U.S. Intervention In Asia Possible Says Knowland

Air, Naval Power May Be Necessary

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—Sen. Knowland (R.-Calif.) today advised Secretary of State John Foster Dulles "not to foreclose the possibility of using our air and naval power" if it should prove necessary to stop Communist aggression in Southeast Asia.

The Californian offered this advice as Dulles appeared before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in support of the administration's proposed $5,800,000,000 foreign aid bill.

Dulles said the United States has started talks with several Allies on a possible appeal to the United Nations for action to deal with the Communist-led invasion of the Indochinese state of Laos.

He said flatly, however, that this country had no plans to send American troops to fight the Communists in Southeast Asia.

Much of the questioning was taken up with the invasion of Laos by Communist forces. Senator after senator expressed concern that loss of Southeast Asia to communism would be a staggering blow.

Deadline for students to turn in Red Cross blood pledge slips and releases for minors is 5 p.m. today at the College Placement office, 112 Old Main.

The blood drive will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Wednesday in the Temporary Union Building. Over 200 pledges have already been received.

Robert Hance, co-chairman for collections, has asked students to list several free hours when they can donate blood so suitable donation times may be scheduled. Donors should have one, preferably two hours, free in which to give blood.

$13,000 Business Reported by FMA

The Fraternity Marketing Association did an approximate business volume of $13,000 during the past school year it was reported last night by Prof. R. K. Murray, chairman of the FMA Board of Trustees. Murray presented his report at a special FMA meeting called to review the year's activities and present plans for next year's operations.

William Newhart of Alpha Zeta, Russell Bond of Sigma Nu, and Richard Thompson of Alpha Sigma Phi, were elected to the FMA Board of Trustees. The election brought the board of trustees to its full strength of five students, five graduates, and two trustees-at-large.

Murray reported that 25 fraternities enrolled in the FMA program during the past year and participating houses realized savings of from four to five per cent on their canned goods and potato purchases.

Listed Accomplishments

Murray revealed the board of trustees is investigating the possibility of adding fuel oil, coal, hardware and furniture, to the list of items which may be purchased through the association. Present FMA purchases are limited to canned goods and potatoes.

Murray listed some of the year's outstanding accomplishments as

All-College Cabinet tonight will consider the proposed budget for 1953-54 which asks allocations of $12,300, an increase of $745 over the 1952-53 budget.

Action on the proposal was postponed last Thursday when the budget was presented to Cabinet. Jane Mason, president of Home Economics Student Council, objected to the $15 compensations for student council presidents and the $25 which would be allotted the Interscholastic Council Board president.

To Accompany Wife by Plane, May Return Sunday to Capitol

President Dwight D. Eisenhower will arrive Saturday morning at the College to spend the weekend with his brother, Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower.

He will accompany Mrs. Eisenhower who is coming to the College to crown Miss Penn State at Monday's Spring Week activities.

Plans announced by James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, said the President will leave Washington early Saturday in the presidential plane Columbine and will land at Philipsburg. He has made plans to stay for the weekend and will leave either Sunday or Monday evening.

Weekend Plans Unknown

Hagerty said the President will talk to Dr. Eisenhower concerning the latter's trip to Latin America about June 20. Dr. Eisenhower will serve as his brother's goodwill emissary.

In reply to questions, Hagerty, revealed nothing of the President's plans for the weekend. He said he did not know whether the Chief Executive would get in any golf and fishing during his visit.

Mrs. Eisenhower will remain at the College to crown Miss Penn State at 8 p.m. Monday in Recreation Hall. Five finalists, Mary Braun, Kay Lloyd, Shelia Rosen, Madeleine Sharp, and Sara Ann Updegraff, were chosen by movie actor John Wayne.

Students Not Surprised

The winner will receive gifts from State College merchants and national advertisers and will compete in Lenthic's national Lilac Queen contest. Organizations sponsoring finalists and the queen will receive points in the Spring Week competition.

In reply to questioning, Richard Lemyre, All-College president, said students whom he had talked to concerning the President's visit did not seem too surprised. He said, however, these students had been aware that such a visit was possible.

The student body will probably show more response, he said, because it will come as news to them. He added the brunt has no doubt been taken off by the publicity given to Mrs. Eisenhower's cooperation in the Spring Week program.

Young GOPs to Meet

The Penn State chapter of the Young Republican Club will hold election of officers at 7 tonight in the TUB.

526 Given X-Rays; Unit to Leave Today

Approximately 526 persons were given free chest X-rays yesterday at the mobile X-ray unit located in front of the College Infirmary, bringing the total X-rayed since Tuesday to 326.

Today is the last day undergraduates, College employees, and town residents may receive free X-rays. The unit will be open from 8 a.m. to noon and 1 to 5 p.m.

The mobile X-ray unit was brought to campus by College Health Service in cooperation with the tuberculosis division of the Pennsylvania Department of Health.

Dr. Herbert R. Glenn, director of College Health Service, said Monday the unit was brought to campus chiefly for the benefit of graduating seniors.

He explained other large Colleges and Universities offer X-ray service to graduating seniors, but this is the first time it has been offered at the College. He said many graduating seniors will be required to have chest X-rays when they seek jobs after graduation and this will give them an opportunity to get one free.

The entire process takes only a few minutes and should give students ample time to stop in between classes, Glenn said.

Penny Voting For Ugly Man To Continue

Voting will continue from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. today and tomorrow for the Ugly Man popularity contest, in which a penny means a vote.

Proceeds of the contest will be given to Campus Chest.

First day voting was better than expected, according to Hampton Huff, contest chairman, although he said the returns could have been greater, and are expected to increase.

At class breaks, the booth was crowded with student voters and onlookers.

Individual contestants and campaigners were busy around the voting station, singing campaign ditties, appearing in Ugly Man masks and costumes, and parading around the campus with signs publicizing contestants.

A quart bottle for each contestant, is placed at the voting station to hold penny votes. Pictures of each contestant are displayed in the booth with a number corresponding to a bottle number.

Members of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity sponsoring the contest, are running the booth.

The Ugly Man contestant receiving the most penny votes will receive a silver Ugly Man key.

Ike Invited to Hershey Benefit Birthday Party

President Dwight D. Eisenhower has been invited to his own birthday party by state Republican leaders. According to the Harrisburg Evening News, a $1000-a-ticket fund raising birthday party is planned for Oct. 14, the President's birthday, at the Hershey arena.

The News reported that Eisenhower had not answered yes or no definitely, but had not ruled out the party.

Town Council Elects Officers

Chester Cherwinski, sixth semester labor management relations major, was elected president of Town Council Tuesday night.

Francis Mears, sixth semester industrial engineering major, was elected vice president and James McDowell fourth semester mechanical engineering major, secretary. Robert Schoner, fifth semester meteorology major, was elected treasurer.

An administration gift of $100 has raised the total in the Town Council, Nittany-Pollock and West Dorm joint television fund to $400. Edward Theime, retiring president, announced. Purpose of the joint fund is to purchase two sets at a better price than could be bought by individual funds for the West Dorm lounge and the TUB. Several bids are now under consideration.
