

Lions Eye Upset; Golfers Win

Jaspers Minus Big Three; 5 Lion Thinclads in Finale

By HERM WEISKOPF

The hopes of Penn State's trackmen for an upset over Manhattan's powerhouse were given a boost when they learned yesterday that three ace Jasper sprinters will not be able to compete in today's meet, which starts at 1 p.m. on Beaver Field.

Lindy Remigino, Joe Schatzle, and John O'Connell will not make the trip for Manhattan. The three stars are suffering from food poisoning received last week when they competed in the Coliseum Relays in Los Angeles, Calif. The Jaspers had to withdraw their quarter and half-mile relay squads as a result. Other members of the Manhattan team were also affected, but not as seriously as the three sprinters.

Five Lion Seniors
The Jaspers had been eyeing a clean sweep in the 100 and 220-yard dashes; however, with the recent turn of events, the Lions may be aiming for a slam.

This will be the final dual meet performance for five Lion seniors. Jim Herb, ace high jumper, will be cast against one of the toughest foes of his career when he tries to outjump John Gaffney. Al Schutz and Bill Body will be gunning for some valuable points in the weight events. Bob Roessler will have some stiff competition in the 880, where he will meet Lou Jones. In the mile Bob Gehman will be pitted against Manhattan's Bob Kubic.

Ten IC4A Champs
Even without three of the Jaspers' top runners the meet will be one of the most outstanding and star-studded ever to take place at the College.

Ziegfeld was noted for his Follies and Barnum and Bailey became famous with their three-ring circus, but today Nittany track mentor Chick Werner will try to put on a performance that will outdo them both. There will be ten IC4A champs competing in the Jasper-Lion meet and also performing will be the PIAA track champions.

Greyhounds Lion Bait For 1st Win

Seven Nittany Lion lacrosse men will take their final bows of the season today, when Coach Nick Thiel's warriors ring down the curtain on Lion stick activities for the year, facing Loyola of Baltimore. Game time is 2 p.m. on the golf course.

Playing their final game for the Lions will be Captain Wayne Hockersmith, Tom Goldsworthy, Bob Pawloski, Jim Dean, Bill McCollough, and Dick Schaefer. The seventh member, Doc Rostmeyer, was injured several weeks ago and will be viewing proceedings from the sidelines.

The Greyhounds boast verdicts over the U. of Baltimore, 8-4, and Western Maryland, 15-3, while dropping contests to Johns Hopkins, Swarthmore, Washington College and Maryland.

Starting for the Lions will be Hockersmith, Dave Arnold and Lou Girard at midfield; Goldsworthy, Ron Youtz and Dick Klein on attack; Schaefer, Herb Horikawa and Jim Hay will lead the defense, while McCollough will guard the net.

It was announced yesterday that Captain Wayne "Butch" Hockersmith will represent Penn State's lacrosse team in the North-South all-star game at Baltimore, Md., June 6. It is the twelfth straight year that the Lions will be represented in the classic.

"The kid," says his coach, Nick Thiel, "represents a nice combination of speed, cunning and scoring ability. He packs a mean wallop from close quarters, and has been one of our most consistent performers." Hockersmith will graduate next month.

Ollie Sax Ready for Manhattan

Sigma Nu Tops IM All-Year Point Award

Sigma Nu remains in first place in the all-year point award system according to the latest listing announced by the intramural department. Delta Upsilon is in second place, while Theta Xi holds down the number three spot.

Sigma Nu has accounted for 769 points in the ten intramural sports played to date. Sigma Nu has a 139 point lead over second place Delta Upsilon.

Delta Upsilon is credited with 630 points. The DU's collected 100 points in the latest three intramural sports completed—40 in volleyball, 25 in badminton, and 35 in handball doubles.

Third place is held down by Theta Xi. The Theta's, who claim 480 points, made the highest climb in the point system.

Fraternity championships already decided are: touch football, Alpha Phi Delta; swimming, Beta Theta Pi; golf medal, Delta Tau Delta (Carney); boxing, Delta Upsilon; basketball, Phi Sigma Delta; wrestling, Sigma Nu; handball singles, Sigma Nu (Girard); volleyball, Theta Xi; badminton, Theta Xi (Robinson); and handball doubles, Sigma Pi (Charlton and Clark).

Nittany Weather Halts PIAA Net Competition

Only three matches were played yesterday before rain forced a postponement of the opening round of the Pennsylvania Intercollegiate Athletic Association tennis championship until today.

Dave Daviss of Meadville beat Bernard Kury of Sunbury, 6-0, 6-1, and Lowell Latshaw of Bethlehem eliminated George Bosas of Pittsburgh Fifth Avenue, 6-0, 6-1, in the only singles matches played. Ben Clinger and Jack Beaton of Mt. Joy were 6-1, 6-0 victors over Jay Knudson and Jack Armstrong of Pittsburgh South Hills in doubles play.

Today's pairings follow:
Singles—Daviss vs Joe Galiardi, Connellsville; Dick Norton, State College vs Bob Richenbach, Wyoming; Fred Trust, Lower Merion, vs Rolland Quick, Montrose, and the Trust-Quick winner against Latshaw.

Doubles Clinger-Beaton vs Roy Dailey and Dick Olmstead, Montrose; Merr Trumbore and Jim Foster, Bethlehem, vs Joe Eberly and Henry Musser, State College; and the latter winner against Bob Steele and John Wright, Latrobe.

