Lacrossers Face Rutgers Tomorrow

Rostmeyer, Dean to Miss Pro Football Game; Scarlet After 8th

There's an old saying still floating around to the effect that when you're down, the breaks all seem to go against you. There is certainly no occasion for disagreement with this The National Football League toas far as Penn State's lacrosse team is concerned.

None up and five down for the season, and with three None up and five down for the season, and with three play-for-pay gridiron coverage to ning goal in the first few minutes tough opponents still to be met, including Rutgers tomorrow, the entire country starting with of the final half. For Phi Kappa the Lions are faced with the task of replacing two starting men for the Scarlet test. Dick Rostmeyer, a front-line attackman, suffered à dislocated kneecap last Saturday during the Syracuse game and will be out for the season. To add to Coach Nick Sign Joe Yukica Thiel's woes, defenseman Jim Dean will be unable to make the trip with the Lions, who leave at 9 a.m. this morning.

wound up eighth nationally in scoring.

Besides the emergence of Youtz and Horikawa into the starting lineup, the Lions probably will go with their usual team. Heading the defensive trio will be Dick Schaefer, whom Thiel praised for his great game last Saturday. Another standout performance by him tomorrow plus the continued improved play of Lion offensivemen could make the afternoon quite interesting.

Six teams won soccer matches last night as play continued in the intramural fraternity soccer leagues. They were Beta Sigma Rho, Theta Kappa Phi, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Delta Tau Delta, Delta Chi, and Sigma Phi Alpha.

The first match of the night saw Beta Sigma Rho top Alpha Epsilon Pi, 1 to 0. The only score was recorded by the Rho's Singer. Both sides played exceptionally well on defense.

Sigma Phi Alpha, playing great ball throughout, topped Phi Sigma Kappa in overtime 2 to 1. Evans started the Alpha's scoring in the first half on a great play. The Kappa's goalie had possession of the ball in front of his goal but failed to kick it out. Instead he "hugged" the ball with his legs.

Evans ran hard into the goalie and kicked the ball out from under him and into the goal for the score. The Kappa's came back in the second half and scored on Carrol's kick. A beautiful pass from backcourt set up the score. With but twenty seconds remaining, the Kappa's were credited with a
