PAGE EIGHT

nouses

(Continued from page one)erected in front of Main Engineering where the Eng Open House Commerce, was recently honored will begin its tour. Copies of the by Delta Signa Pi, national hon-Penn State Engineer will be distributed with information con-cerning the departments, exhibits and tour through the engineering buildings.

The Home Economics Open House committee has prepared movies to show visitors. The nursery school, kitchen areas, and laboratories will be open to visitors. Faculty members and stu-dents will act as guides. A booklet, describing the departments and curriculum, will be distributed

Visitors to the LA Open House will register in the lobby of Sparks. An informal discussion program will be held in Schwab. Labs Opened

After a brief meeting in White

Hall, where departments and cur-ricula will be discussed, guests of the Phys Ed Open House will tour White Hall and Recreation Hall and attend athletic events.

Chem-Phys Open House will include tours through laboratories and classrooms and speeches by professors of the department. Ex hibits, prepared by high school visitors will be on display. A booklet and newsletter have been published to give information to visitors.

Air Force ROTC will provide information on radar, survival equipment, and air defense in the United States. Officers will dis-cuss the military training pro-gram and qualifications.

Faith ---

(Continued from page four) own individual destiny, choose, to have or have not, to do right or wrong and to pay the price for this responsibility.

The United States is unsur-passed in mastery of technol-ogy. Some say the faith is be-ing smothered in the fury of the factories. And they ask: is the robot winning? Or the vision? Are we finding only lumber in our spring forests, or miracles, too? From many churches, the answer is: we must have both to beat the present foe, the robot faith.

"We can and should protect ourselves from it by force of arms and all the means at our disposal," says Dr. John C. Ben-nett, Union Seminary theolo-

"But we cannot drive it out of existence that way. It has the force and appeal of religion and only another equally dy-namic religion can replace it. We have that religion. It is the bone and living breath of Amer-

Freshman Class Dance To Be Held Tonight

With travel posters, airplanes, Paris sights, and South Sea decor-ations carrying out the theme, "Vacation Whirl," the freshman

Dillenberger to Speak Delta Sigma Pi Honorary At Faculty Luncheon Club

Sieg Honored by

William W. Sieg, president of the Pennsylvania C h a m b er of Commerce, was recently honored by Delta Sigma Pi, national hon-orary and professional commerce fraternity for his contributions to civic and educational affairs. William W. Sieg, president of

Comp Prot – (Continued from page two) more," he said. "It's been 40 years since the younger generation learned any folk songs." "We've either thrown out a lot

WILL THIS SUIT FIT

If you can make the grade, you can fly the latest, hottest, fanciest jobs in the airand do it within one year.

ST TARES a good, tough, serious guy to wear the gear of an Aviation Cadet. But if you can measure up, here's your chance to get the finest in aviation training-training that equips you to fly the most modern airplanes in the world and prepares you for responsible executive positions, both in military and commercial aviation. It won't be easy! Training discipline for Aviation Cadets is rigid. You'll work hard, study hard, play hard-especially for the first few weeks. But when it's over, you'll be a prowith a career ahead of you that will take you as far as you want to go. You graduate as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Air Force, with pay of $5,300.00 a year. And this is only the beginning-your opportunities for advancement are unlimited. ARE YOU ELIGIBLE? To qualify as an Aviation Cadet, you class dance will be held from 9 p.m. to midnight tonight in Rec-reation Hall.

Large figures representing foreign students dressed in native costumes will be painted on wall panels.

The class voted to replace the scheduled Sock and Sweater Swing with the dance.

Gibbs, Enclow Attend WSSF Convention Today

Richard Gibbs, Campus Chest chairman, and Myron Enelow, solicitations chairman, will at tend the annual World Student Service Fund conference today at the University of Pennsylvania. Campus Chest representatives from colleges in the Middle Atlantic states will meet to discuss problems of the fund drive.

Calle Judging Contest

A dairy cattle judging contest will be held at 8:30 a.m. today at the College's new barns. Persons deciring transportation to the berns will meet before 8:30 a.m. at the Tivestock Pavilion.

4-H Ciub Picnic

The campus 4-H Club will hold its "nnual spring picnic Monday at "inwood Furnace. The group wid meet at 5:15 p.m. in front of the Dairy Building.

must have completed at least two years of college. This is a minimum requirement-it's best if you stay in school and graduate! In addition, you must be between 19 and $26\frac{1}{2}$ _years, unmarried, and in good physical condition.

YOU CAN CHOOSE BETWEEN PILOT OR AIRCRAFT OBSERVER If you choose to be an Aircraft Observer, your training will be in Navigation, Bombardment, Radar Operation or Aircraft Performance Engineering.

New Aviation Cadet Training Classes Begin Every Few Weeks!

HERE'S WHAT TO DO:

- Take a transcript of your college credits and a copy of your birth 1. certificate to your nearest Air Force Base or Recruiting Station. Fill out the application they give you.
- If application is accepted, the Air Force will arrange for you to 2. take a physical examination at government expense.

Where to get more details:

Visit your nearest Air Force Base or Air Force Recruiting Officer. Or write to: Aviation Cadet, Headquarters, U. S. Air Force, Washington 25, D. C.

3. Next, you will be given a written and manual aptitude test.

If you pass your physical and other tests, you will be scheduled 4. for an Aviation Cadet training class. The Selective Service Act allows you a four-month deferment while waiting class assignment.

