Spring Week Evaluation

The number of points awarded to individuals and groups for participation in Spring Week activities, May 11-16, has been announced by Joan Lee, Spring Week chairman.

Organizations sponsoring contestants for the Miss Penn State School of Chemistry and Physics title will be awarded 100 points if their entries are among the will conduct council elections and finalists. The group sponsoring the winner will receive 150 points. Mad Hatters Entries

Senior Gift Suggestions Limited to 5

Senior class gift suggestions have been limited to five possibilities by the gift committee, according to John Hoerr, committee chairman.

Suggestions approved by the committee include "The Lineman" statue, establishment of an arena theater to replace Center Stage, a record room in the library, furnishing for the stage of the new Student Union Building ball room, or an organ, chimes, or stained glass windows for the proposed meditation chapel.

The committee will meet next week to make a final decision on the meditation chapel gift sug-

Seniors will vote next month on these five suggestions when they pick up their copies of LaVie.

Assisting Hoerr on the gift committee are Peggy Mayberry, Claire Kime, Robert Sherman, and Mary Markley.

2 New Groups Given Charters

Charters were given to the Botany Club and the Industrial Relations Research Association, by the Senate committee on student affairs at its meeting Thursday.

Wilmer E. Kenworthy, director of student affairs, said that the charter of the Botany Club lists as its members undergraduate and graduate students interested in botanical science. President of the group is Charles Hillson, graduate student in botany.

The Industrial Relations Research Association's charter states as its purpose the development of information to benefit members in the fields of employer-employee relations and organization, labor relations, and personnel ad-um, have proposed to add Zorach's outstanding reputation. It stands ministration. The club is headed carved figure of a football player 50 inches and has smooth, direct by Kenneth Cramer.

honorary.

Other new officers are Bryan Troutman, vice president; Irving McNair Jr., corresponding secretary; Richard Oswald, "Bridge" cording secretary; Richard Dor-shimer, treasurer; and Phillip Sheridan, Engineering Student Council representative. Clifford Holt Jr., associate professor of electrical engineering, was named faculty adviser.

FOR BEST RESULTS USE COLLEGIAN CLASSIFIEDS

Mad Hatters Parade

> Tuesday May 12

Chem-Phys

Twenty-five points will be a.m. to 5 p.m. tomorrow and champion beef cattle showman awarded for each entry in the HeThursday in the main lobby of Osand champion Shorthorn show-Man contest. Winners in the pre-liminaries will receive 50 points, and 150 points will be awarded for the All-College He-Man.

e awarded for each entry in the The faculty will also be polled Ugly Man contest. The Ugly Man for its choice of an outstanding showman. titlist will receive 100 points. professor. Letters asking for the In the be Four rules for parade entries the Year."

have been announced by George Richards and Nancy Hagy, parade
sor of the 1. No cars or motor driven ve- ingful course of study, and who hicles shall be allowed in the was most willing to provide out-

The professor chosen will be come an honorary member of the Chem-Phys Student Council. He spent on each unit.

4. Loud speakers may not be by the council May 19 at the used.

The student council of the a poll for the Chemistry or Physics "Professor of the Year" from the swine division. Herr was mond.

Ballots will contain names of Entries in the Mad Hatters Day will receive ten points each. The three entries judged most original, funniest, and most in keeping with the theme will be given 100 points each.

One point will be given for each ticket taken in during the carnival. Twenty-five points will be awarded for each entry in the faculty will also be polled.

4 Rules For Parade names of candidates will be sent to each professor through Dean parade entry, with 100 points available to each of three entries judged best costumed most comic of-class assistance to students.

Groups Support

(This is the first of five articles discussing suggestions for the senior class gift. The remaining articles will concern a gift for the proposed meditation chapel, an arena theater, a record library, and furnishings for the new Student Union Building.)

With the idea of building on the art reputation of the College, Pi Gamma Alpha, fine arts honorary, is supporting William Zorach's pink granite statue, the Lineman, for the senior class gift.

Other fine arts organizations including Scarab, architecture honorary, the student branch of the American Institute of Architec-considering that it has been carved ture, and the Art Education For- in hard granite by an artist of um, have proposed to add Zorach's outstanding reputation. It stands to the Nittany Lion and Land lines, much like the statue of the Grant Frescoes, art works pre-Nittany Lion. sented by former classes.

Entries in the Mad Hatters Day and most collegiate.

2. Horses and animals will be allowed in the parade.
3. No more than $15 may be

directors:

The price of $5000 is relatively modest, according to Harold E. Dickson, professor of fine arts,

EE Group Elects

Landis President

John Landis, sixth semester electrical engineering major, has been elected president of Eta Kappa Nu, electrical engineering honorary.

Sented by former classes.

