

Dairy Judging Set Tomorrow

A dairy products judging contest will be held at 3 p.m. tomorrow in 4 Dairy Building. The contest is sponsored by the Dairy Science Club.

A wrist watch, cash awards, magazine subscriptions, and a leather briefcase will be awarded to contest winners.

Entrants in the amateur division, open to students who have not taken dairy products judging courses, and the professional division, open to students who have taken these courses, will judge ten samples of milk and ice cream.

Francis J. Doan, professor of dairy manufacture, is official judge for the contest.

18 Students Attend Model Legislature

Eighteen delegates from the College Intercollegiate Government chapter attended the model legislature last weekend at Harrisburg.

Delegates are Vincent Yankowicz, Thomas Pyle, and Benjamin Sinclair, Kenneth Kramer, Thomas Kidd, Lewis Shatz, Donald Douglass, Judith Sedor, Barbara Greenebaum, Barbara Gelt, Henry Pitt, George Rubin, Helen Sidman, Pegge Shierson, Thomas Umholtz, Antoinette Rausero, Agnes Porter, Ernest Famous and Robert Hance.

Sinclair, fourth semester arts and letters major, was elected director of the central Pennsylvania region for next year.

During the mock legislative sessions attended by representatives from 61 Pennsylvania colleges, ten committees were formed to consider bills dealing with current problems. Bills were reviewed by committees and presented to the legislature for discussion and vote.

Pledge Slips Due For Blood Drive

Red Cross pledge slips and release slips for minors must be turned in by 5 p.m. tomorrow at the College Placement office, 112 Old Main, Robert Hance, co-chairman for collections, has announced.

Two hundred slips have been received. The sooner slips are returned, the better the chance students have for obtaining a suitable donation time, Hance said. Students should list several free hours when they can donate blood, he said.

...banish BOOK FATIGUE

KEEP ALERT SAFELY!

Your doctor will tell you ... a NoDoz Awakener is harmless as an average cup of hot, black coffee. Take a NoDoz Awakener when you cram for that exam... or when mid-afternoon brings on those "3-o'clock cobwebs."

You'll find NoDoz gives you a lift without a let-down... helps you snap back to normal and keep alert SAFELY!

When fatigue is a handicap, take a NoDoz Awakener. Used by millions of busy Americans since 1933.
