of Havertown announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy, to Edgar Fehnel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roscol A. Fehnel of Nazareth.

Miss Wiltbank is a fourth semester home economics major and a member of Alpha Xi Delta.

Mr. Fehnel is a sixth semester animal husbandry major and a member of Alpha Zeta.

Greenberg-Kahn

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kahn of Windmere, Long Island, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marjorie, to Richard Martin Greenberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Greenberg of Rockville Centre, Long Island.

Miss Kahn is an eighth semester Spanish major. Mr. Greenberg, an Ohio State graduate of 1949 in business administration, is a member of Alpha Epsilon Pi.

'City' Art Display Open in McElwain

"The City," an exhibition of oil paintings and water colors by Americans and Europeans, may be viewed in the lounges of McElwain Hall until April 21.

The exhibit was assembled by the Museum of Modern Art in New York and brought to the College by the division of fine and applied arts and the Department of Architecture.

Included in the exhibit are city scenes by Chagall, de Chirico, Klee, Mondrian, Stuart Davis, Feininger, Marin, Edward Hopper, Shahn, John Sloan, and others.

Paintings by two of the men, Davis and Sloan, are represented in the permanent collection of the College in the second floor lounge of Old Main.

Mississippi River Film

"The River," a film about the Mississippi River, will be shown at the Future Farmers of America meeting at 7:30 p.m. Monday in 102 Agriculture.

Campus capers call for Coke

Win the race, bag the trophy, and dunk the coxswain... then ease up and enjoy the pause that refreshes with delicious, ice-cold Coca-Cola.

DRINK Coca-Cola

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY The Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Altoona

"Coke" is a registered trade-mark.

© 1953, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY