

250 to Attend AFROTC Camp

More than 250 juniors enrolled in advanced Air Force Reserve Officers' Training Corps will attend summer training camps for a four-week period starting next month, Lt. Col. Jack W. Dieterle, professor of air science and tactics, has announced.

The camps, having 40 students assigned to each, and the starting dates are Keesler AFB, Miss.; Moody AFB, Valdosta, Ga.; and Lawson AFB, Columbus, Ga., beginning June 22.

Robins AFB, Macon, Ga., 28 students, on June 22; Turner AFB, Albany, Ga., 40 students on June 22 and 40 on July 27; Maxwell AFB, Montgomery, Ala., 10 students on July 20; and McGuire AFB, Trenton, N.J., 13 on July 27.

Part-time, Summer Positions Available

An abundance of part-time jobs and a number of summer camp and resort positions are still available, John Huber, director of Student Employment Service, has announced.

The agency currently has more part-time job requests than it can fill.

Part-time jobs now open include garden and lawn work, general housework and odd jobs.

Camps and resorts usually hire until the end of the semester, Huber said. Further information may be obtained at the Student Employment office, 112 Old Main.

EE Honorary Presents Portrait to Department

A portrait of Dr. Eric A. Walker, dean of the School of Engineering, and former head of the Department of Electrical Engineering, has been presented to the department by Eta Kappa Nu, honorary electrical engineering society. The portrait now hangs in the conference room of Electrical Engineering Building.

Prexy Will Speak

President Milton S. Eisenhower will speak May 28 at Bellefonte High School commencement exercises.

'Miss Penn State' Crown Misplaced

One of the crowns brought to the College for the coronation of Miss Penn State last week has been misplaced, according to Nancy D. White, coronation chairman.

Two crowns were ordered for the occasion. The one missing had been in the window of the Charles Shop. The committee discovered the crown was gone after it had been removed from the window.

Miss White requests anyone finding the crown to return it at the Student Union desk. It is valued at $30.

PIAA Tourney Set for State

New champions are assured in both singles and doubles competition when representatives from six PIAA districts compete in the annual State schoolboy tennis tournament here Friday and Saturday.

Entries in the singles competition include Joe Galiardi, Connelville; Dick Norton, State College; Fred Trust, Lower Merion; George Bosas, Pittsburgh Fifth Avenue; and C. Rolland Quick, Montrose.

In doubles, the entries are Bob Steele and John Wright, Latrobe; Joe Eberly and Henry Musser, State College; Tom Harvey and Charles Frey, Radnor; Jay Knudsen and Jack Armstrong, South Hills; and Roy Dailey and Dick Olmstead, Montrose.

UBA to Open Monday; BX Sales Closed

The Used Book Agency of the Book Exchange will be open from 1 to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday next week to receive used text books for sale next semester, Ronald Lench, BX treasurer, announced. Any texts, except used language books, will be accepted, he said.

Lench reported the BX ended its sales for the semester at 5 p.m. yesterday.

Memorial Day Services Set

Memorial Day ceremonies will be conducted by students at three places on campus on May 30, according to John Garber, chairman of the Memorial Day committee.

Beginning at 9 a.m., services will be held at the World War I memorial plaque near the Student Employment Agency in Old Main, at President George W. Atherton's grave near Schwab Auditorium, and the World War I plaque in Recreation Hall.

Mrs. C. E. Govier, niece of President Atherton, will place a wreath on his grave. Student representatives will place wreaths at the plaques. A firing squad will fire three volleys and taps will be played at the three locations.

Alumni Group Founded In Pittsburgh Area

A new Penn State alumni group was founded recently in Pittsburgh. Devoted to the interest of recent Penn State graduates, it is called "Penn State Lions of Allegheny County," with active membership open to Penn Staters who have graduated within the past 10 years.

The Allegheny County Alumni Association approved establishment of the "Lions" to promote Penn State activities in the Pittsburgh area. The group is also sanctioned by the General Alumni office.
