

Spring Week Carnival Festivities Get Underway 16 Grads Receive Ensign Rating From U.S. Navy

GREAT FUN at the Pi Kappa Phi booth "Tar and Feather a Pi Kap." Getting his dose of "tar and feathers" is Robert Berger, fourth semester electrical engineering major. The annual Spring Carnival will be held again tonight from 6 to 11 on the parking lot behind Sigma Nu and Sigma Chi. The weatherman has once again promised rain.

SALLY LOU JONES, Thayer Potter, and Betty Richardson kick as Arthur Rosfeld (right) tries to ensnare passersby at the Phi Delta Theta-Chi Omega booth at the Spring Carnival on the West lot behind Sigma Nu. Midways were packed on the first night of the 2-day carnival. Everything went well for the booths despite a short power failure about 10 p.m.

Sixteen graduates and eight former students of the College have recently received Ensign commissions in the U.S. Navy and four have completed preliminary training for their Navy wings.

The men receiving Ensign commissions were graduated from the U.S. Naval Officer Training School at Newport, R.I., the Navy's only officer candidate school.

Twelve of the 15 men were graduated from the College in 1952. They are Richard Malone, Richard Griffiths, William Leonard, Jr., Charles Rightmire, Philmore Lurie.

Wally Krieger, Robert Richardson, Jr., Lewis Hoover, Freeman Singer, Alfred Znaniecki, Paul Corazza and John Wicks.

The 1951 graduates of the College are William Detweiler, Marlin Brenner, Frank McKean and John La Clair.

Also graduating were David Schmuckler, George Stevenson, Edwin Sweeten and Richard Williams who received regular Ensign commissions. Graduates who received reserve Ensign commissions are Arthur Anderson, Paul Howe, Bronco Kosanovich, and Joseph Selinka.

William Cowen Jr. and David Waltz have recently graduated from the U.S. Naval School, Pre-Flight, Pensacola, Fla. Both men have entered advanced courses for their Navy wings. Frank Duke has completed carrier pilot qualifications on board the small aircraft carrier USS Monterey in the Gulf of Mexico.

Samuel Hamilton recently completed his first solo flight at the U.S. Naval Auxiliary Air Station at Whiting Field, Milton, Fla. Samuel B. Croyle, graduate of the College, and now a U.S. Navy ensign, was awarded his wings as a Naval aviator.

In the Army Herbert Arnold was promoted to the rank of first lieutenant while serving as public information officer of the Iceland Defense Force. Second Lieutenant David Scheffey is now stationed at Headquarters, Fourth Battalion, Medical Field Service School at Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

New American submarines travel faster under water than on the surface and can breathe under water.

4 Student Maestros To Lead Kaye Band

Sammy Kaye's musicians will take their downbeat from four students tomorrow night when the maestro brings "So You Want to Lead a Band" to the Senior Ball.

Two men and two women, whose letters on "Why I like to dance to Sammy Kaye" were judged best, will direct the orchestra in one number.

Nittany Fracas To Be Investigated

The Dean of Men's office yesterday reported students owning cars that may have been involved Monday night in the disturbance in the Nittany-Pollock dormitory area are being contacted and action will be taken tomorrow.

According to Dean of Men Frank J. Simes, students will be asked for explanations. If explanations are unsatisfactory, students will be subject to disciplinary action.

License numbers of seven cars were received Monday night after a disturbance about the same time the water fight occurred in the West Dorm courtyard.

LA Instructors Get Rating by Students

Liberal Arts instructors yesterday began handing out the faculty evaluation sheets which were distributed under sponsorship of the Liberal Arts Student Council.

Richard Kirschner, chairman of the committee which prepared the sheets, said 10,000 forms were distributed to LA instructors who requested them.

After sheets are filled out by students, they are returned to instructors who are the only persons to see them.

... This calls for a hamburger and a "shake" at the

Nittany Dell

(Across from Atherton)

125 Trees Planted To Commemorate War Casualties

One hundred twenty-five trees have been planted on campus this semester as a "living memorial" to 52 Mount Alto Forestry School graduates who died in World War I and II.

The trees line both sides of Curtin road, starting at the College rose-beds. Members of the Mount Alto-Penn State Forestry Alumni Society have contributed over $500 for the stock.

Initiates of Xi Sigma Pi, national forestry honorary, and Physical Plant workers have planted the trees.

The trees are planted in a design created by the Physical Plant staff. A small plaque will be placed at the beginning of the column of trees.

Sketch Play at Tub

A sketch production of the arena adaptation of Koestler's "Darkness at Noon" will be given at 8:30 tonight in the TUB. The sketch is directed by William S. Coleman, graduate student in dramatics.

ROTC Groups Will Parade On Saturday

The combined Reserve Officers Training Corps units will march in a parade at 1:30 p.m. Saturday as part of the observance of Armed Forces Day. Besides the ROTC groups, Civil Defense and community organizations will take part in the six-division parade.

A reviewing stand will be erected at College avenue and S. Allen street. The route of the parade, which will form at McElwain Hall, will be south along Shortlidge road and west along College avenue to Burrowes road where the units will disband.

Units in the line of march headed by a police escort, the grand marshal, and his staff will include: Division 1, Army ROTC Band and cadets; Division 2, Navy ROTC Band, officers, and midshipmen; Division 3, Air Force ROTC Band and one wing of cadets; Division 4, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Legion Groups; Division 5, Girl Scout and Boy Scout Groups; Division 6, Fire Company, Civil Defense Units, and High School Band Groups.

CATHAUM

• BEGINS 1:30 FRIDAY •

NOTHING EVER SO AMAZING!

IT COMES AT YOU OFF THE SCREEN IN 3-DIMENSION

—PRICES—

ADULTS - EVE. & Sat. Mat. $1, incl. tax

ADULTS-Mat., except Sat. 76c, inc. tax

CHILDREN - All Times 35c, incl. tax

WARNER BROS. BRING YOU THE FIRST FEATURE PRODUCED BY A MAJOR STUDIO IN NATURAL VISION 3D!

An Astounding Story! A Man-turned-Monster and the Beauty he craves!

HOUSE OF WAX

COLOR BY WARNERCOLOR

STARRING VINCENT PRICE · FRANK LOVEJOY · PHYLLIS KIRK

CAROLYN JONES · PAUL PICERNI · SCREEN PLAY BY CRANE WILBUR · PRODUCED BY BRYAN FOY · DIRECTED BY ANDRE DE TOTH

Today WARNER theatres

Cathaum

JOHN DEREK
BARBARA RUSH
"PRINCE OF PIRATES"
in technicolor

State

FREDRIC MARCH
GLORIA GRAHAM
"MAN ON A TIGHTROPE"

Nittany

MARILYN MONROE
JOSEPH COTTON
"NIAGARA"