

VOL. 53, No. 133

The Dailu Collegian

FOR A BETTER PENN STATE

STATE COLLEGE, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 30, 1953

FIVE CENTS

Budget Proposal ops BX Compensation

Joe Somers

Board Elects

Joe Somers, sixth semester mining engineering major, was elected president of the Association of Independent Men at a meeting of the board of governors last night.

APhiO Delays 'Ugly Man' Identification

Because of difficulties in schedthe auxiliary identification con-Governors to the Daily Collegian test will be delayed until tomorrow. All pictures should be taken by tonight unless further difficulty is encountered according to culty is encountered, according to He also proposed that the AIM Hampton Huff, chairman of the and individual council constitu-Ugly Man contest. The composite tions be mimeographed and dispicture of the contestants may be tributed to the independent studisplayed in the downtown window of Western Union Co. tomorrow instead of yesterday as previously announced.

dents.

Morrive Cosaid, ties cosaid, to said, to said, trance fee for the contest is 10 ciation convention will be held. cents which must be attached securely to the entry to be turned may still purchase tickets to the in at the Student Union desk in AIM-Leonides Banquet, which Old Main. The student who iden-will be held tomorrow at the Autotifies the most ugly men correctly port. will receive a ticket to the Senior

Any student may enter the contest except brothers and pledges of Alpha Phi Omega. The deadline for the contest is Tuesday.

Blood Pledges Due Tomorrow

Red Cross blood drive pledge slips and release slips for minors must be turned in at the College Placement office, 112 Old Main, by 5 p.m. tomorrow.

10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Temporary Union Building.

Persons donating blood should have at least one hour, and preferably two, free at the time blood will be donated, according to Red Cross officials. Pledge forms and release slips may be obtained from dormitory tions will be filled. Only a small presidents or from the College Placement office.

Ed Senior Nominations

day and Thursday.

AIM include Robert Harding, sec- cational television station in State ond semester chemical engineer- College was given preliminary aping major, vice president; Andrew Jaros, seventh semester arts and ate Tuesday. letters major, secretary; and Sheldon Odland, second semester architecture major, treasurer. Because of difficulties in scheduling pictures for the Ugly Man contestants, the starting date for the university identification conferments of the AIM Board of Communications of the AIM Board of Communication conferments of the Communications conferments of the Communications conferments of the Communications conferments of the AIM Board of Communications conferments of the Communication conferments of th

More coordination of the executive council of AIM is needed, he

Finch to Speak Tonight

Dr. Henry A. Finch of the Phil-

Station

A bill authorizing the General Other newly elected officers of State Authority to build an eduproval by the Pennsylvania Sen-Four Atteno

> The bill also authorizes construction of stations in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, and Erie. Channels for these stations have been set aside

According to C. S. Wyand, assistant to the President, the bill last weekend at the Pennsylvania must be read two more times before final approval may be given.

If the bill passes, he said, it will only authorize construction of the stations. The appropriation bill has not yet been released from the appropriation committee, Wy-and said, and, nothing can be done until money is received.

The rules for entering the identification contest are unchanged. Entrants must identify as many contestants' pictures as possible and list their names on a piece of paper with the number corresponding to their picture. The entrance fee for the contest is 10 cents which must be attacked.

The rules for entering the identify at the present a firm stand in cabinet. A more extensive program of freshman activities is also needed, he added.

It was also decided at the meeting staturday and Sunday, new officers for the Pennsylvania power the superintendent of public instruction to supervise the educational program on a State-wide basis. The other would give school boards the same authority on the local level.

The bills were elected.

During the convention items discussed were principles and goals of student leadership, functions and responsibilities of student leadership, student-faculty-adminates.

The bills were given approval leadership, student-faculty-administrative relations, and parliamentary and committee techniques.

Education Committee. They were sponsored by committee chairman Paul L. Wagner, (R-Schuylkill).

Mobile X-Ray Unit Paul L. Wagner, (R-Schuylkill).

Gov. John S. Fine said the bills have the administration's approval and recommended prompt action.

He amphasized that he bills free X-ray service to all students, and recommended prompt action.

osophy department will speak to educational television will be "one the Psychology Club at 7 tonight of the greatest of modern-day in 317 Willard. His subject will boons to our educational system be "Our Knowledge of Other and to the children and adult citi-Minds." The meeting will be open zens of the commonwealth when to State College by the Health to the public.