One of Zorach's few works to be cast in plaster, the Lineman has been considered a possible gift suggestion by Pi Gamma Alpha and chairman of the Lineman campaign, feels that the sculpture is a "natural" for a college setting. It could be purchased outright and officially presented before the senior class two months ago. It is currently on display in the foyer of Old Main. leaves the campus.

Because of its subject, Edward Zimmerman, former president of Pi Gamma Alpha and chairman of the Lineman campaign, feels that the bloodmobile was equipped to take only 200 pints of Pi Gamma Alpha and chairman of the Lineman campaign, feels that the sculpture is a "natural" for a college setting. It could be purchased outright and officially presented before the senior class will go to the arm ed forces, Wirshborn said, since the drive in the near future, Wirshborn said, since the drive purchased outright and officially presented before the senior class will be a military donation.

The New Smooth "CAMPUS QUEEN" Hair Style

The "Campus Queen" hair style is one of the exciting new styles you can have done at the Vogue Beauty Salon. Take a tip from the MAY QUEEN, Barbara Baker—she's having her hair styled by Vogue for the Coronation.

Vogue Beauty Salon

Phone 2286

211 S. Allen Street

Welker Crowned Livestock Champ

Walter Welker, eighth semester animal husbandry major, was named grand champion showman and Robert Herr, sixth semester animal husbandry major, received the reserve grand champion showman title Saturday at the 36th Little International Livestock

Welker was champion showman and reserve champion fitter in man in the beef cattle division. Championship winners in the Pennsylvania candidates for council representa-tives. Each candidate is self-nom-mer, champion fitter; Archie Williams, champion showman; and Rec Conference Helen Baylog, reserve champion fitter and reserve champion showman.

In the sheep division Mary Jane May 6 at the College. Civic lead-Hull was champion fitter; Martha ers and recreational directors Tait, reserve champion fitter and champion showman; and Thomas kingsland, reserve champion gram sponsored by the School of ter and reserve champion showhitches were also included in the school and municipal camps. program.

Ninety students participated in the show sponsored annually by the Block and Bridle Club.

200 Students In Air ROTC To Give Blood

The Red Cross bloodmobile will be in State College today to accept blood from 200 students in cept blood from 200 students in Air Force ROTC who have pledged donations.

The bloodmobile will be here in response to a private blood drive sponsored by the Air Force ROTC Honor Guard and the Arnold Air Society. All donations will come from students in Air Force ROTC, according to Capt. David Wirshaccording to Capt. David Wirshborn, USAFR.

Approximately 290 students responded to the drive, Captain Wirshborn said. He said, however, Because of its subject, Edward that the bloodmobile was equip-

The sixth annual Pennsylvania Recreation Conference will begin May 6 at the College. Civic lead-Physical Education and Athletics, General Extension Services, and the Pennsylvania Recreation So-

George La Haller's office.

On the basis of the student and faculty polls the council will make the final choice of "Professor of the Year."

In terms of polling the "Professor of the content of the Year."

In terms of polling the "Professor of the content of the Year."

In terms of polling the "Professor of the content of the Year."

In terms of polling the "Professor of the Content of the Year."

In terms of polling the "Professor of the Content of the Year."

In terms of polling the "Professor of the Year."

In terms of polling the "Professor of the Year."

In the Year of the Year of the Year of the Year of the Year.

In the Year of the Year o sions are primarily for recreational organizers, camp directors, and In terms of polling, the "Profes-man, and Fred Elbel, reserve Final registration will be held at sor of the Year" is the individual champion beef cattle showman, who has provided the most mean-Lee Kummer was champion fit-10 a.m. May 6 in the lobby of the Nittany Lion Inn. Registration fee is $3.

One of the chief aims of the man in the swine division.

Carroll Schaffner, College conference will be to discuss shepherd, presented a sheep dog demonstration. A pig derby, a meat raffle, and a display of horse ideas and consider expansion of hitches were also included in the cabelland consider expansion of Robert W. Crawford, deputy commissioner and superintendent of Recreation in Philadelphia, will be among the notable speakers at the conference. Willis H. Edmund, director of recreation at Goodyear Rubber Co. in Akron, and Leo Weinrott of the Pennsylvania Recreation Council will speak at following meetings.

Ad Fraternity Elects Carruthers President

Robert Carruthers, sixth semester journalism major, was re-cently elected president of Alpha

"It's for You, Mother!!"

Mother on her day, May 10. Griggs Pharmacy will help you choose a beautiful gift—economical priced—to please you Mother.

You'll find at Griggs Pharmacy a variety of gifts from which to select the one for your Mother. Such as . . . Russell Stover Candy . . . Lentheric Toiletries . . . White & Wychoff Stationery . . . Whitman's Candy . . . Jewelite brushes, combs, mirrors and sets . . . Ayer toiletries . . . plus many other lovely presents.

Don't forget an American Greeting Mother's Day card. Stop in today and buy a beautiful present that would please your Mother. Griggs Pharmacy will mail your gift home—packed to assure safe arrival.

Opposite Old Main