

Maryland Whips Netmen 8-1; Forrey-Ziegler Team Wins In Lions' 4th Loss

Rainy weather took an afternoon's leave-of-absence yesterday and the Maryland tennis team, here in full strength, proceeded to paste an 8-1 decision over Coach Sherm Fogg's luckless Lions.

The loss was the Lions' fourth in five starts and third straight. Maryland now has a 10-1 seasonal mark.

Not even the home College courts could stop the Lion losing streak yesterday as all Fogg's singles choices lost, as did two of the three doubles matches.

The number three doubles team of Captain Bill Forrey and Bill Ziegler was the lone Lion point-winner. Forrey-Ziegler beat Jack Clifford and Paul Eckel in three sets, 4-6, 6-3, 6-2.

Otherwise all afternoon it was the Terps. The score was 8-0 before Forrey-Ziegler won. In the top singles match of the day Mel Huyett dropped Dick Robinson in straight sets, 6-3, 6-4.

Ziegler lost, 6-4, 6-2, to Terp John Myers, in the number two singles match and Bruz Ray went three sets with Dennis Hevener before losing, 6-3, 2-6, 10-8, in the number three match.

Lou Landon, number four, was beaten by Terp Bud Leightheiser, in two sets, 9-7, 8-6.

Forrey and Dick Gross, number five and six, lost almost identical three-set duels. Forrey was decided by Jack Clifford, 6-3, 5-7, 6-4. Scores in the Gross-Terry Birch match were 6-2, 5-7, 6-4.

The first two doubles matches fared no better. Robinson-Landon, number one, lost to Huyett-Myer, 6-2, 6-4. Ray-Dez Long, number two, dropped identical sets, 6-4, 6-4, to Hevener-Leightheiser. Only the number three match averted the shutout.

Coach Loses Players, Cancels Scheduled Game

DANBURY, May 6 (AP)—It takes nine players to make a baseball team so the scheduled game between the University of Connecticut Branch at Hartford and Danbury Teachers College was cancelled today.

Coach Harvey Jessup of the local outfit announced shortly before noon that the Hartford coach had telephoned to say that he couldn't find nine men who could play baseball. Classes and preparations for examinations were reasons, he said.

Ken Rutherford, pro at the Carlisle Country Club, is a brother of Bob Rutherford, Penn State golf coach.

Six Notch IM Soccer Victories

Intramural soccer saw some lively action at the golf course fields Monday evening, as twelve teams sent their best booters into battle. The aggregate of entries scored a total of fourteen goals, a substantial number for any score sheet.

Delta Upsilon scored on three goals and one corner kick to down Alpha Phi Delta's booters 3-0, the losers not being able to put any through the posts and garnering but three corner kicks. John Baffa had two goals to his credit with Red Proffit assisting the winning cause with one more.

Sigma Pi racked one in its victory column, having to score only once during the game to assure them of the win over Theta Xi, 1-0. The only goal of the game came in the first period of play as Theta Xi had to satisfy themselves with a lone corner kick.

Dick Packer, with two goals, and John Speer with one, led Phi Gamma Delta to a 3-1 triumph over Tau Phi Delta. The winners, besides their goals, also benefited by four corner kicks awarded them.

Phi Kappa Tau only had to score one goal to win out over Theta Chi, 1-0. Bob McFadden kicked it through the posts during the first period of play to wrap it up for the Phi Kaps.

Phi Sigma Delta could produce only two corner kicks against Pi Kappa Alpha's one goal to take the short end of the 1-0 score. John Willamee did the honors for PiKA.

Harry Lichtendahl, with two scores, and Don McCormick with one goal, enabled Tau Kappa Epsilon to emerge triumphant from their battle with Pi Kappa Phi, 3-1. The TKE scores came in the second period, at which time Don Wood retaliated in part for Pi Kap's loss by scoring the only Pi Kappa Phi goal.

IM V-Ball Reaches Semi-Finals

Intramural volleyball, independent and fraternity, advanced into the second day of inter-league playoffs. The winners of last night's games at Rec Hall advanced to the semi-finals, to be played tonight.

On the fraternity side of the ledger, Sigma Chi's A squad, champions of league H, fought a winning battle against the A team from Kappa Sigma, 15-10, 15-11. Not being contented with a single victory for the night the Sigma Chi's tackled Theta Xi, top men in the J loop. The iron man stunt failed to work as the J circuit winners came through, 15-3, 15-12.