ISCB President, Council Heads Receive Salary Under Plan

Compensation for the members of the Book Exchange board of control has been eliminated and $25 compensation has been allocated for the president of the Interstudent Council Board, and $15 for each of the school student council presidents in the 1953-54 budget which will be presented to All-College Cabinet at 8 tonight by Richard Rostmeyer, retiring

NSA Meeting At Pittsburgh

Four students represented the College at the regional National

Attending the convention were James Plyler, retiring All-College vice president; Walter Sachs, central NSA regional chairman; Irene Taylor, Judicial president, and Robert Smoot, leadership training committee chairman. The convention considered the The Senate passed two other bills related to the educational television system. One would empower the superintendent of publications.

He emphasized that he believes employees of the College, and the business manager, $25, and educational television will be "one townspeople for diagnosis of tuest be ooth chairman, arrange-of the greatest of modern-day berculosis Tuesday through ments manager, parade director, Thursday.

The mobile unit will be brought

All-College secretary-treasurer. The budget, asking allocations of $12,300, shows an increase of $745 over the budget for the current 1952-53 school year.

Cabinet will also hear a report from Charles Gibbs on the eval-uation of Cabinet Projects Council by various campus organizations, and present recommenda-tions for CPC.

AGENDA Roll Call Minutes of the previous meeting Reports of officers Adoption of agenda Installation of officers Reports of committees

Proposed budget
 Student Scholarship

Committee Cabinet Projects

Council Old Business

Appropriations for annual reports

New Business Announcements Adjournment

Compensation for the chairman of the Junior and Senior prom committees was lowered from $10 to $5 and compensations were increased for committee chairmen of Spring Week activities. Under the proposed budget, the Spring Week chairman will receive $50, Tuesday through ments manager, parade director, special events chairman, publicity director, hat day chairman, and college by the Health coronation director $15 each.

The BX's compensation elimination was made because its increased volume of business and profits this year, has made it (Continued on page eight) eligible students voted in the seven student council elections The drive, sponsored by the campus Red Cross unit, will begin May 11 and extend through May 13. Donations will be made from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Temporary sophomore council representa-tives, and juniors for senior representatives.

Few Vote as Councils Open Elections

Mineral Industries Student Council elections are being held in the foyer of the Mineral Industries Building. Two sophomore, percentage of the Mineral Industry students voted yesterday according to Fred Becker, president of Mineral Industries council.

Nomination blanks for the outstanding senior in the Education school will be available in 105 Burrowes until Tuesday and at the election stands next Wednesday and Thursday.

Chemistry and Physics students voted yesterday for ten council positions for which 53 students have been nominated. Elections will continue today in the lobby of Osmond.

Students voting for Engineering Student Council membership may write in names on the ballot. At least two persons must be nominated for each council position, so that in some cases write-in votes are a necessity. If fair weather continues today, the voting station will again be set up on the Mall in front of Main Engineering and in case of bad wea-

BALLOTING GOT UNDERWAY yesterday and continues today in the election of members of seven school councils. Casting his ballot in the Liberal Arts Student Council elections is Richard Gordon, fourth semester pre-law major. Larry Gedrich, fourth semester commerce and finance major, and a member of the ther will be in the Engineering Library in Main Engineering.

Liberal Arts students will continue voting today for 23 positions for council membership. Weather permitting, the voting station will today of Sparks.

Semester commerce and mance major, and a member of the Laboratory and Physics, Chem-Phys oper Saturday, Willia today for 23 positions wise, voting will take place in the lobby of Sparks.

Voting for Phys Ed Student (Continued on page eight)

Library in Main Engineering Liry and Physics, Chem-Phys oper Saturday, Willia to day in the major's activity classes. Freshmen, sophomores, today in the lobation of the Continued on page eight)

Froth Gambles For 'Big Stakes' In Today's Issue

Gambling undergoes Froth treatment in the "Big Stakes" issue of the campus humor magazine, which goes on sale today.

For the uninitiated, Dick Neuweiler and Carl McGrew, have compiled a three-page illustrated "Gamesters' Guide." Marshall Donley, recently named Froth editor, has contributed "Seven Come Heaven."

Froth girl of the month is Nancy Van Tries, a fourth semester journalism major from State College.

The cover, depicting gambling through history, is the work of McGrew. Tomorrow's issue of McGrew. Tomorrow's issue of Froth is the last under the present staff. One more issue will be published this year.

Chem Phys Newsletter To Feature Open House

The latest issue of the Chem-Phys Newsletter, a monthly publication slanted to the interests of students in the School of Chemistry and Physics, will feature the Chem-Phys open house to be held Saturday, William Deppe, editor,

The newsletter can be obtained today in the lobby of Osmond