

Weather:
Cloudy,
Cooler

The Daily Collegian

FOR A BETTER PENN STATE

See Page 4
Final Exams
And Seniors—

VOL. 53, No. 149

STATE COLLEGE, PA., FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 22, 1953

FIVE CENTS

Cheerleaders Select Two New Cheers

Students attending Penn State football games this fall will be introduced to two new cheers. The new cheers, called "Blue and White" and "Victory for Nittany" were chosen from 15 entries submitted in the recent cheer-writing contests sponsored by the cheerleading squad.

The writer of both cheers is Martha Heim, second semester journalism major. She will receive two $5 awards.

The new cheers will be used at all athletic events, pep rallies, and mass meetings, according to Bruce Wagner, new head cheerleader. The cheerleading squad has designed a set of actions to accompany the cheers.

The "Blue and White" cheer is:
Blue! White!
State! Fight!
Team score!
Lions roar!

The "Victory for Nittany" yell is:

V-I-C-T-O-R-Y
N-I Double T! A-N Y!
Victory, Nittany!
Go -Lions -Go!

Freshmen cheerleaders added to the squad at try-outs Wednesday are Harry Albert, Joan Carter, Anthony Cline, Patricia Dickson, Ronald Lynch, and Joan Myers. Alternates are Bruce Knauss and Ruth Summerville. Fury Feraco was chosen to assist Wagner in leading the squad.

Band Will Give Final Concert

The Penn State Concert Blue Band, conducted by James W. Dunlop, associate professor of music education, will present the final concert of the season at 3 p.m. Sunday on the steps of the Pattee Library.

In the event of rain, the concert will be held in Schwab Auditorium.

Two graduating seniors, Donald Rentschler and Samuel Moldovan, will conduct "Marcho Poco" (Moore) and "Colossus of Columbia March" (Alexander). The program will open with the National Anthem followed by "The Trumpeters" (Leidzen), "Ariane Overture" (Boyer), and "Irish Tune from County Derry" (Grainger).

"Smoke Gets In Your Eyes" (Kern), "American Patrol" (Meacham), "Carnival Day in New Orleans" (Morrissey), and "The Phantom Regiment" (Anderson) will follow.

Alpha Phi Omega Cards Available for Initiates

New initiates of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, may pick up membership cards until May 29 at the Student Union desk in Old Main. Members' certificates will be sent to students' summer addresses from the national office in a few weeks. Members wishing to help during Orientation Week with the campus tour or information booth should contact Gail Bimber, president, now or during the summer.

Animal Husbandry Head

Dr. William L. Henning, professor of animal husbandry, has been named to succeed Franklin L. Bentley, retiring head of the Animal Husbandry department. Henning will assume his duties in July.

Ag LaVie Deadline

Seniors in agriculture may pick up LaVies today and tomorrow morning at the Student Union desk in Old Main. Engineering seniors may pick up copies Monday and Tuesday.

Senate Group Expresses Dissatisfaction of 'Week'

ALL-COLLEGE PRESIDENT Richard Lemyre explains to All-College Cabinet last night the motion passed yesterday by the Senate Committee on Student Affairs. It expresses "dissatisfaction" with Spring Week activities this year. Spring Week plans next year will be approved by Cabinet and then by the Senate committee, he said.

26 ROTC Students To Be Cited Today

Twenty-six Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps students will receive awards at 4:10 p.m. today during common hour.

President Milton S. Eisenhower will present awards in the infantry branch to David Odierne, outstanding ROTC cadet; Walter Herbt, outstanding senior cadet; James Mellish, outstanding junior cadet; and George Sobiech, outstanding sophomore cadet.

Eric A. Walker, dean of the School of Engineering, will present awards to Herbert Kirkwood, Joel Peabody, Ralph Thomas, and Robert Buchwald for being selected outstanding Army ROTC cadets in engineering.

George Haller, dean of the School of Chemistry and Physics, will present awards to August Greyhosky, John Goettel, George Schneider, and Richard Feicht for being outstanding Signal Corps cadets in their class, and to Gordon Fee, outstanding freshman cadet.

Col. Lucien E. Bolduc will present the Hearst trophy medal awards to William Beatty, Charles Hayes, John Thalimer, Richard Moorehead, John Leone and Donald Greth.

Colonel Bolduc will present Distinguished Military Student awards to John Buechner, Ranon Grapsy, David Heckel, Thomas Inter, Courtney McMahon, Rogers Bender and Richard Humes.

Jobs Available In Dining Halls

Men students who wish to work next fall in College dining halls should apply now at the Student Employment office, according to John Huber, student employment director.

Jobs are available for waiters, dishwashers, vegetable peelers and steam table men. The Student Employment office has also received requests for waiters from fraternities.

Students applying for positions will be referred to jobs in dormitories convenient to their next year's residence. They will be put through a short training program during the remainder of this semester. Men students now living on campus who are moving off campus in the fall will be accepted.

Committee to Approve 1954 Spring Week Plans

By TAMMIE BLOOM

A motion expressing dissatisfaction with the 1953 Spring Week program was presented to All-College Cabinet last night in a letter from Wilmer E. Kenworthy, secretary of the Senate Committee on Student Affairs. The motion had been passed yesterday by the committee.

The motion said the committee expressed its "serious dissatisfaction with the 1953 Spring Week, both as to the effect of the program on the academic program of students, and as to the quality of some of the events."

In addition, the motion told Cabinet the 1954 Spring Week committee must present to the Senate committee a sound plan for meeting objections before the event may be approved and scheduled for 1954.

Richards Named Chairman

Richard Lemyre, All-College president, read the letter and then told Cabinet he will meet with the 1954 Spring Week chairman when plans for the event are made. Plans will be approved by Cabinet before they are submitted to the Senate committee.

George Richards, sixth semester commerce major, was named by Lemyre 1954 Spring Week chairman. Richards was 1953 Carnival parade chairman. Myron Enelow, sixth semester arts and letters major, was appointed Spring Week business manager.

Lemyre said he felt the motion of the Senate group was well-founded, and that he believed students could handle the problem. He said he appreciated the fact that the matter was referred to the student governing body rather than being acted upon immediately by the administration.

Calls Shows "Risqué"

The disapproval arose, Lemyre said, from the fact that some groups went too far in trying to make their spring carnival booths a success. He said academic problems created by the intensified activities of the week might be settled by a shortened program.

In addition to carnival shows, which Lemyre described as "somewhat risqué," the booth sponsored by Players and Radio Guild was closed the first night of carnival when alcoholic beverages were found in the possession of students. The booth was the first one to be closed in the carnival's five year history.

In an informal meeting of student leaders after the first day of Spring Carnival, it was decided that some booths had forgotten good taste in their barking and shows. The Spring Week committee warned all groups that booths might be closed if they did not remedy the situation.

Kohn Named Elections Group Head

By PHIL AUSTIN

Edwin Kohn, sixth semester industrial engineering major, was named head of the All-College elections committee last night by All-College President Richard Lemyre.

Myron Enelow, sixth semester arts and letters major, was appointed solicitations chairman of the Campus Chest; Gerald Maurer, sixth semester arts and letters major, Fun Night; Jane Mason, sixth semester home economics major, Dean of Men's Coffee hour committee; and Jesse Arnette, fourth semester arts and letters major, junior prom committee.

Three junior and four senior appointments to Tribunal were also made by Lemyre.

Named to serve on the elections committee with Kohn are Charles Obertance, Diane Miller, Miss Mason, Micro Snidero, William Bucklew, George Greer, Elizabeth Engle, Gwen Griffith, Donald Shirk, and Ernest Famous.

Serving on the Campus Chest committee will be Janet Carstensen, Eleanor Horvitz, John Garber, John Brunner, John Flanagan, Patricia Jones, and Elsworth Smith.

Helping Maurey with Fun Night will be Barbara Wallace, Howard Guenther, and Marcia Furgeson. On the coffee hour group are Thomas Inter and Joseph Barnett.

Appointed to the junior prom committee are John Speer, Dorothy Swanson, Carol Avery, Joseph Barclay, and Jerome Kidd.

Tribunal appointments are Otto Hetzel, Benjamin Sinclair, and Barry Kay, junior representative; and William Shifflett, Robert Caruthers, Warren Haffner, and Robert Solomon. No sophomore representative will be appointed until fall, Lemyre said.

Maurey said he will ask all hatmen and hatwomen to attend Fun Night this fall to prove they are really friendly with the frosh and are here to help them.

Tribunal Fines Five For Traffic Violations

Two students were each fined $3 Tuesday night for incurring second offenses in traffic violations and three students were fined $2 each for first offenses by Tribunal.

A suspended sentence was given one student due to extenuating circumstances surrounding the case.

A student who had been reported by a professor for reckless driving was given a severe warning by members of the judicial group.

Dry-Cleaning Deadline

Today is the last day for men to pick up garments from the Student Dry Cleaning Agency units in Hamilton Hall and Pollock Union Building.

4-Month Old French Cabinet Ousted on Financial Issue Vote

PARIS, May 21 (AP)—The French National Assembly threw Premier Rene Mayer's four-month-old Cabinet out of office on a financial issue today, thereby casting a shadow over an impending three-power meeting Mayer was to attend with President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Churchill.

Mayer had just announced that Britain, France, and the United States had agreed to meet on the highest level in Bermuda in June to prepare for a possible Big Four conference with Russia.

This drew applause from some moderate and rightist deputies, but Mayer's critics were unmoved and the announcement failed to stave off defeat. Who will represent France at Bermuda is therefore a question: Presumably there will be a new government by then.

The Mayer Cabinet, most conservative of the 18 that have ruled France since the liberation, was formed Jan. 7 after a 16-day crisis. Formation of a new government may be even more difficult this time, for the rapid turnover in Cabinets has made the task of Premier a thankless one.

The issue on which Mayer lost was a bill to give him special powers to slice a mounting deficit by decree. He demanded a vote of confidence on the issue.

In the background, however, was opposition to his proposal to cut the subsidy of $85 million a year to wine and sugar beet growers for producing alcohol, and his proposals to levy new taxes on petroleum products, truck transport, and some categories of cafes.

Deputies whose special interests

(Continued on page eight)