Church, Student Subject Of Speech by Batdorf

Dr. Irvin W. Batdorf, professor of New Testament and Homiletics at the Evangelical School of Theology, Reading, will speak on "The Church and the College Student" at 6:15 p.m. tomorrow at St. John's Evangelical United Brethren student fellowship. Student devotional leader will be Douglas Tharp.

The Rev. Charles Hummel and the Rev. C. Stacey Woods will be the principal speakers this weekend at the annual spring conference of the Inter-Varsity Bible Fellowship. Approximately 80 students from the College will attend the sessions at Camp Hate-to-Leave-It, Lamar. Church services will be held tomorrow morning.

Services and classes will be held at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at Wesley Foundation. Because of the field trip to Scranton, the foundation has canceled evening services.

The annual picnic of the Lutheran Student Fellowship will be held tomorrow at Poe Paddy. The group will leave between 1 and 2 p.m. from the Lutheran Student House.

After 9 a.m. mass, Richard C. Maloney will speak at the annual Newman Club spring communion breakfast at the University Club. Dr. Francis J. Tachan will present the John Henry Newman honorary society awards to John Hammes, Robert Kritt, Geraldine Lalli, Maloney, and Bernadine Mietus. Chairman of the breakfast is Betty Coltellare. Tickets may be purchased at the Student Union desk or from club officers.

TKE Will Host Province School

Pi chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon will be host today and tomorrow to the Middle Atlantic TKE province school at the fraternity house. Chapter officers from West Virginia, Davis and Elkins, Gettysburg, Bucknell and the College will attend.

Eugene Thomas and Franklin Kelly are co-chairmen for the program.

Delegates to the school will attend general sessions and discussion groups on rushing, ritual, pledge training and chapter scholarship. A feature of the program will be talks by Frank J. Eames, dean of men, and Harold W. Perkins, assistant dean of men.

National and province officers of the fraternity will also address the group.

Square Dance Tonight

Penn State Grange will sponsor a square dance at 8 tonight in the Temporary Union Building.

Cwens to Meet

Cwen tappers will meet at 6:30 p.m. Monday in the WSGA room in White Hall to nominate officers and take pledge tests.

Orr Will Address PSCA, Westminster

Robert Orr, Presbyterian representative to the World Student Christian Federation conference, will speak at 7 p.m. Tuesday at the Westminster Foundation at a joint meeting with the Penn State Christian Association.

A student at the University of Southern California, Orr attended the conference in India last December. He has spent many months traveling through India and studying the country and its students. Since returning to the United States, he has given a number of lectures and is presently on his way back to college in California.

COME TO CHURCH

Worship is the channel for man's insight into his need for what is holy. This is the most impressive thing that can happen to him because in this act he defines himself. In religious worship man fulfills his first aim—awed awareness in the presence of God. Religion is not remote from human life, therefore, but closer to it almost than pulse or breath. For in this act of faith he is given dignity and his aspirations receive strength.