Beta Sigma Rho, top dogs in the K league, had little trouble subduing the I loop champs, Sigma Nu, in a fast game, 15-2, 15-7.

Phi Kappa Tau's B team, the best in league Q, was good enough to overcome the M league power, Sigma Phi Epsilon. The two set match went 15-12, 15-7, in favor of the Phi Kap's.

F league champs, Phi Epsilon Pi's A team, was the power that couldn't fail as they flailed the L loop's best, Pi Kappa Phi's B team, 15-6, 15-12, to assure themselves of another chance tonight.

The Independent entries featured an undefeated team, the Emanon champions of the B league, who suffered their first defeat at the hands of the immovable Iron Men, the E league's finest. In a three set, hard fought match, the Iron Men took the two end sets 15-13, 6-15, 15-7.

Beaver House's B team, the champs of F loop, found the Abstracts too puzzling as they bowed to the D league champs 15-8, 15-11.

Tomorrow night will continue the volleyball battles with Rec Hall remaining as the locale of action. Semi-final entries will be completed at that time.

Lion Batting Leaders

Two veterans, Captain and outfielder Sil Cerchie, of Elkland, and third baseman Hubie Kline, of Benton, are Penn State's best batting bets. The two were credited with 12 RBI's each in the season's first seven games.

Hollen Will Miss MSC Track Meet

The absence of Red Hollen from Saturday's meet with Michigan State may spell the difference between victory and defeat for the Nittany thinclads. Hollen must take an examination for entrance into medical school and will not be able to accompany his teammates to East Lansing.

The Spartans have some good sprinters, and it will be rough for the Lions to gain any points in the 100 and 220-yard dashes. Skip Slocum, however, may surprise some of Michigan State's highly touted sprinters. In the 440 it is doubtful if Ollie Sax is in good enough shape to compete with Lou Vargha, who recorded a time of 0:48.3 against Illinois last week. Dave Leathem and Sax should take second and third though. Sax has not had much work since his injured ankle healed.

One of the Spartan strongholds is in the 880, where they have four topflight men in Dick Jarrett, Lyle Garbe, John Cook and Jim Kepford. With these men combining in the two-mile relay, they should take the five points allotted for that event. Don Austin may capture some points for the Lions in the 880, for his sizzling 1:54.7 against Navy proves his showing in the Penn Relays was no fluke.

If Bill Youkers can duplicate his performances in the Middle meet, the Lions might be able to make a rip-roaring fight out of the dual meet. The Spartans have two hurdlers who have done under 0:15.0, while Youkers won the 120 highs with a time of 0:15.2.

Although the Lions figure to be outclassed in the track events, they should be able to dominate the field events. Jim Herb will have to perform at his peak to win the high jump. Two Spartans have cleared the bar at 6 ft. 2 3/4 in., Herb's winning height last week.

Another Lion who will have to perform well in order to win is pole vaulter Dan Lorch, who hit only 11 ft. 6 in. at Annapolis. The Spartans have two men who have cleared 12 ft. 6 in. Broad jumper Ron Johnson will have some stiff competition to contend with, but should take a valuable second for the Lions.

Rosey Grier may once again make a clean sweep of the discus, shotput and javelin, and with some help from Al Schutz and Bill Body the Lions could surprise the Spartans.

Baseball's Big Leagues

The New York Giants blasted six Chicago pitchers in a 15-hit attack yesterday to hand the Cubs their seventh straight loss, 8-5, in a three-hour five-minute struggle.

A big six-run rally in the fifth inning did the trick with the help of two-hit relief pitching by Al Corwin and Hoyt Wilhelm down the last five innings.

The Giants tied a National League record with only one assist—a throw by Sal Maglie to double Roy Smalley on first base in the fourth inning. Three other National League teams have had only one assist, the last being Pittsburgh in 1950. The American League record is no assists.

Ned Garver, working with a sore knee, belted a two-run homer and scattered 10 hits to lead Detroit to an 8-4 victory over Washington.

Garver ran off the mound looking for a bunt in the sixth when his leg buckled. Jack Homel, Tiger trainer, merely ran onto the field and slipped it back into place.

In addition to Garver, three other Tigers knocked in two runs—Bob Nieman, Walt Dropo and Steve Souchock.

The Chicago White Sox snapped a three game losing streak behind the six-hit pitching of Billy Pierce by downing the Boston Red Sox 6 to 2.

Del Wilber's pinch hit homer with one on in the seventh spoiled Pierce's bid for a shutout.
