

Lions Might Lose Sax for Penn Relays

Ollie Sax, Lion track sensation of the winter season, probably will not be able to compete in the Penn Relays, April 24-25, Chick Werner, Nittany track mentor, said yesterday.

He seriously injured his left ankle in a tumbling class several weeks ago, and it has prevented him from getting into shape for the spring schedule.

Without Sax the Lions may not be able to enter a mile relay team and possibly any medley team.

Commenting on the progress of the team, Werner said that his crew is so far behind in conditioning that he still can't tell who'll represent the Lions in the Penn Relays. Werner pointed to the weather as the factor that has been hindering the thinclads. He said that he couldn't recall ever being so handicapped before the Relays as he is this year.

Bill Kilmer, another member of the Nittany mile relay quartet during the winter, is also on the injured list. He has broken bones in both his feet.

Despite the bad breaks that have been confronting Werner, he has been able to find solace in the performances of Co-captain Jim Herb and freshman Art Polard.

Herb, the stellar high jumper, has cleared the bar at 6-4 already this spring. Werner has been pleased with his condition. Polard, who is ineligible this season because of the NCAA ruling barring freshmen from varsity competition, turned in a sizzling 220-yard time of 21.1 on Saturday. He was clocked at 9.5 as he passed the 100 yard mark. The Coatesville Comet had a little tail wind to help him, but he had to contend with a soggy track.

Time trials will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday, Werner emphatically said, "come rain, snow, or shine." On the basis of these trials he will have to select those who will compete for his squad in the Relays.

The freshmen tracksters will perform in telegraphic meets. Assistant track Coach Norm Gordon said yesterday that only one other freshman team has definitely been lined up so far—Penn, May 9. Gordon said he has sent letters to Navy, Pitt, Michigan, Michigan State, and Ohio State in an effort to schedule more meets.

IM Tennis, Soccer, Golf Entry Deadline

Entry deadlines for intramural golf, tennis doubles, and soccer have been scheduled for Tuesday, Dutch Sykes, assistant director of intramurals, announced.

A campus organization may enter one team in each sport. Golf and tennis matches are to be arranged between the contestants within a schedule of dates. Tennis and golf champions will be determined by single elimination, while the top soccer squad must survive a round robin test. The golf and tennis teams will be responsible for contacting one another in order to set playing dates.

Entry fees for the IM sports are $1 for golf and soccer, 50 cents for each tennis team.

Twelve Squads Win In IM Volleyball

Intramural independent volleyball advanced further toward the season's end with 12 contests at Rec Hall Tuesday evening.

Emanon clipped the Jaybirds' wings without undue trouble, 15-7, 15-9. The victory was the third in as many tries for the Emanon squad in league B.

Also in B league the NROTC Baker squad was submerged by a Nittany Co-op A team. The contest was decided in two sets, 15-10, 15-12.

The Engineers were featured in one of the two three set contests of the night, taking that long to affirm their superiority over a hard fighting Watts What team. After a comparatively easy initial victory, the Engineers ran into trouble in the second set, but pulled it out of the fire with the rubber victory, 15-6, 11-15, 15-13.

Knights Win

In league A the Rockets blasted Dorm 31 for their third win of the season, making it a perfect slate thus far. The losers were ineffective in action and allowed the Rocketmen two easy sets, 15-6, 15-4.

In the same league the Ergs, looking for their first win of the year, allowed the Knights to make the future look even darker for them by a 15-4, 15-6, trimming.

Beaver House A team clamped the lid on Dorm 1's representatives at the other side of the net, 15-13, 15-7.

GFO volleyball team had little trouble with Penn Haven after a close first set 15-13. Second set ended 15-8.

Goosers Rebound

The Lymacs were no unsolvable riddle to the East 39 squad. The game was polished off in short order as East 39 posted 15-4 and 15-10 scores, also in C league.

The Goosers went wild after taking a first set loss applied by the Gilmorians and then went on to win the next two sets by ample margins. The scores posted under the league D leading were 11-15, 15-7, 15-11.

The Abstracts outguessed and outplayed the State Club team 15-6, 15-6, again in league D.

The only two forfeits of the night were the Fireballs to the Hep Cats in league D and the B Level gift to NROTC Able in league C.

