Garber to Give Ugly Man Key

Robert Sherman, recently elected Ugly Man of 1953, will officially receive his Ugly Man title at noon today.

The silver Ugly Man key will be presented to Sherman by John Garber, fifth semester chemical engineering major, in behalf of Alpha Phi Omega, sponsor of the contest.

Sherman will also receive the gold trophy for Beta Sigma Rho, his sponsor in the contest.

Sherman, an eighth semester accounting major, won the Ugly Man penny-a-vote contest with a $112.23 total. Proceeds of the contest will go to Campus Chest.

Graduation Ticket Limit Announced

Tickets will be required for persons attending commencement exercises if inclement weather forces proceedings into Recreation Hall. Three tickets will be allotted each graduating senior.

Wilmer E. Kenworthy, director of student affairs, said if exercises were held in Beaver Field, no tickets would be required. Limitations will occur only if the split graduation plan in Rec Hall is followed because of bad weather.

He said tickets will be given to seniors when they pick up caps and gowns at the Athletic Store. If commencement, set for June 4, is held inside, graduates will be divided into two groups, one at 10:30 a.m. and the other at 2 p.m. Being graduated in the morning will be students in the Schools of Education, Home Economics, Liberal Arts and Physical Education, while those in the afternoon will be from the Schools of Agriculture, Chemistry and Physics, Engineering and Mineral Industries.

Commencement speaker will be Clarence Manion, law firm partner of Droan and Manion, South Bend, Ind. He was dean of the College of Law at Notre Dame from 1941-52.

300 to Attend Pennsylvania Press Conclave

Approximately 300 editors and publishers of Pennsylvania newspapers will attend the two-day annual Pennsylvania Press Conference Friday and Saturday at the College.

The conference is sponsored by the Pennsylvania Society of Newspaper Editors, Pennsylvania Women's Press Association, Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' Association and the Department of Journalism.

Registration will be held Friday morning. The opening session will begin at 1:30 p.m. in the Nittany Lion Inn. Melville F. Ferguson, editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and PSNE president, will be chairman of this session.

Awards certificates to contest winners will be presented Friday night at a dinner. Awards are sponsored by PNPA, PSNE, and the Journalism department for better writing, news reporting and photography.

Saturday's program will include a morning session, luncheon sponsored by PWPA, forum-discussion on "The Newspaper in the TV Era," and the annual dinner at 6:30 p.m. at which scrolls will be awarded to two Pennsylvania newspaper publishers.

4 Chem-Phys Groups Elect New Officer

Four societies in the School of Chemistry and Physics recently elected officers for the 1953-54 school year.

Robert Cox, sixth semester education major, was elected president of Alpha Nu, astronomy honorary.

Other officers include Joseph Kowalchik, vice president; Cecilia Poor, secretary; and Robert Gowers, treasurer. Dr. Carl Bauer, assistant professor of physics, was named adviser.

The student affiliate of American Chemical Society recently elected Roger Uhler, fourth semester chemistry major, vice president; Douglas Ayer, treasurer; Marilyn Gourley, corresponding secretary; Kathryn Baker, recording secretary; and Robert Fields, student council representative. John Hampford, sixth semester chemistry major, was elected president earlier this semester.

The American Institute of Chemical Engineers elected William Deppe, sixth semester chemical engineering major, president; James Dillon, vice president; Lloyd Lupfer, secretary; Donald Kempfer, treasurer; and Clarke Davis, student council representative.

Miss Poor, sixth semester pre-medical major, was elected president of Gamma Pi Epsilon, women's pre-medical honorary. Jane Metz was named vice president; Dolores Bertoli, secretary; Lynn Markle, treasurer; Patricia Dorwart, historian; Louise Justin, scholarship chairman; and Dorothy Claypotch, student personal adviser.

Schwartz Elected
Marian Schwartz was recently elected president of Belle Lettres Club. Other officers are Richard Spiess, vice president; Joanne Low, social chairman; Elaine Focht, secretary; and Barbara Lock, publicity chairman.

Klein Appointed New History Head

Dr. Philip S. Klein, professor of American history, has been named head of the History department for a three year term, President Milton S. Eisenhower announced yesterday.

Dr. Klein, succeeding Dr. Alfred G. Pundt, received his B.A. degree at Franklin and Marshall College, M.A. at University of Chicago, and Ph.D. at University of Pennsylvania.

Klein has been conducting research on the life of President Buchanan and wrote "Story of Wheatland," Buchanan's Lancaster home. He has also written "Pennsylvania Politics."
