

Golfers Still Unbeaten, Win 5-2; Lion Nine Sweeps Twin Bill

Eaken Cards 66, Keeps Log Intact

By ROY WILLIAMS

State's unbeaten golfers continued their winning ways Saturday when the Nittany Lion linksmen defeated Georgetown, 5-2. The score, however, does not reveal the tough battle the Rutherfordmen went through in order to extend its win streak to five.

Rod Eaken defeated Jim Nies, 5-4, who was runnerup in the EIGA tourney two years ago, with the aid of four birdies. Eaken shot a three under par 66, which was the lowest score that any Lion has registered this year, to win the medalist honors for the afternoon.

Gittlen Wins 5th

Gordon Stroup lost, his third of the year, to Georgetown's Joe Turnesa on the 20th hole, 1 up. Stroup was two down and two to go on the 16th hole, when he shot an eagle on the 17th and a birdie on the 18th to pull even with his opponent. Turnesa, son of Willie Turnesa who was runnerup to Walter Hagen in the 1927 PGA Tourney at Cedar Crest Country Club, went ahead on the next two holes to win the match. Chuck Dailey lost to State's Joe Webb, 5-3, as Webb won his fourth match against only one loss.

Warren Gittlen chalked up his fifth straight win of the season over Jim McNamra, 2-1. George Kreidler lost his second match of the season, 4-2, to the Hoyas, John Farrell Jr.

Rutherford Pleased

Lou Riggs, who is the only other Nittany golfer to own a 5-0 log, had a tough time copping his fifth straight, edging his Hoya opponent, Joe Obrien, by a 4-2 margin. Captain Hud Samson had an easy afternoon of golf when he trounced Georgetown's Mike Flynn, 8-7. It was Samson's second straight win of the campaign.

Coach Rutherford said, "I was very pleased with the boys' performance Saturday. They played a good team, and the closeness of the match is indicated by the individual scores, not by the entire match score."

Rutherford continued, "We meet two of the toughest teams that we have on our season card on Friday and Saturday." Lehigh will host the Nittany squad on Friday afternoon at Bethlehem. The Lions will return Friday night to engage a Colgate squad Saturday afternoon on their home grounds.

Kappa's Win WRA Softball

Kappa Kappa Gamma last night won the women's intramural softball championship against Alpha Chi Omega on Holmes Field. The five-inning game ended with the score reading 24-8.

Pitcher for Kappa Kappa Gamma was Mary Morrison. Catcher was Charlotte Leichel. Alpha Chi Omega's battery was Virginia Coskery and Margaret Hepler.

The first inning ended with a tie of 2-2. In the first half of the second inning Helen Banes and Ann Miller batted in two runs to put Alpha Chi Omega out in front 4-2. Kappa Kappa Gamma came back in the last half of the inning with two more runs and a home run by Marilyn Porter making the score 5-4 with Kappa Kappa Gamma ahead.

In the first half of the third inning AChiO tied the game. Kappa Kappa Gamma in the last half of the third, however, with two outs, chalked up eight runs.

Alpha Chi Omega came up with one run in the fourth inning. The Kappas scored nine runs with Francis Black hitting a home run.

Tom Werner, Sil Cerchie, Rex Bradley, and Ron Weidenhammer Coach Joe Bedenk's talented four

Netmen Beat Pitt, 6-3; To Play Bucknell Next

The Bucknell tennis team comes to town tomorrow. It will run flush into a rolling Lion outfit that has captured its last two decisions after four straight losses—the latest win, a 6-3 job over Pitt Saturday, on the College courts.

Bucknell, earlier in the season, administered an 8-1 thumping over Coach Sherm Fogg's charges on the Lewisburg courts, so the revenge motive will be a strong factor in tomorrow's match.

Saturday, the Lions, while almost losing to the rain, swept all six singles matches without loss of a set to clinch number three against five setbacks. The Lions also lost all three doubles matches without winning a set, after Fogg shuffled up his doubles combinations. But the doubles losses didn't matter, as the match was already out of the wood.

Singles winners were Dick Robinson, Bill Ziegler, Bruz Ray, Lou Landon, Captain Bill Forrey, and Dick Gross.

