

'Medium' Stars To Sing Tonight

Belva Kibler, mezzo-soprano, and Donald Morgan, baritone, will present a recital of German songs in the fourth Simmons lecture series at 8 tonight in the Hillel Foundation auditorium.

The stars in Menotti's movie, "The Medium" will present works of Schumann, Schubert, Brahms and Wolf. No admission will be charged. The program is open to the public.

Miss Kibler, recognized for her renditions of Bach and German Lieder, has sung alto solos in Bach's St. John's Passion, St. Mathew's Passion, B-minor mass, Christmas oratorio and Bach cantatas under the direction of Arthur Mendel, conductor of the Cantata Singers in New York.

Last season Miss Kibler presented a series of 30 concerts in Rome, Vienna, Berlin and throughout the provinces of Germany and Austria.

In 1933 Morgan, who has sung professionally since the age of two, won a scholarship and went to Germany as an exchange student. He received his doctor's degree in German literature and continued studying music at the universities of Cologne, Bonn, and Munich.

Morgan presented concerts in Cologne, Bonn and Duesseldorf, Germany. Returning to this country in 1938, he became a German instructor at the University of Minnesota.

Free tickets for the performances tonight, tomorrow, and Saturday may be obtained at White Hall.

Theme for the first half of the concert will be "To a Metropolis" based on the activities of a city. Second half of the program will consist of different numbers illustrating various themes.

Club members participating in the concert are Katherine Nicoll, Anna Layton, Alice Colbert, Janet Melzer, Kay Lang, Alberta Mills, Alice Lindsay, Constance Paakh, Ruth Schnell, Celeste McDermott, Isabelle Capuano, Marilyn Black, Betty Love, Joanne Sherts, Peggy Mayberry, Nani Ku, June Briant, Bernadette Sheehan, Constance Paulakos, Ann Robertson and Leona Anderson.

'Hustle and Bustle'

Choreography for the dances was done by the group assisted by Dorothy Briant, assistant professor of physical education. Accompanist for the concert is Mrs. Hermance Reese with Miss Briant as director.

The program will open with "The Hustle and Bustle" dance. Second is a solo by Miss Briant, "Unmistakable Awe." Constance Paakh will solo in a number titled, "Industrial."

Four other dances, "Waterfront," "Airs of Distinction," "Bells of a Cathedral," and "Unconquerable Force," will be performed by the group.

Hawaiian Dance

A solo by Miss Layton in which she reads and interprets "Vision and Prayer" by Dylan Thomas, will open the second half of the concert.

Miss Ku will do a Hawaiian dance, "Ulili E." The dance group will do an interpretation of a folk ballad, "Runnin' Around," and a dance called "Your Joy is Your Sorrow Unmasked."

The next number is called "Nostalgia" and will be danced by Miss Nicoll, Miss Mills, and Miss Mayberry.

"Primitive Ritual," a group number with a solo by Miss Layton, will conclude the program.

May Queen Plans Future in Fashion

Being a queen is very exciting, mainly because it's something new and different says blonde, blue-eyed Barbara Baker, this year's May Queen.

Her main ambition at the present is to be a successful fashion advertiser.

WSGA to Install Nine Officers At Convocation

Dr. Althea Kratz Hottel, director of the new Commission of Education of Women of the American Council on Education, will speak at 7:15 p.m. tomorrow in the Commons lounge at the Women's Student Government Association convocation. Newly-elected officers will be installed.

Dr. Hottel has been granted a leave of absence from the University of Pennsylvania where she is dean of women and a lecturer in sociology to direct research on women's educational needs. She will speak on "Education - For What?"

WSGA officers to be installed are Nancy D. White, president; Maud Strawn, vice president; Barbara Werts, secretary; Frances Riley, treasurer; Marilyn Buzby, senior senator; Patricia Ellis and Arlene Borgeson, junior senators; Barbara Stock, sophomore senator; and Jane Reber, town senator.

A dinner for WSGA officers will precede the convocation. A reception will be held for Dr. Hottel following the convocation.

Miss White and Marian Ungar are general co-chairmen of the convocation. Jean Geiger and Helen Garber are co-chairmen of the reception committee. Other members of the reception committee are Diane Miller and Miss Reber. Judith Sedor and Helen Sidman are co-chairmen of the dinner committee.

Alpha Delta Sigma

Alpha Delta Sigma, national professional men's advertising fraternity, recently initiated four new members.

They are Vincent Drayne, William Nudorf, Richard Canouse and Gilbert E. Whiteley, national advertising director of the Williamsport Grit.

Riding Club Elections

Riding Club will hold elections for next year's officers at 7 tonight in 317 Willard.

Miss Baker started working for a dress shop in her hometown of Sunbury while she was still in high school. There, she picked up experience in modeling, selling, and window display.

When she was a freshman she was chosen a member of Mademoiselle magazine's college fashion board and has been a member of the board for the past three years. She has also added to her pile of experience by handling local fashion shows.

After graduation, Miss Baker expects to work in Philadelphia or Cleveland in either advertising or merchandising. She is enthusiastic about her future job prospects and keeps a scrapbook of advertising examples she especially likes.

She designs fashions just for fun, but on the more serious side, she practices advertising drawing. Wash drawings are her favorites.

After classes she usually heads for the courts to practice the serves and shots for her favorite hobby, tennis. She also finds time to swim.

Miss Baker is president of Delta Gamma, and a member of WSGA House of Representatives, Cwens, and the Freshman Customs Board.
