

Greeks Plan House Parties for Tomorrow

Costume Dances, Formals, Picnics To Round Out Spring Week Events

By BETTY ALLEN

Costumed parties, picnics, and dinner-dances are being planned tomorrow night to round out Spring Week activities.

Acacia's guests will be enveloped in a medieval atmosphere when they cross the drawbridge to a dinner-dance. To carry out the theme the house will be converted into a castle of yester-years. The party will be open at 10 p.m.

The Nickabakers will furnish music for Alpha Gamma Rho's "Tahitian Teez" which in our language is a south-sea island motif. Guests will enter through a thatched hut to an island of warmer climate.

Grass skirts will be worn by the dates of brothers at Alpha Epsilon Pi's "Hawaiian Shindig." Al Glou will provide music for a dinner dance served on the lawn.

An erupting volcano will set the stage at Alpha Phi Delta's "South Sea Island" party. Waterfalls complete with fish and murals will complete the setting of the fantasy.

There will be a second Waldorf at Alpha Sigma Phi's "Club Top Hat." The theme will be carried out with black top hat silhouettes scattered on the walls of the house. The party will be open at 11 p.m.

A "Juke Box Jamboree" will be held at Alpha Tau Omega where favorite records will be played by slugs on a nickelodeon.

"Cafe Le Mabelle" will be the name of the French night club at Alpha Zeta. The French cafe will feature a formal dinner party until 10 p.m. when the party will be open to party hoppers.

Performers at Alpha Chi Rho's "Circus Capers" will feel right at home under the make-believe circus tent. Saw dust on the floors will complete the motif. A three-piece combo from Florida will be on hand to entertain and provide music for the guests.

Guests of the brothers will be initiated into "She Chi Phi" tomorrow afternoon. New initiates will have a pledge dance in the evening. Music will be provided by the Mellowaires. The affair is closed until 9 p.m.

A ship will be erected on the front porch of the Beaver House and guests will have to climb over the rail to enter the house. The pirates will have music furnished by John Pane and his orchestra. The party is closed.

Beta Sigma Rho will hold a formal dinner-dance with Lynn Christy and his orchestra. The "Starry Night" theme will be carried out in a spring time atmosphere.

A Carnation Queen chosen by brothers and chaperons will be crowned at Delta Sigma Phi's annual "Carnation Ball." The living room will be converted into a rock garden complete with waterfall. The party is closed until 11 p.m.

Delta Tau Delta will hold its annual "Oriental Garden Party" on the tennis courts which will be dotted with gay Chinese lanterns. Lee Vincent will provide music for the guests.

An Indian tepee will set the stage on the front lawn of Delta Theta Sigma's "Pow Wow." Inside the house, guests will be enveloped in a forest of trees and greens.

Delta Upsilon will hold its annual "Flower Dance." Roses and spring flowers will be used to carry out the theme. Jack Leister and his orchestra will provide music for the formal dinner-dance which is closed until 11 p.m.

An interior of an old ship will be used to depict the "Sailors Ball" theme at Kappa Delta Rho. Music will be provided by Ken Stern and his music-makers.

Pleasant dreams are promised for those who attend Kappa Sigma's "Dreamland" party. Costumes typical of the title will be worn by guests. The party is open at 10 p.m.

A formal dinner-dance in honor of senior brothers will be held at Phi Epsilon Pi. The party is closed until 11 p.m.

Phi Gamma Delta will hold its annual Clam Bake Sunday at Greenwood Furnace.

"Beachcombers Brawl" will be held at Phi Kappa Sigma. A ship wreck scene will be found outside the door when guests enter. Fish nets and sea shells will carry out the motif.

A party for some tired "Tramps" will be held at Phi Kappa Tau when brothers and dates return from a picnic at Whipple Dam.

Spring flowers will set the stage for the formal garden party at Phi Sigma Kappa. The affair, which is in honor of the pledges, will be closed until 10 p.m.

Modern mobiles and abstracts will be used to set the stage for Pi Kappa Phi's "Beaux Arts Ball." The mad artists' party will be open at 11 p.m.

The swinging doors at Sigma Alpha Epsilon will set the stage for "Flapper Follies" from the good old 1920's. Mom and Dad's closets have been raided this last week to obtain original costumes true to the Charleston era.

Brothers from Sigma Chi will choose a sweetheart at the annual "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" dance. She will reign in splendor from a throne made by brothers. Jack Huber and his orchestra will provide music at the closed party.

The annual Sigma Nu "White Star" formal will have a realistic setting of white roses at the dinner-dance. Melody Men will furnish music for the closed affair.

A Lilac queen will be chosen at Sigma Phi Alpha's "Buccaneer's Brawl." A pirate theme will be used to set the stage, complete with different rooms of a ship being found throughout the house. Guests will enter the house via a gangplank.

Hermits from Nittany Mountain would feel at home at Sigma Phi Epsilon's annual "Moonshiners' Ball." A hut of inconvenience will be the entrance for guests. The party is closed until 10 p.m.

Sigma Pi will hold its annual "Orchid Dance." The theme will be carried out entirely with orchids in a garden setting. The party will be open at 11 p.m.

Favorite comic book characters will be on hand at Sigma Phi Sigma's "Comic Book Favorites" party. Jim Erdly and his orchestra will play for the affair which is closed until 11 p.m.

Phi Sigma Delta will hold a formal dance with music furnished by Mike Rosenfeld and his orchestra.

"Deep Purple," theme of Sigma Alpha Mu's pledge formal, will be carried out in the colors of the fraternity. The pledges will present a show at the party which is closed until 11 p.m.

An erupting volcano will greet guests who attend Theta Xi's "Palmasian Paradise." Brothers dates will carry out the theme with grass skirts and leis. The party is open to couples only.

Tau Phi Delta will feature Roe Eckroth and his orchestra at "Dreamers' Holiday." The party is open to couples only.

"Circus Follies" will be found at Zeta Beta Tau. Balloons and trapezes will be found hanging from the ceiling to complete the motif. Dick Marsh and his orchestra will provide music.

Alpha Chi Sigma and Beta Theta Pi will have picnics at Greenwood Furnace; Tau Kappa Epsilon and Triangle at Black Moshannon; Phi Kappa Psi, Spruce Creek; and Theta Kappa Phi, Colonial Park.
