

Golfers to Host Hoycs Tomorrow

By ROY WILLIAMS

After a five-day rest State's undefeated golfers will host a seven-man squad from Georgetown at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow. With an excellent showing in the EIGA tourney last weekend at Princeton, the Nittanies will try to extend their win streak to number five. The Hoyas of Georgetown will be no pushover, however, for the Rutherfordmen.

The Georgetown squad has lost only two matches during the current campaign. Navy and Penn, both reputable teams in the golf world, did the trick; Navy won the match by a 5-2 score. Pitt has been one of the teams to fall before the fire-power of Georgetown as a result of a 6-1 drubbing.

Eaken vs. Turnesa?

Georgetown will have several names on its roster which are very familiar to Coach Rutherford and Co. The Hoyas' number one man, now playing for his third year, caused a lot of trouble for the Lions in their last meeting two years ago. Jim Nies, aided by some very cool nerves, outplayed the Lions Ted Robertson on the final four holes although Robertson scored two birdies, a par, and an eagle on the last four holes. State lost the match by a slim 4-3 margin.

Eaken Loser to Mattox

The real opposition which Nies will offer one of the Rutherfordmen tomorrow is indicated in the reports of Georgetown's match against Navy. Although the Hoyas lost to the Middies, 5-2, Nies handed the Swabbie's Dick Mattox a defeat on his home ground. Mattox was the man who defeated Eaken when the Gobs were edged out by a 4-3 margin in their visit to the Nittany links. Mattox, incidentally shot a total of seven birdies, and was medalist with a one under par score of 68 for the afternoon.

Joe Turnesa, number two man for Georgetown, will be a familiar face to Rod Eaken, State's number one man. Eaken and Turnesa went against each other last weekend in the EIGA tourney. Eaken finally defeated Turnesa by a 1 up score, but it took him twenty holes to earn the win. Because Eaken is the Lion's number one man, and Turnesa is the second man on the seven-man links squad from Gettysburg, the two men will not meet Saturday.

When asked about State's chances for winning number five Saturday, Joe Boyle, assistant golf coach, remarked, "Georgetown has a good match play team. They have a rough team to give us a rough match."

Eddie Arcaro Rides Jamie K

BALTIMORE, May 14 (AP)—Eddie Arcaro, the master jockey, was in the unusual spot, for him, today of being forced to switch horses for the Preakness May 23. The switch was announced yesterday by Arcaro in New York, but it develops it wasn't voluntary. He will be astride Jamie K instead of Correspondent.

Trainer Wally Dunn of Correspondent had quietly passed the word to Arcaro he was going to make a rider change for the Preakness a week from Saturday. Arcaro and Correspondent finished fifth in the Kentucky Derby May 2.

7 Fraternities Post Intramural Horseshoe Wins

Seven Advance In IM Tennis

Play moved into the quarter-finals last night in the fraternity tennis doubles tournament with seven teams moving up. Leider and Cheskis, Zeta Beta Tau, won 6-1, 6-1 sets from Waple and Gibbs, Chi Phi. Lindfors and Crouse, Phi Kappa Sigma, topped Swanson and Anderson, Phi Kappa Alpha, 6-3 and 6-1.

Zucker and Kleiman, Phi Sigma Delta, outplayed Owax and Asplundh, Sigma Chi, 6-4, 7-9, and 6-3. Potter and Seiling, Phi Delta Theta, had an easy time in beating Shira and Fennimore, 6-1 and 6-0.

Schott and Christensen, Phi Gamma Delta, won out over Seldon and Mijares, Phi Kappa, 6-3 and 7-5. Thomas and Lichtendal, Tau Kappa Epsilon, beat Lupfer and Dunn, Alpha Chi Sigma, 6-2 and 6-0. Lemon and Butz, Sigma Nu, beat Rauch and Mytho, Delta Tau Delta, 6-3, 7-9, and 6-0.

Five of Penn State's nine football games in 1953 will be played on the road.

Play continued last night in the fraternity intramural horseshoe tournament with seven teams posting victories.

Liebert and Hopps, Phi Kappa Phi, topped Jackson and Ayers, Beta Tau Pi, 21-10 and 21-15. Dellson and Kunda, Phi Kappa, beat Gruskin and Berenbaum, Sigma Alpha Mu, 21-14 and 21-9. Dubinsky and Crosby, Delta Upsilon, beat Averick and Bell, Phi Epsilon Pi, 21-11, 8-21, and 21-13. Michelson and Ross, Alpha Chi Sigma, topped Bowers and Piper, Phi Delta Theta, 21-14 and 21-8.

Smith and Echlund, Alpha Gamma Rho, topped Harding and Miller, Alpha Zeta, 21-14, 20-21, and 21-5. Dennison and Stachel, Delta Chi, beat Marts and Robinson, Theta Xi, 21-14 and 21-9. Schwartz and Bushkoff, Zeta Beta Tau, passed into the quarter-finals by virtue of a forfeit win.

The Nittany Lion gridders played before 300,000 fans in 1952, representing the largest crowds in Penn State's 66 years of intercollegiate football.

Penn State's wrestlers and gymnasts copped National titles the same day.

Jim Piersall's two-out single against relief pitcher Mike Garcia enabled Ted Lepcio to score the 11th inning run that gave the Boston Red Sox a 5-4 victory over the Cleveland Indians today.

Lepcio set the stage for the Red Sox' overtime triumph by opening the bottom of the second extra session with his third hit of the game. The first hit was his second homer of the season against a leftfield light standard in the second inning.

Tom Umphlett sacrificed and Garcia passed Milt Bolling intentionally before Al Zarilla popped out while pinch-hitting for relief and winning pitcher Ellis Kinder. Then came Piersall's drive through the hole into leftfield.

All of the Indians' runs resulted from homers by Al Rosen, Joe Tipton and Jim Lemon against starter Brown during the first four innings.

Lepcio's homer was against starter Bob Feller, who gave the Red Sox another tally in the third inning and then was yanked for Dave Hoskins in the seventh.

The Red Sox pulled into a 4-4 tie against Hoskins in the eighth. That flinger committed a balk with the bases filled, permitting Floyd Baker to score and then Umphlett singled in Sam White. Sherman Lollar clouted a home run with two mates aboard to highlight a four-run seventh inning and then singled to ignite a two-run rally in the ninth that gave the Chicago White Sox a 7-5 victory over the New York Yankees today.

The former Yankee catcher distinguished himself in the field as well, picking two runners off second base in crucial spots and nabbing another trying to steal.

Chicago centerfielder Jim Rivera chipped in with two brilliant runnign catches as the entire White Sox team sparked afield.

Four straight singles after Tom Gorman had retired the first batter in the ninth gave the White Sox their winning margin.

The Yankees tied the score, 5-5, in the eighth when rookie Don Bollweg smashed his second home run in two days.

Thomas (Tommy) Holmes was fired late yesterday as manager of the Toledo Sox of the American Association and replaced immediately by George Selkirk, a former New York Yankee great.

Selkirk, who managed the Kansas City Blues, a Yankee farm team, in 1951 and 1952, will assume his new post officially Saturday night in Minneapolis when the Sox oppose the Millers.