The PIAA track and field championships get under way at 10 a.m. today on Beaver Field with more than 800 title aspirants entered.

Suburban Philadelphia schools are once again favorites in both the A and B divisions, which Coatesville and Swarthmore ruled respectively last year.

Defending champions competing from last year include Coatesville's Rod Perry in the 120 yard high hurdles; Bob Barksdale, Norristown, in the high jump; Roland Simpson, Cheltenham, in the 440; Williamsport's Ed Bresnick in the javelin, and the relay teams of Coatesville in the mile and Mt. Lebanon in the half mile.

Local interest will center on State College High's crack mile relay team which is expected to make a strong showing. The Little Lions are also entered in the half mile relay.

WRA Results

SWIMMING (finals)
Delta Delta Delta 125 points
Kappa Alpha Theta 123 points
Alpha Chi Omega 118 points

Grier Ups Mark

Roosevelt Grier, giant football tackle of Roselle, N.J., once again has upped the Penn State shot put record. His heave of 51 feet, 1 1/2 inches against Navy shattered his own mark set indoors three months before against Army.

Baseball's Big Leagues

By Associated Press

Jim Hearn, knocked out seven times in a row this season, came back yesterday to pitch the New York Giants to their sixth straight victory, 3-1, over Brooklyn, with a route-going seven-hitter.

He helped nail this one down with a two-run double in the fourth inning, a ball sliced off the rightfield wall not far from the foul line.

Hank Thompson's fifth homer off the leftfield scoreboard in the seventh gave Hearn a comfortable margin.

NIGHT GAMES
National League
St. Louis 4, Cincinnati 2
American League
Detroit 7, Chicago 0 (7)

Chuck Dressen shook up the Dodger lineup after last night's disaster, moving Jackie Robinson back to third base and sending Don Thompson to right. Billy Cox and Carl Furillo rode the bench. But it didn't make much difference.

The Washington Senators handed the New York Yankees a humiliating 12 to 4 defeat, raking Allie Reynolds for five runs in the first inning and adding the final insult by ending the game with a triple play.

Johnny Mize, the veteran first baseman of the New York Yankees, set a new American League record by hitting safely in his fifth straight pinchhitting assignment. He needs four more to reach 2000.

Mickey Vernon, Washington first baseman, stretched his batting streak to 16 straight games.

Clyde Vollmer walloped a home run and double to drive in five runs, moving him nearer the top in RBIs in the league with 26.

Red Sox Win Two

After providing unbeaten southpaw Mel Parnell with his sixth victory in regular time, the Boston Red Sox swept a doubleheader from the Philadelphia Athletics by twin 3-2 scores when Sammy White doubled in Hoot Evers with one out in the 12th inning of the nightcap.

Kell, the American League's

Defeat Engineers, 6-3, For 6th Successive Win

By ROY WILLIAMS

The Lion linksmen overcame their sternest obstacle of the season in the person of a highly touted Lehigh team and walked away the victor by a comfortable margin, 6-3.

The Red Raiders of Colgate arrived this morning to do battle with State's linksmen. The men from Colgate are presently sporting a very respectable 6-2 win sheet.

Rod Eaken Wins 6th Straight

This match added another notch on the winning side of the ledger and gave the Nittanias a 6-0 record as opposed to Lehigh's 11-3 slate. Lehigh, noted for its invincibility on its Saucon Country Club course, went down to defeat for the second time this year at its home grounds, having lost to Rutgers earlier in the season at the same location.

Lions Were Underdogs
Rod Eaken, playing the number one position, Joe Webb at the number four spot, Lou Riggs, in number five position, and Captain Hud Samson playing the number six spot won in their events. Gordon Stroup and Warren Gittlen, playing three and two, lost close ones in their turn.

The Lions went into this match the underdogs, considering the factors against them—a strong Lehigh team that went undefeated for 37 matches at Saucon, before the Rutgers match—and came out one of the best links teams in the East.

Colgate dampened the successfulness of State's record last year as the Raiders downed the Lions with a heavy defeat of 6-1. George Kreidler was the only Nittany to win his match as he defeated Al Shuttleworth, 2 and 1.

The Lions have only two more matches to round out the season's activity on the greens. The Nittanias will travel to Lewisburg on May 25 and then will host Temple on their home course for the final contest of the campaign.

Eaken Looks for 6th
Lehigh also felt a second blow to its winning record last week when they played Rutgers. The domination which the Brown and White held since 1947 was snapped when the Rutgers squad handed them a 7-2 drubbing. The loss stopped a streak of 37 games straight won on their home links.

Rod Eaken, who has been playing terrific golf all season and who placed second in the Eastern Intercollegiate Tourney, will try for his sixth win. Joe Webb will be gunning for his fifth win in his sixth start.

LaStarza Won't Fight Charles

NEW YORK, May 22 (AP)—Roland LaStarza today declined a challenge to fight Ezzard Charles for the right to get the next shot at Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano.

"Charles has had plenty of title fights," said LaStarza's manager, Jimmy de Angelo, "Now Roland wants his chance. He waited three years for a promised return bout with Marciano and we're not going to let anything stand in our way now. We want Marciano and nobody else."

The challenge to LaStarza, a New Yorker, was made by Charles' co-managers, Tom Tanas and Jake Mintz. They said they had accepted the recommendation of the NBA and the New York commission that Charles and LaStarza battle "it out for the title chance."

New College Diner

Good Food

Attractive Prices

Conveniently Located

Over 20 years courteous service

New College Diner

between the movies