Rogel Back Again

Fran Rogel, erstwhile Penn State hero and now the property of the professional Pittsburgh Steelers, is back at his alma mater in the role of special student. He's seeking certification as a high school teacher in order to be eligible for a teaching-coaching job when he completes his pro football career. He recently completed his Army tour of duty.

Jeffrey In Rico

Soccer enthusiasts from Venezuela, Costa Rica, and Columbia are numbered among the candidates for Bill Jeffrey's first soccer team at the University of Puerto Rico. Jeffrey, veteran Penn State coach, was granted a five-month leave to accept a teaching-coaching assignment at the island university.

Baseball Team Takes to Road

The Penn State baseball team, winner in its first three games, embarks today on a two-game road trip which will carry the Lions into action against Lafayette and Rutgers.

Tomorrow the Bedenkmen invade Easton, where Lafayette is expected to field a strong club. The Lions shut out the Maroon last year at Beaver Field, 5-0. Bedenk is expected to start right handed Garland Gingerich.

Gingerich, who picked up his first win of the season against Villanova, will be going to the hill as a starter for the first time this season. Against the Wildcats, he relieved starter Larry Bayer and pitched six innings of no-hit ball.

Weaver to Start

Catcher Bill Leonard will be back at that position tomorrow. Leonard sat out the Western Maryland game in favor of sophomore Art Cusick. Southpaw Don Shank, who has been Bedenk's regular first baseman, injured his knee in the Western Maryland contest and will be unable to play. Pat Kennedy, who saw limited action in the Terrier game, will be at the initial sack.

The only other lineup change is at right field, where Tom Werner will get the nod. Werner started the season in left, but was shifted to right Wednesday.

The rest of the Nittany lineup will remain intact, with Chuck Russo at second base, Ron Weidenhammer at shortstop, and Hubie Kline rounding out the infield at third. In the outfield Rex Bradley will be in left and Captain Sil Cerchie will patrol the center field gardens.

Righthanded Relievers

Keith Vesling, with two wins under his belt already, will do the Lion pitching chores Saturday against Rutgers. Vesling will be making his second start of the campaign, one of his victories coming in relief against Western Maryland. His first win came against Lehigh when he pitched a neat six hitter. He is the only Lion hurler to go the distance thus far.

Bedenk is expecting to have Jack Krumrine, Larry Bayer, Jerry Troy, and John Wolfinger—all right handers—ready for relief roles if needed.

Should the Lions be as sharp at the plate as they were against Western Maryland, they shouldn't have too much trouble against the two ball clubs. However, both are reputed to be strong teams, boasting some top-flight pitching.

Watching his squad go through batting practice yesterday, Bedenk pointed out that with only three games played there are still a lot of wrinkles to be ironed out.

Sports Briefs

MacPhail Has Cancer

BALTIMORE, (AP) — Larry MacPhail, dynamic sports promoter facing trouble with police and racing officials for his outspoken manner, was reported to be suffering from the dread disease of cancer.

Charles Teery, manager of MacPhail's cattle and thoroughbred breeding farm at Bel Air, Md., said his 63-year-old boss has cancer of the throat.

Teery said MacPhail had consulted with Dr. James Moore in New York City yesterday and been ordered not to talk for two weeks. No information was available on the stage of the disease or whether surgery will be required.

Two Boxers Lose

PARIS, (AP) — Two Americans dropped decisions at the Palais des Sports last night when Claude Milazzo of France outpointed Norman Hayes of Boston in a middleweight fight and Henry "Pappy" Gault, Spartansburg, S.C. bantamweight, was beaten by Robert Cohen of Algeria.

Both were 10-round scraps. Hayes weighed 162 pounds but had to sweat out two pounds after the official weigh-in in order to make the contract poundage. Milazzo tipped the scales at 160.

Rocky Ready To Go

CHICAGO, (AP) — Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano, slated to defend his title May 15 in Chicago against Jersey Joe Walcott in a bout once postponed, was pronounced physically fit today but cautioned to postpone boxing until Tuesday.

Marciano originally had been scheduled to meet Walcott at the Chicago Stadium April 10 but the fight was postponed because of a nose injury the heavyweight champion suffered in training.
