

Glee Club, Band To Start Tours

The Penn State Concert Blue Band and the Men's Glee Club will leave Monday on their annual spring tours through Pennsylvania and New York.

The Varsity Quartet and the Hy-Los will perform with the Glee Club, which opens its week-long series of concerts in York.

The 50-voice group will perform Tuesday in Reading and continue to Allentown, New York City, and Philadelphia.

The group's appearance will be sponsored by the Penn State alumni clubs in the locality where it performs.

The Concert Blue Band's two day tour will open at 8 p.m. in Connellsville. Three concerts will be given Tuesday. The group will perform at Irwin at 10:15 a.m., Turtle Creek at 1 p.m., and Uniontown at 8 p.m.

Counselor Applications Deadline Extended

The deadline for submitting applications for counselor positions during Orientation Week has been extended to 5 p.m. Monday, Michael Jordan, orientation chairman, has announced.

Approximately 100 men will be chosen for the jobs, which will begin Sept. 15. Free room and board will be given to those counselors living in the dorms, while $10 will be allotted to those living downtown for the two-day period.

Applications may be filed in the Dean of Men's office, 109 Old Main.

State UN Association

The annual leadership conference of the Pennsylvania Association for United Nations will be held today at the Nittany Lion Inn.

Dr. David W. Russell, professor of education and president of the association, will preside.

Chorus to Sing Mozart Opera

Barbara Smith and Frances Miller will sing the leading roles in the Penn State Women's Chorus production of Mozart's one-act opera "Bastien and Bastienne" in the spring concert at 3 p.m. tomorrow in Schwab Auditorium.

Herbert W. Beattie, assistant professor of music and director of the chorus, will appear in the role of Colas in the concert version of the opera. Joseph Rosenthal, pianist, and a string orchestra will accompany.

Barbara Rollo will be soloist in Gibbon's "This is the Record of John," accompanied by Del Korman, organist, and the orchestra.

The soloist in selections from "Ceremony of Carols" (Britten) will be Marilyn Swartz. Nancy Herman will accompany on the piano. Miss Herman will also play for the chorus's presentation of "Five Canons" (Bacon).

SU Requests Names

Names of newly elected officers of clubs, honor societies, fraternities, sororities, and other organized groups should be turned in at the Student Union desk in Old Main before May 8 in order to be included in the new Student Union directory.

Worship is the channel for man's insight into his need for what is holy. This is the most impressive thing that can happen to him because in this act he defines himself. In religious worship man fulfills his first aim—awed awareness in the presence of God. Religion is not remote from human life, therefore, but closer to it almost than pulse or breath. For in this act of faith he is given dignity and his aspirations receive strength.