Robinson beat Gene Weinstein, 7-5, 6-4, in the top singles match. Ziegler swept by Harry Duncan, 6-1, 6-4, while Bruz Ray turned back Joe Bendel, 6-3, 6-1.

Landon snapped out of his personal singles doldrums with a quick 6-2, 6-1 decision over Dave Litchman.

Forrey beat Elmer Stevens, 6-3, 6-4, and Gross defeated John Decoux in identical sets, 8-2, 6-2.

Weinstein and Litchman, in the top doubles duel, took two extended sets from Ziegler and Landon, 7-5, 6-4. The Rays were beaten in the number two doubles match by Duncan and Bendel, 6-4, 6-3.

In the last doubles match of the wet afternoon, Stevens and Decoux turned back Forrey and sophomore Otto Hetzel in two sets, 8-6, 6-4.

The summaries: SINGLES Robinson (S) defeated Weinstein (P), 7-5, 6-4. Ziegler (S) defeated Duncan (P), 6-1, 6-4. Bruz Ray (S) defeated Bendel (P), 6-3, 6-1. Landon (S) defeated Litchman (P), 6-2, 6-1. Forrey (S) defeated Stevens (P), 6-3, 6-4. Gross (S) defeated Decoux (P), 8-2, 6-2. DOUBLES Weinstein and Litchman (P) defeated Ziegler and Landon (S), 7-5, 8-6. Duncan and Bendel (P) defeated Bruz Ray and Bill Ray (S), 6-4, 6-3. Stevens and Decoux (P) defeated Forrey and Hetzel (S), 8-6, 6-4.

Baseball's Big Leagues

By Associated Press

Monte Irvin's three-run home run in the seventh climaxed a four-run inning yesterday and gave the New York Giants an 8-6 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Giants put together five straight hits in the seventh after two men were out. Davey Williams started with a double.

Cincinnati 2, Brooklyn 1 Milwaukee 4 Phillies 0

Al Dark beat out an infield hit, sending Williams to third and Bob Hofman followed with a run-scoring single.

Irvin then hit his homer into leftfield bleachers, scoring behind Dark and Hofman.

Veteran righthander Ned Garver hurled the Detroit Tigers to their third straight victory with a five-hit, 5-2 decision, but the Boston Red Sox bounced back for an 8-5 verdict in the nightcap of a doubleheader before a 6591 crowd.

Garver, hampered by a knee ailment since the start of the season, set the young Bosox down with only one hit over the last five innings to gain his third victory against four losses.

In the second game, the Red Sox erupted for six runs on four hits, three walks and an error in the first inning. Mel Parnell was credited with his fifth victory against no setbacks although he needed help from reliever Ellis Kinder in the seventh.

LAST WEEK

This Friday and Saturday Is Your last Chance to See —

Right You Are (If You Think So) by Pirandello

Tickets on sale at Student Union and at the door — $1.00

8 p.m.

Center Stage

Beat Orange 2-1, 9-0; 'Ves', Gar Victors

The Penn State baseball team, back in the thick of the District Two fight, heads southward today where it meets West Virginia in a doubleheader tomorrow afternoon. The Lions, almost counted out of the district race a week ago, moved back into contention Saturday when they swept a double header at Syracuse, 2-1, and 9-0.

The big story Saturday was once again pitching as the Nittanians won their tenth and eleventh contests. Gar Gingerich and Keith Vesling, Joe Bedenk's pitching mainstays all season, both turned in excellent performances. Gingerich twirled a six-hitter in the opening 2-1 win and Vesling set the Orange down in the second contest on one hit.

The Lions could make only six hits themselves in the opener. They bunched two of them in the sixth frame, however, sending home two runs—enough for the margin of victory.

Gingerich got into trouble in the seventh when the Orange scored its lone run. However, that was all they could get from the curve balling righthander as he bore down and retired the side. The win was his fourth.

The seven-inning nightcap was a different story altogether. The Lions scored early and often as Vesling, who won his sixth of the season, walked only one man. The lone Syracuse hit came in the sixth inning when pitcher Micky Kyff singled.

Tom Werner and Ron Weidenhammer, with two hits apiece, led the Lion nine-hit attack. The Bedenkmen opened the scoring in the first frame scoring one run on two hits, a double by Werner and single by Sil Cerchie.

Four more crossed the plate in the second and four again in the seventh.

Box scores for Penn State vs Syracuse. Penn State: AB R H, Russo, 2b 4 0 0; Weidenham, cf 4 1 1; Werner, rf 2 0 0; Cerchie, cf 3 1 1; Kline, 3b 4 0 0; Bradley, lf 4 0 1; Kennedy, lb 4 0 2; Leonard, c 3 0 0; Gingerich, p 3 0 0. Syracuse: AB R H, Neufang, 2b 4 0 0; Hoffman, cf 4 0 1; Sawyer, rf 3 0 1; Young, c 4 0 2; Nelson, 3b 0 0 0; Althouse, 3b 3 1 1; Sarubbi, lf 2 0 0; Carpenter, lb 4 0 1; Crowley, ss 2 0 0; Craddock, p 3 0 0; Coyne, 1 0 0. Totals: Penn State 31 2 6, Syracuse 30 1 6.

a—Ran for Young in 9th. b—Struck out for Sarubbi in 9th. Penn State 000 002 000—2. Syracuse 000 000 100—1. Runs batted in: Bradley, Carpenter, Two-base hit: Weidenhammer. Three-base hit: Kennedy. Double play: Kline (unassisted). Bases on balls off Gingerich 1; off Craddock 5. Struck out by Gingerich 6; by Craddock 12.

(Continued on page seven)

Stickmen's Hopes For First Win Dampened, 16-9

After battling favored Cornell to a stalemate at halftime Saturday, Penn State's lacrossemen saw hopes for victory No. 1 go aglimmering as the Big Red put on a strong second half surge to win, 16-9, at Ithaca, N.Y.

The Lions, who have now dropped seven in a row, started off fast. Led by Captain Wayne Hockersmith who scored five goals, running his season scoring total to 18, State had a 4-3 edge at the end of the first period. During the quarter, the Nittanians took advantage of the situation several times when Cornell men were out of the game with penalties.

The Ithacans fought back in the second quarter with three tallies, and pulled ahead in the third stanza with a five-goal barrage, while the Lions were able to counter but once. The Ivy Leaguers, led by basketball ace Dave Bradfield, shoved home five more tallies in the last period to leave no doubt about the outcome.

In the end it was the Big Red's strength at midfield which spelled the difference. What also hurt was Cornell's great reserve strength, as the home forces used a total of 24 men, ten of whom got into the scoring act. Coach Nick Thiel also cleared his bench, using his entire traveling squad. A total of 24 penalties were called in the action, 17 against Cornell.

The Lions now will return home to meet Loyola of Baltimore Saturday on the golf course. The tilt will close out the season for the Thielmen.

The Lineups

Lineups for Penn State vs Cornell. Penn State: Youtz, Klein, Goldsworthy, Hockersmith, Girard, Arnold, Hoy, Dean, Schaefer, McCollough. Cornell: Shriver, Gibson, Fall, Bradfield, Boel, Anderson, Gifford, Findlay, Wilmet, Hudson. Scoring: Penn State—Hockersmith 5, Klein, Goldsworthy, Arnold, Pawloski, Cornell—Bradfield 3, Fiske 2, Boel 2, Falck 2, Hopper 2, Perrollay, Shriver, Jamison, Gibson, Anderson.

Bedenk on Committee

Joe Bedenk, veteran Penn State coach, will serve on the committee which Monday will choose the District Two representative for the College World Series at Omaha, Neb. The five-man committee will hold its meeting at the Hotel Casey in Scranton. A play-off is regarded as a distinct possibility.

Advertisement for Storck Motor Co. featuring a car and text: 'BEFORE LEAVING, GET YOUR CAR CHECKED. Planning a long trip out to the wide open spaces? Good! But first make sure of safe, carefree driving. Let us check your car NOW. STORCH MOTOR CO. AUTHORIZED DeSOTO-PLYMOUTH DEALER 224 E. College Ave., State College'